Because of a wreck on the Pennsylvania system between Baltimore and Bowie, the citizens of Leonardtown failed to receive their northern mail on Saturday last.

The concert at the Town Hall on Thursday last was a treat to the music lovers of this section and was well attended. The proceeds were for the benefit of St. Paul's M. E. Church.

Tuesday next has been selected by the Court as the date for the trial of the famous oyster cases. These cases have attracted a great deal of interest among local oystermen and the general public, and a large attendance at Court on the trial days is expected.

A number of ladies of St. Mary's met at the Court House this (Wednesday) morning to form the Major William Thomas Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The meeting was largely attended and a number of attractive addresses and papers were delivered and read. A poem by Miss Maddox was especially well received. Because of the lack of time between the opening of the meeting and our going to press, we were unable to get into type for this issue an account of the meeting. We hope to have a lengthy account for our next publication.

Because he was viewing some ancient mosaics through a pair of field-glasses in Palermo, Bancel La Farge, son of the famous artist, John La Farge, and brother of Rev. Father La Farge, S. J., of the Leonardtown Mission, was arrested as a German spy by the Italian authorities. He was released, however, upon showing his American passport. Mr. La Farge has been working in Switzerland and France for the past nine years, and his paintings and murals are making his name as famous as that of his illustrious father. His paintings are on exhibition at the San Francisco Exposition, and are attracting most favorable attention.

Miss Walton a Suicide. Despondency over the sudden death last February of her mother is believed to have caused Miss Constance Walton, 20 years old, daughter of Dr. J. Roland Walton, to commit suicide on Friday last, at her home, 3222 19th street northwest, Washington, by shooting herself through the heart.

Miss Walton, who was extremely beautiful and who had a wide circle of friends, fired but one shot, death ensuing almost immediately. She had been on the front piazza of her home a short time prior to killing herself. The coroner, in his certificate, stated that Miss Walton had met death at her own hands while in a state of intense melancholia.

News from the Seventh.

Mrs. Jane Alice Ferrell, wife of Peter H. Ferrell, died very suddenly at her residence Monday night about 10 o'clock. Mrs. Ferrell had been a sufferer from asthma and heart trouble and was told by her physician that she would die very suddenly, and did not live five minutes after she was taken ill. She survived by her husband and four sons, three daughters, besides a large number of sisters and brothers. A funeral will take place from her husband's residence, Broadwood, at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, interment being in Sacred Heart Cemetery.

Lancaster Knott fell from an cart and broke his arm. Dr. Palmer reduced the fracture.

Glorious rains Monday evening about 5 o'clock. Crops could not look better.

Mr. J. F. Crow, of Bramley, had a fine Messenger colt to fall and broke its left fore leg Monday evening.

Quite a large lot of tobacco is being shipped in this section. Some of our farmers have sold and realized good prices.

Mr. Wilkerson, from Washington, ran into the bank at Jameson's gate and demolished his machine. Fortunately, no one was hurt. Messrs. R. D. Blackstone and Briscoe Woodburn went to the rescue and conveyed Briscoe to River Springs and the auto to Bushwood.

Two very popular young men of our immediate neighborhood, after visiting their sweethearts Sunday, were seen paddling through the mud returning home from lower Brantley Monday evening.

Best Diarrhoea Remedy. If you have ever used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy you know it is a success. Sam F. Guin, Whitley, Ala., writes: "I had measles and got caught out in the rain and it settled in my stomach and bowels and after a few days, and had it not been for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not possibly have lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to your remedy, I am now well and strong." More About Sacred Heart Festival. Five days more and Sacred Heart Festival! The tables are ready for the spread; the sweets are coming or are being foundering on the wires, striking in their Baltimore care; the oysters of the county are going on a strike—to test their strength at the striking machine. They will strike 'till their envious foe expires, strike for their altars and their fires; strike for the ringing on the wires, strike for a good cigar.

And that lovely dinner set—42 pieces all in pink and gold and delicate verdant foliage. Who will have it? And for whom will the silver decorated pitcher pour out the luscious lemonade? Who will mount the chest-nut carriage? Somewhere on this planet tonight roam the three favored ones, singled out by Fortune from among their fellowmen to be the special objects of her bounty. So with shooting galleries, doll racks, fish ponds, summer sets and prancing steeds Sacred Heart Festival comes rattling to the fore.

Colored Prohibition Meeting. The meeting at Mt. Zion M. E. Church (colored) in the First district was one of the largest ever held, there being between 500 and 600 present. The meeting was called to order by Richard Medley, who introduced Walter Bischoff as chairman. The first speaker was a Mrs. Mason, whose address was called on by Rev. Father Kelly. Mr. Joseph Howard and Mr. John G. H. Libburn also delivered addresses. Mr. Libburn read a letter to Mr. B. B. from Judge J. W. Wiseman regarding local option in Calvert county.

The management of this meeting speaks volumes for the colored element of the First district, and could be copied with advantage throughout the county. The singing between the speeches, while an innovation, added greatly to the enthusiasm.

Care of Indigestion. Mrs. Sadie P. Clawson, Indiana, Pa., was bothered with indigestion. "My stomach pained me night and day," she writes, "I would feel bloated and have headache and belching after eating. I also suffered from constipation. My daughter had used Chamberlain's Tablets and they did her so much good that she gave me a few doses of them and insisted upon my trying them. They helped me as nothing else has done." Cedar Point Literary and Debating Society. July 9.—Because of the absence of the president, the vice-president assumed the chair. An unusually large crowd was in attendance but, owing to the very busy season, we were unable to render program in full.

Mrs. Jaeger sang the opening song, accompanied by Mrs. Pritchard, who played the zither. Both songs and accompaniment were admirable. The only other feature was the mock trial. Mr. James Watts served the capacity of clerk; Mr. Wm. Fisher, sheriff, and Mr. Adram Wible, erior. Mr. Frank Hayden acted as the accuser, stood trial for the theft of chickens from the henery of Mr. Fred Wiley. There testified to his guilt the said Mr. W. W. Wiley, Mr. Wm. Fisher, Wm. J. S. Jones acted prosecuting attorney. Messrs. E. Jones, P. Wise and R. Wible gave testimonials for defense, yet, in the strength of these and the prisoner's attorney, Capt. Miles, who made an eloquent stand in his behalf, Mr. Hayden was convicted, his penalty coming forthwith, namely, a humorous reading; appended to this sentence six months of good behavior, bonded by a young lady in the audience.

From Gabriel.

If I live a life that is clear and square And I love my fellowman, And I lend him a hand to help him bear

His burden whenever I can, I need not fear what the future holds, Nor what the reward shall be, For the mighty love that all enfold Will most surely care for me.

If I speak a good word of cheer to one Whose sorrows have borne him down, And I give him new hope to journey on, And change to a smile his frown,

I shall not dread when the shadows fall And the end of life draws near, For that wonderful love that shelters All Will drive away my fears.

For my life is measured by what I meet, And I earn my life makes my heart complete, And though I gain the reward, For whether I dwell in a house by the road,

Or far from the haunts of man, If only love makes bright the abode, No fear shall enter it then.

A man comes into this world without his consent and leaves it against his will. During his stay on earth his time is spent in one continuous round of contrasts and misunderstandings. In his infancy he is an angel; in his manhood he is a devil; in his husbandhood he is everything from a lizard up. If he raises a family he is a chump; if he raises a check he is a crook and then the law gets after him. If he is a poor man he is a bad manager and has no sense; if he is rich he is dishonest but considered smart. If he is in politics he is a grifter; you can't place him and he is an undesirable citizen. If he goes to church he is a hypocrite, and if he stays away from church he is a sinner. If he donates to foreign missions he does it for show; if he doesn't he is a tight-wad. When he first comes into the world every one wants to kiss him; before he goes out they all want to kick him. If he dies young there is a great fuss before him, and if he lives to be a ripe old age he is only in the way and is living to save funeral expenses. GABRIEL.

Better Than Life Insurance. Twenty-five cents invested in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will enable you to protect your family from any serious consequences resulting from an attack of colic or diarrhoea during the summer months. IN MEMORIAM. William V. Stone, beloved husband of Mary E. Stone, aged 72 years, departed this life Tuesday, July 13, 1915 at the residence of his son, William A. Stone, 1013 B Street N. E., Washington, D. C. Interment at Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Thursday, July 15.

Departed this life, July 10, 1915, LAWRENCE OTTO TROSSLACH, aged 23 months, infant son of Louis and Ellen Beal Trosslach. Loved in life and in death remembered.

Fold away those little dresses, That our darling used to wear; He no more on earth shall use them— He has climbed the golden stair. —By HIS MOTHER.

In sad but loving remembrance of a dear friend, MISS PEARL HEWITT, who died May 8, Gone, but not forgotten! —M.

We never shall forget her, While in this world we stay; We know she will meet us, When God calls us away.

A precious one from us is gone— A voice we loved is still— A place is vacant in our hearts— Which never can be filled.

Yet again we hope to meet her, When the day of life is dead; And in heaven with joy to greet her, Where no farewell tears are shed.

She has crossed the shining river, And has gained the radiant shore, Where no heart with grief can quiver, And all parting scenes are over.

She has met the dear departed, And has heard the welcome home, By the true and tender-hearted, That before her hence have flown.

We will soon pass on to meet her, And we will soon be with her hand; Meet her just across the river, In the happy spirit land.

God in his wisdom has recalled, The one His love is giving; The one who slumbers here— Her soul is safe in heaven.

Farewell, dear friend, And take thy rest; God took you home— He thought it best.

And her well remembered foot steps We were always glad to hear; But now since they are silent We have shed many a tear. —By a friend, ROSE MILBURN.

For Judge of Orphans' Court

Dear Secretary—Please suggest the name of Mr. SAMUEL H. DEN for the Fourth District, as a most suitable one for the Democratic candidacy for Judge of the Orphans' Court, and say that if elected he will fill that office as creditably and capably as he did that of County Commissioner. Mr. Hayden's record as Commissioner stands out as one of the most enviable that the county has ever had, and beyond a doubt, the confidence reposed in him will be evidence by a very flattering vote.
