

Saint Mary's Beacon
COUNTY NEWS.
Localwise and Otherwise.

Communications should reach us no later than Tuesday, in order to insure publication in current issue.

Many have taken advantage of the cold snap to kill their peckers.

Miss Madeline Camilleri, who has been visiting friends in Washington, returned to her home on Thursday last.

Anticipating a heavy rush for Christmas poultry, chicken raisers are holding back the fowls for higher prices.

Maryland is well represented at the eleventh annual convention of the American Road Builders' Association in Chicago.

Christmas will be fittingly celebrated with an elaborate program at the Cedar Point M. E. church on Sunday morning, December 27.

Owing to the fact that suitable slides had not been obtained, Father La Farge's lecture, announced for December 16, has been postponed.

Last week Mr. Philip C. Drury, of Clements, butchered a fine 19 month old porker that tipped the scale at 331 lbs. dressed. Any one who can equal this will have to go some.

The Commissioners' Court was in session on Tuesday last and completed some unfinished business from the previous meeting. They will meet again on the second Tuesday of January, 1915.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Mattingly, of Trent Hall Farm, near Mechanicsville, are receiving the sympathy of their many friends upon the death of their 15 month old son, on December 17.

Lost between Lovettsville and Williams on Saturday last, a Small Black Satchel containing tools and telephone material. Liberal reward if returned to Mr. Thomas Duke or Telephone Exchange, Leonardtown, Md.

Maryland cattle may be shipped out of the quarantined counties upon certification and inspection for immediate slaughter, except that all territory within a radius of five miles of any infested farm remains quarantined.

The recent freeze has made traveling very difficult over the new State road from Leonardtown to the lower sections of the county. It was expected that the road would cut up this winter and thus the proper foundation for a permanent good road to be secured. We understand, however, that the county roads are in right shape.

Rev. Joseph Sullivan, S. J., of California, at present stationed at Woodstock, recently visited the Leonardtown Mission and while here met many friends. Father Sullivan is one of the most talented of that great talented body, the Jesuits, and since his departure was most heartily felt. We understand that he may return for a brief visit for the Christmas vacations to assist the Fathers here.

In this issue we reprint from the Baltimore American, by request of one of our oldest patrons, an article from the pen of Mrs. Maria Briscoe Croker, daughter of Prof. Ned Briscoe, entitled the "Fighting Thomsons". As these same soldiers were boys in Leonardtown, in the long ago, the article should prove of educational interest to those who are already partially familiar with their history.

Recently Capt. H. J. Chesser, George's Island, owner of the schooner Martha A. Avery, was fined $20.00 for not displaying the schooner's name on her bow. Capt. E. A. Norris, of Hall, and Walter Files, of Calvert county, were fined $50.00 for failing to observe the requirements of the law regarding gasoline cranks. In several instances a portion of the fines imposed by the Collector have been remitted. We trust these gentlemen will receive like clemency from the authorities.

Miss Eliza C. Gough, daughter of Mrs. Rebecca Gough, formerly of this county, now residing in La Plata, was married on Thursday last at Christ Episcopal Church, La Plata, to William H. Wright, pastor of Choptank Episcopal Church and a brother-in-law of the bride. Following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served at the bride's home. Mr. and Mrs. Clark left later in the afternoon for a wedding trip North. They will reside in Washington. The groom is secretary of one of the committees of the United States Senate.

The next basket ball game of the season will be played on Thursday evening, December 17th, at Leonard Hall. As the Leonard Hall and Leonardtown teams are well matched, an interesting contest is promised. An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged. The members of the Leonardtown team are particularly anxious that the attendance at this and the remaining games of the season be good, in order to encourage the athletic and other activities of Leonard Hall, and show the public appreciation of the good work that is being done in our midst by this most excellent institution.

The following merchants and business houses will close their doors on Thursday, December 24th to Monday, December 29th, in order that their clerks and employees may have an opportunity to enjoy the Christmas festivities: Drury & Sanderson, The F. O. Morgan Dept. Store, Foxwell & Foxwell, J. J. Norris, The City Bank Store, H. E. Lumpkin, The J. P. Greenwell Impment Co., Loker & DeWaal, The Leonardtown Bargain House, L. Genders, Harry M. Jones, J. S. Johnson. The attention of the public is called to this "innovation," which will prove a source of rest to those who have been working long hours the year round.

News from the Seventh.

Mr. John Dean, our local contractor fell from the second story, of Mr. Clarence Gass's dwelling and was badly but not seriously hurt.

Mr. Cleveland Bailey, of Mattipani, lost a blooded ox by strangulation.

Mr. Carroll Ellis recently killed his four pigs. They weighed respectively 291, 285, 298 and 432. Who can beat it?

Recent rains have greatly improved the condition of our water supply. Some of our neighbors have been hauling water nearly all summer.

Capt. Jim Bally has sold his fast stall boat, Kirby, consideration not known. Captain Boss Bally being the purchaser.

Lots of our people journeyed to the county seat Monday.

One of our handsomest and most popular widowers has recently purchased a new top buggy and harness. Young courtiers men take warning.

One of the greatest losses a man can experience, is to lose his temper. Only a mint can make money without advertising. Why not try a little advertisement in the BEACON.

Now Uncle Sam, please don't go fooling with old Mexico. Keep your boys home for Xmas cheer. And leave them tight until next year. Do your duty, but treat us right. And don't let us into the awful fight. There's enough fighting in Europe for the rest of the world.

So be neutral and friendly and keep out of this quarrel. Our boys are good fighters but they don't want to go to their resurrection morn in old Mexico.

The Carter-Willis case has been postponed until January.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Wible, accompanied by Mrs. S. W. and Harold Herbert, have just returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Wible, of Hollywood.

Messrs. Fred and George McWilliams are busy sawing their neighbors wood piles.

Captain Matt Bally has been unloading oysters at Bushwood Canning House.

Captain George Ellis is paying from 27 to 50 cents for oysters.

I wish you all, both short and tall, Young middle-aged and gray, The rich, the poor, White, black and moor, Merry Christmas Day, And a Prosperous New Year To the BEACON so dear.

GABRIEL.
Scope of the Next Fair.

Year after year the work of the fair has advanced and improved over that of the preceding, until the whole county is alive to the good that can be done through its instrument.

The fair is county-wide and every section of the county should be interested sufficiently to prompt every farmer to exhibit.

To arrange for more economical transportation and care of exhibits, especially of live stock, the committee has arranged for a meeting to be held at Leonard Hall, December 30th at 2 P. M.

At this meeting it is hoped to see the ladies as well as the gentlemen, who are interested in the broadening of the scope of the fair work.

Committees and various officers for the ensuing year must be appointed, many new features must be introduced and accommodations must be made for the handling of exhibits and the care of patrons.

Every district must have a working committee to promote the interest of the fair and superintend the careful transportation of property.

Let everyone from the whole county feel interested, and let every district feel that it should be represented at the meeting, December 30th.

Get together once more for the promotion of our interests. Your advice is needed, then be generous enough to let others profit by what you can do for the good of your own county.

From Scotland.
Our genial friend, J. M. Eliff, has purchased a complete moving picture outfit and will soon begin to exhibit. He has a choice selection of films to start with and a fine assortment of phonograph records, ranging from the time to the classics, from "Casey Jones" to Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata in F." Jack says he is prepared to give the public first class entertainments, and we hope he may find a profitable venture.

Our slide trombone artist, Mr. W. Raleigh, is reporting progress in his band. While he is not exactly in class with John Philip Sousa, still plays "A Hot Time in the Old Town," in a strenuous manner, which surely "going some."

Gabriel, I doff my hat to you. For forty years I have been trying to convince the public that I was both wise and able, but in vain. Even Mrs. Simon has had serious doubts on the subject. It remained for you to reveal this fact and proclaim it to the world. Not only that, but I have had a vague feeling that courting me through my veins was a strain on my blood. You have confirmed my belief by giving me my proper relief and relieved me of all worry in connection thereto. "For this relief, thank thee." Here's luck to you and in the language of the Irishman, "May ye live to eat the rabbit that runs over your grave."

SOLOMON.
From Club, Third District.

On Monday, December 14th, an important meeting of the Third District Farmers Club will be held. For the convenience of the members the meeting will be held in the Court House at 2 P. M. Every member should be present at this meeting.

Christmas Tree.
The Parish of All Saints' Church has arranged for a Community Christmas Tree at the new Parish Hall, near Oakley, on Holy Innocents Day, December 19th. Parents and children in the parish and neighborhood are invited. Don't forget the date, Monday, Dec. 19, at 3 p. m.

THE WARRING NATIONS.

God help the struggling armies Who for their countries fight; Bring comfort to the soldier boys, In our earnest prayer to-night.

For the brave and gallant soldiers Of all nations we adore! And nightly pray that they may see Their native homes once more.

Our hearts are torn with sympathy For all nations, great and small And many a silent tear is shed When we read of those who fall.

When we think of wives and mothers, When we think of babes unborn, Who shall never see their fathers, Then again our hearts are torn.

When Thanksgiving day is dawning And we humbly bend the knee, We must pray for those who suffer, And thank our God that we are free.

Free from all the cannons roaring, Living in a peaceful land, We are thankful for these blessings, Proud of our country's stand.

But our hearts in tender pity Go out to those who are in the strife; To the soldier and his mother, To his children and his wife.

Soon the bells will be a ringing, Christmas' peace will be on air, And in churches will be singing "Peace on earth, good will to men."

Now we pray the God above us That the cruel war will cease, And that before the New Year All the world will be at peace.

God protect the little orphan, Bless and help the wounded men; Send this Angel to the widow Vainly weeping for the slain.

So may God's Angel hover Over the living and the dead, Protecting every nation With his shining wings outspread.—Mrs. R. H. COCKERILLE, Great Mills, Md.

Our Advertisers.
The display of Christmas lines by the leading merchants of Leonardtown is quite far beyond anything hitherto seen here. The tasteful selection of fancy china, brass and leather ware, high grade stationery and dainty attractive ivory, together with toys, ornaments, tinseled and the like, make up a mighty fine showing for the progressiveness and up-to-dateness of our shopkeepers. The display is really worth coming to town to see. Note the many desirable articles advertised by these leaders in this issue.

Of course the limited space has prevented a full catalogue, but a trip to town and a visit to the stores will convince you that we are right up to the limit of excellence. Somehow the buyers have gradually displayed a better taste in the selection of their lines, and now the lines themselves reflect the advancement. We note especially an attractive line of gold and silverware that is not surpassed by the great jewelers of the city. Come in and see what the County Seat has done in the way of commercial advancement.

Cedar Point Literary and Debating Society.
The third regular meeting of the Cedar Point Literary Society, was held on Friday night last and a large attendance enjoyed the delightful program.

A spirited debate on the question of "Woman's Suffrage" was forcibly argued for the affirmative by Miss Helen Sherman and for the negative by Miss Leola Graves. The judges decided in the affirmative.

The general debate on the same question was ably debated by the members, the decision also going to the affirmative.

One of the biggest hits of the evening—the question box—caused a great deal of amusement and interest.

Miss Jones delivered a recitation that was well accepted. As the next meeting will be held Christmas night, a special program will be arranged and every effort made to make the meeting interesting. A surprise question will be given at the meeting for debate.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy—The Mother's Favorite.
"I give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to my children when they have colds or coughs," writes Mrs. Verne Shaffer, Vandergrift, Pa. "It always helps them and is far superior to any other cough medicine I have used. I advise anyone in need of such a medicine to give it a trial." For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.
