

DEMOCRATIC TICKET

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE U. S. WOODROW WILSON

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE U. S. THOMAS R. MARSHALL

FOR UNITED STATES SENATE: DAVID J. LEWIS

FOR MEMBER OF THE 65th CONGRESS OF THE U. S. JACKSON H. RALSTON

The gravity of the Mexican situation, which for the past few days has been gradually growing more acute, has, on account of recent diplomatic correspondence from that country, assumed a brighter aspect.

The Town Commissioners will shortly inaugurate a clean-up campaign and will appeal to residents of the town to co-operate with them to the end that streets be cleaned up and kept clean.

Without public co-operation no movement of this sort can possibly be successful. The streets are at the mercy of every pedestrian who is inclined to scatter waste paper or every householder who persists in sweeping refuse upon them.

A sad commentary of the times is the announcement, recently made, that out of some forty odd applicants for admission in the Naval Service of the United States only eight were able to pass the physical examination.

We train and properly feed our cattle and horses and expend an enormous amount of time and money in their development, but are so eager in the pursuit of the almighty dollar, and the ease and pleasure, we have come to consider essential, that we permit ourselves to become unfit for the great tasks that confront us in times of threatened international strife.

By a process of feeding and training we have succeeded in producing beasts that are the admiration of the commercial world, but we have permitted ourselves and our children to become unfit by too much luxury and too little regard for the health-giving work or exercise that is essential to being fit.

The history of Greece, Carthage and Rome warns us, and as good citizens of the greatest conceivable form of government on earth, we must heed its warning. We must begin now to prepare ourselves that we may give to our great flag a sturdy manhood that will maintain our proud position among the nations of the earth and will ever continue whilst heroism and virtue shall claim the homage of mankind.

Chamberlain's Lolic, Cholera and Darrbon Remedy.

This is a remedy that every family should be provided with, and especially during the summer months. Think of the pain and suffering that must be endured when medicine must be sent for or before relief can be obtained.

BRISCOE "The Best-liked Car in the Country" An eight that comes from Master Motor-Builders The development of an eight brings up problems entirely different from those involved in a four or a six. And the Briscoe organization had learned to solve those problems before they placed the car on the market--they did not have to learn from the experience of owners. You will find the Briscoe Eight-38 a revelation in smoothness, in vitality, in a vibrationless delivery of power that seems to propel your car along as though it were drawn by invisible hands. And--again because of Briscoe experience--you will find lubrication thorough, and gasoline consumption per horse power lower than that of many fours. Whenever you say the word we'll be glad to let you test for yourself the sweetest motor you ever rode behind. T. Spencer Crane, Agent, California, Md.
