PROCLAMATION

Proposed Amendments to the Constitution of Maryland.

Whereas, at the January Session of the General Assembly of Maryland held in the year nineteen hundred and fourteen, Acts were passed, to wit: Chapter 150, proposing an amendment to Article 15, of the Declaration of Rights of the Constitution of Maryland; Chapter 416, proposing a new Article to said Constitution to be known as Article XI-A; Chapter 453, proposing an additional section to Article III of said Constitution and Chapter 673, proposing an additional Article to said Constitution to be known as Article XVI; which said Acts of the General Assembly are in words and figures following:

CHAPTER 150.

An Act to amend Article XV of the Declaration of Rights of the Constitution of the State of Maryland, and to provide for the submission of such amendments to the qualified voters of this State for their adoption or rejection.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland (three-fifths of all the Members of each of the two Houses concurring), That the following Article be and the same is hereby proposed to be placed and read as Article XV of the Declaration of Rights of the Constitution of the State of Maryland, as at present existing, and if adopted by the legal and qualified voters thereof, as herein provided, it shall supersede and stand in place and stead of said Article.

Article XV. That the levying of taxes by the State is grievous and oppressive and ought to be prohibited; that paupers ought not to be assessed for the support of the government; that the General Assembly shall by uniform rules, provide for separate assessment of land and classification and sub-classifications of improvements on land and personal property, as it may seem proper; and all taxes thereafter provided to be levied by the State for the support of the general government shall be levied on the counties and by the City of Baltimore for their respective purposes, shall be uniform as to land within the limits of the uniformity which the class or sub-class of improvements which land and personal property which the respective taxing powers may have directed to be subjected to the tax; yet fines, duties or taxes may be levied and justly be imposed, or laid with a political view for the good government and benefit of the community.

Section 2. Every charter so formed and every act or legislative body in which shall be a law-making power of said city or county. Such legislative body in the City of Baltimore shall be known as the City Council of the City of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county. Any such charter shall provide for the election of such executive officer, or the president of said legislative body, if the charter shall not provide for the election of a chief executive officer, shall be known in the City of Baltimore as Mayor of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county. Any such charter shall provide for the election of such executive officer, or the president of said legislative body, if the charter shall not provide for the election of a chief executive officer, shall be known in the City of Baltimore as Mayor of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county.

Section 3. Every charter so formed and every act or legislative body in which shall be a law-making power of said city or county. Such legislative body in the City of Baltimore shall be known as the City Council of the City of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county. Any such charter shall provide for the election of such executive officer, or the president of said legislative body, if the charter shall not provide for the election of a chief executive officer, shall be known in the City of Baltimore as Mayor of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county.

CHAPTER 416.

An Act to propose an amendment to the Constitution of this State by adding a new Article thereto to be known as Article XI-A, and to provide for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of this State for adoption or rejection.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland (three-fifths of all the Members of each of the two Houses concurring), That the following Article to follow immediately after Article XI and to be known as Article XI-A, and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of this State, which Article, if adopted by the qualified voters of this State, as herein provided, shall thereby be such adoption be and become a part of the Constitution of this State.

ARTICLE XI-A. LOCAL LEGISLATION.

Section 1. On demand of the Mayor of Baltimore and City Council of the City of Baltimore, or on petition bearing the signatures of not less than 20 per cent of the legal and qualified voters of said city or any county (provided, however, that in any case 10,000 signatures shall be sufficient to complete a petition), the Board of Election Supervisors of said city or county shall provide at the next general or Congressional election, occurring after such demand or the filing of such petition, for the election of a charter board of eleven registered voters of said city or five registered voters in any such county. Nomination for members for said charter board may be made not less than forty days prior to said election by the Mayor of Baltimore or City Council of the City of Baltimore or the County Commissioners of such county, or not less than twenty days prior to said election by petition bearing the signature written in their own handwriting (and not by their mark) of not less than 5 per cent of the registered voters of said city or county or said Public Local Law shall be enacted by the General Assembly for said city or county; provided, that in any case two thousand signatures of registered voters shall be sufficient to complete such nomination petition, and if not more than eleven registered voters of the City of Baltimore or not more than five registered voters in any such county are so nominated, they shall not be printed on the ballot, but said eleven registered voters in the City of Baltimore or five in such county shall constitute said charter board.

ARTICLE XVI. THE REFERENDUM.

Section 1. (a). The people reserve to themselves power known as The Referendum, by petition to have submitted to the registered voters of this State to approve or reject any Act, or part of any Act of the General Assembly, if approved by the General Assembly, if approved by the General Assembly, or if passed by the General Assembly over the veto of the Governor.

(b) The provisions of this Article shall be self-executing; provided that no referendum shall be held until the first day of June next after the session at which it may be passed, unless it contain a Section declaring an emergency law or part of a law necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health or safety, and passed upon a year and may vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly; provided, however, that said period of suspension shall be extended as provided in Section 3 (b) hereof.

Section 2. No law enacted by the General Assembly shall take effect until the first day of June next after the session at which it may be passed, unless it contain a Section declaring an emergency law or part of a law necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health or safety, and passed upon a year and may vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly; provided, however, that said period of suspension shall be extended as provided in Section 3 (b) hereof.

Section 3. (a) The word "Petition," as used in this Article, means one or more signatures of registered voters of the State, written and partly printed, and the signature of a registered voter written by himself in ink, together with (and not by his mark), together with the name of the elector and precinct in which he is registered. The authenticity of such signature shall be attested by the person so signing as fact that the persons so signing are registered voters of the State as evidenced by the affidavit of one or more registered voters of the city or county in which said voters so signed.

Section 4. Every charter so formed and every act or legislative body in which shall be a law-making power of said city or county. Such legislative body in the City of Baltimore shall be known as the City Council of the City of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county. Any such charter shall provide for the election of such executive officer, or the president of said legislative body, if the charter shall not provide for the election of a chief executive officer, shall be known in the City of Baltimore as Mayor of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county.

Section 5. Amendments to any charter adopted by the City of Baltimore or by any county of this State under the provisions of this Article may be proposed by a resolution of the Mayor of Baltimore or the City Council of said city, or by a petition signed by not less than ten per cent of the registered voters of said city or county, provided, however, that in any case 10,000 signatures shall be sufficient to complete a petition, and if not more than eleven registered voters of the City of Baltimore or not more than five registered voters in any such county are so nominated, they shall not be printed on the ballot, but said eleven registered voters in the City of Baltimore or five in such county shall constitute said charter board.

Section 6. The power heretofore conferred upon the General Assembly to provide for the number, compensation, powers and duties of the County Commissioners in each county, and the power to make changes in Sections 2 to 6 inclusive, Article XI of this Constitution, shall be exercised as hereinafter provided, and hereby transferred to the voters of each county, and the voters of the City of Baltimore, as follows: That the Mayor of Baltimore or the City Council of Baltimore, or the County Commissioners of any county, shall have the power to propose amendments to the Charter of Baltimore or to the Charter of any county, and such amendments shall be submitted to the registered voters of said city or county for their adoption or rejection.

Section 7. The word "Petition," as used in this Article, means one or more signatures of registered voters of the State, written and partly printed, and the signature of a registered voter written by himself in ink, together with (and not by his mark), together with the name of the elector and precinct in which he is registered. The authenticity of such signature shall be attested by the person so signing as fact that the persons so signing are registered voters of the State as evidenced by the affidavit of one or more registered voters of the city or county in which said voters so signed.

Section 8. Every charter so formed and every act or legislative body in which shall be a law-making power of said city or county. Such legislative body in the City of Baltimore shall be known as the City Council of the City of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county. Any such charter shall provide for the election of such executive officer, or the president of said legislative body, if the charter shall not provide for the election of a chief executive officer, shall be known in the City of Baltimore as Mayor of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county.

Section 9. Every charter so formed and every act or legislative body in which shall be a law-making power of said city or county. Such legislative body in the City of Baltimore shall be known as the City Council of the City of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county. Any such charter shall provide for the election of such executive officer, or the president of said legislative body, if the charter shall not provide for the election of a chief executive officer, shall be known in the City of Baltimore as Mayor of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county.

Section 10. Every charter so formed and every act or legislative body in which shall be a law-making power of said city or county. Such legislative body in the City of Baltimore shall be known as the City Council of the City of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county. Any such charter shall provide for the election of such executive officer, or the president of said legislative body, if the charter shall not provide for the election of a chief executive officer, shall be known in the City of Baltimore as Mayor of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county.

Section 11. Every charter so formed and every act or legislative body in which shall be a law-making power of said city or county. Such legislative body in the City of Baltimore shall be known as the City Council of the City of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county. Any such charter shall provide for the election of such executive officer, or the president of said legislative body, if the charter shall not provide for the election of a chief executive officer, shall be known in the City of Baltimore as Mayor of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county.

Section 12. Every charter so formed and every act or legislative body in which shall be a law-making power of said city or county. Such legislative body in the City of Baltimore shall be known as the City Council of the City of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county. Any such charter shall provide for the election of such executive officer, or the president of said legislative body, if the charter shall not provide for the election of a chief executive officer, shall be known in the City of Baltimore as Mayor of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county.

Section 13. Every charter so formed and every act or legislative body in which shall be a law-making power of said city or county. Such legislative body in the City of Baltimore shall be known as the City Council of the City of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county. Any such charter shall provide for the election of such executive officer, or the president of said legislative body, if the charter shall not provide for the election of a chief executive officer, shall be known in the City of Baltimore as Mayor of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county.

Section 14. Every charter so formed and every act or legislative body in which shall be a law-making power of said city or county. Such legislative body in the City of Baltimore shall be known as the City Council of the City of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county. Any such charter shall provide for the election of such executive officer, or the president of said legislative body, if the charter shall not provide for the election of a chief executive officer, shall be known in the City of Baltimore as Mayor of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county.

Section 15. Every charter so formed and every act or legislative body in which shall be a law-making power of said city or county. Such legislative body in the City of Baltimore shall be known as the City Council of the City of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county. Any such charter shall provide for the election of such executive officer, or the president of said legislative body, if the charter shall not provide for the election of a chief executive officer, shall be known in the City of Baltimore as Mayor of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county.

Section 16. Every charter so formed and every act or legislative body in which shall be a law-making power of said city or county. Such legislative body in the City of Baltimore shall be known as the City Council of the City of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county. Any such charter shall provide for the election of such executive officer, or the president of said legislative body, if the charter shall not provide for the election of a chief executive officer, shall be known in the City of Baltimore as Mayor of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county.

Section 17. Every charter so formed and every act or legislative body in which shall be a law-making power of said city or county. Such legislative body in the City of Baltimore shall be known as the City Council of the City of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county. Any such charter shall provide for the election of such executive officer, or the president of said legislative body, if the charter shall not provide for the election of a chief executive officer, shall be known in the City of Baltimore as Mayor of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the county.
