

The Herald of Freedom.

Lawrence, Saturday, July 7, 1855.

To Our Friends.

The regular issue of this paper is now 2,000 copies weekly, and it might be increased to 3,000 copies weekly, if we were not so much hindered by the want of a printing press.

Our city presented a striking aspect quite unlooked for on the morning of the 4th.

Not that we did not expect great things of Lawrence, but we were surprised to see the streets looking as much like those of a thronged city.

Consequently, towards 1 I trust have not joined us. It was, as you say, for the purpose of "protecting the property, the lives and liberties of this young community."

The chord that sang such fearful tones in the ears of despot, during the eight years blood conflict from which our nation rose so gloriously.

Wagon-loads of Indians arrived in the morning, the Delaware and Shawnee tribes, our near neighbors, having been invited to participate in the festivities of the day.

Other parties were constantly coming in from the various settlements near by, and farther off, until knots of hundreds might be seen there.

Nothing could have exceeded its simplicity—nothing could have added to the volumes of national wealth, glory, proof, exhortation, appeal, argument, prophecy.

It was the voice of our fathers speaking to us on the birth-day of their emancipation—and what burning words they uttered! Let us heed them, and be wise.

Another long line attracted our attention, while yet in the distance. Many banners waved in the breeze, and we watched with an interest that was more than curiosity, as they came on over the prairie-swells.

This flag, which you have presented us under such circumstances, comes clothed with a hundred fold more value.

We accept it, as an acknowledgment of the justice of our cause; by which we have devoted to our country a new devotion to justice and right, with new ardor in freedom's cause.

And should a sanguinary conflict be forced upon us, I know I speak the character of every soldier who has or may rally under these manly stars and stripes.

The procession formed immediately on Massachusetts street, and led on by the military, marched through Massachusetts, Hancock, Vermont, and Winthrop streets.

Other smaller parties, families from the "claims" about, and groups of Indian men and women were successively coming in from various quarters.

Meantime, the two organized military companies in uniform, and a large number of volunteers, were marching and countermarching, and performing various evolutions in the streets and on the grass plots.

The new flag with its golden stars, waiting to welcome its immortal stripes fitting in the breeze, was planted at the right of the speaker's stand.

Dr. Wood presided. The band struck up "Sweet Home," a most appropriate strain. Prayer was then offered by Rev. Snyder—Declaration of Independence read by C. W. Babcock, Esq.

The conflicting emotions, the throng of memories, old and new—are topics of thought connected with that day in this place which we will not even allude to here. It will be seen in the sketch we give of the proceedings that others did not forget the strange novelty of the position of the inhabitants of Kansas.

At eleven o'clock, a banner of rich silk—the national flag—was presented by the ladies to the militia of Lawrence.

The people assembled in the vicinity of the Union Hotel, and listened to the following interesting and appropriate ADDRESS BY MRS. GATES.

Officers and Members of the Lawrence Military Companies—Soldiers:—With-out solicitation on my part, I have been chosen by the ladies of Lawrence to present to you on their behalf this flag, as a testimonial of our appreciation of the noble and patriotic motives which, we trust, actuate you in organizing your ranks into military companies for the purpose of protecting the property, the lives, and the liberties of this young community.

to us the independence of Columbia's happy land. Let not the threats of tyrants, foreign or domestic, intimidate you; but move bravely and fearlessly in the path of truth and right principle, and if you should fail to accomplish the object of your mission, you shall at least have the sweet consciousness of having stood stoutly in a good cause. Never surrender that flag into the hands of your enemies, and save it from dishonor or perishment in the attempt.

S. N. Wood, Esq., on behalf of the companies replied.—LADIES:—In behalf of our military companies, I receive this beautiful flag, a testimony of your appreciation of the noble and patriotic motives which you trust actuated us in the formation of these companies. And, believe I speak their sentiments, when I say, that worded thus, as but a time expression of the gratitude and encouragement that this token of your approval has afforded to our hearts, it was a noble favor that induced us to form these companies.

Consequently, towards 1 I trust have not joined us. It was, as you say, for the purpose of "protecting the property, the lives and liberties of this young community."

The chord that sang such fearful tones in the ears of despot, during the eight years blood conflict from which our nation rose so gloriously.

Wagon-loads of Indians arrived in the morning, the Delaware and Shawnee tribes, our near neighbors, having been invited to participate in the festivities of the day.

Other parties were constantly coming in from the various settlements near by, and farther off, until knots of hundreds might be seen there.

Nothing could have exceeded its simplicity—nothing could have added to the volumes of national wealth, glory, proof, exhortation, appeal, argument, prophecy.

It was the voice of our fathers speaking to us on the birth-day of their emancipation—and what burning words they uttered! Let us heed them, and be wise.

Another long line attracted our attention, while yet in the distance. Many banners waved in the breeze, and we watched with an interest that was more than curiosity, as they came on over the prairie-swells.

This flag, which you have presented us under such circumstances, comes clothed with a hundred fold more value.

We accept it, as an acknowledgment of the justice of our cause; by which we have devoted to our country a new devotion to justice and right, with new ardor in freedom's cause.

And should a sanguinary conflict be forced upon us, I know I speak the character of every soldier who has or may rally under these manly stars and stripes.

The procession formed immediately on Massachusetts street, and led on by the military, marched through Massachusetts, Hancock, Vermont, and Winthrop streets.

Other smaller parties, families from the "claims" about, and groups of Indian men and women were successively coming in from various quarters.

Meantime, the two organized military companies in uniform, and a large number of volunteers, were marching and countermarching, and performing various evolutions in the streets and on the grass plots.

The new flag with its golden stars, waiting to welcome its immortal stripes fitting in the breeze, was planted at the right of the speaker's stand.

Dr. Wood presided. The band struck up "Sweet Home," a most appropriate strain. Prayer was then offered by Rev. Snyder—Declaration of Independence read by C. W. Babcock, Esq.

The conflicting emotions, the throng of memories, old and new—are topics of thought connected with that day in this place which we will not even allude to here. It will be seen in the sketch we give of the proceedings that others did not forget the strange novelty of the position of the inhabitants of Kansas.

At eleven o'clock, a banner of rich silk—the national flag—was presented by the ladies to the militia of Lawrence.

The people assembled in the vicinity of the Union Hotel, and listened to the following interesting and appropriate ADDRESS BY MRS. GATES.

Officers and Members of the Lawrence Military Companies—Soldiers:—With-out solicitation on my part, I have been chosen by the ladies of Lawrence to present to you on their behalf this flag, as a testimonial of our appreciation of the noble and patriotic motives which, we trust, actuate you in organizing your ranks into military companies for the purpose of protecting the property, the lives, and the liberties of this young community.

Take it, and should you ever be called upon to battle under it in the sacred cause of Freedom, demean yourselves like men worthy the name of American soldiers. In the hour of danger, may the influence of the stars and stripes waving over you animate you with the spirit of our revolutionary era, whose patriotism and valor wrested this country from the cruel oppression and tyranny of the old world, and established and bequeathed not yet furnished the full report of the speeches. Referring to our own meagre sketch we defer their publication till next week—giving only the regular toasts in this issue.

REGULAR TOASTS.

1. Washington.—The hero, the sage, and the philanthropist—the world has never witnessed his equal.

2. The American Union.—Formed by a patrio in ancestry, and cemented by the blood of heroes, may its power never be prosituted to sustain oppression and outrage.

3. Our Revolutionary Fathers.—No war ever enlisted their equals, and noting that the love of liberty could have prompted men to bear their sufferings.

4. Young Kansas.—The rights of her citizens trodden down for a brief period, have but aroused her to an appreciation of freedom, and inspired her sons with a spirit and vigor which shall bid defiance to her enemies.

5. Americanism.—The spirit of the great, civil, free, social and religious institutions, which are destined to effect universal conquest and to unite all men in universal brotherhood.

6. The Signers of the Declaration.—A bold band of patriots, whom the threats of British vengeance could not drive from their duty, may their valor and love of liberty be perpetuated.

7. The Day we Celebrate.—An epoch in the history of the world, which shall be commemorated as long as the spirit of freedom animates the heart of man.

8. Lawrence.—Its course is onward, and its progress as the city of Kansas a fixed fact.

9. The Pioneers of Kansas.—May they reap the rewards of their toil and privations, by rearing a State which shall be an honor in the galaxy of the American confederacy.

10. Universal Education.—The only safeguard of republican freedom.

11. Our Aboriginal Neighbors.—Their presence and participation with us to-day is a mutual recognition of unity and good will. May we ever "smoke the pipe of peace" together.

12. The Women of Kansas.—Brave as they are fair—their increase amongst us but gives zest to our prosperity, and a double assurance of the onward march of civilization and refinement.

13. The Laborers of Kansas.—The basis of all we are or hope to be.

VOLUNTEER TOASTS.

By LEVI GATES, JR.—The Star Spangled Banner—May its bright stars never grow less, but be increased in numbers, and with renewed brilliancy shine brighter and brighter until all the earth shall be brought under their republican influence.

By J. K. GOODIN.—Kansas.—The home of our adoption. Its prosperity, its honor, and its destiny are placed in our keeping. None should be slothful, and eternal infamy upon him who proves treacherous to the trust reposed.

By J. P. WOOD.—Kansas.—An infant, whose growth would astonish barbarians.

By THE KANSAS MILITARY COMPANIES.—The Kansas Legislature.—A body alien to our soil, elected by fraud; we are not responsible for their acts, and ask no favors at their hands.

By LEVI GATES, JR.—The Ladies.—The sweet sisters in the garden of life.

By J. M. MANN.—Our Colors.—Warriors do not run.

By J. L. SPEER.—P. F. Wade, of Ohio.—May he again made into the U. S. Senate, and swim through the ranks of the enemies of freedom, until they are completely put to rout.

By G. W. DETZLER.—Kansas.—Its prosperity and progress are dear to all the friends of freedom. May its fertile soil never be cursed with slavery.

News from Leavenworth. We have received communications from Leavenworth of deep interest, and only regret the impossibility of giving them at length in our half sheet this week. We thank our correspondent, in the name of our country, for the full particulars he has given of an affair involving so much. We assure him that we have taken measures to give the full account an earlier and a wider circulation than our sheet could possibly have done, if it did not chance to be so nearly full before the arrival of his letters.

He informs us that the examination of McCrea came off on the 22d inst., in circumstances that ought to make an American blush for his country. Missourian superintendents of Kansas affairs arrived in great numbers, armed to the teeth; whereupon the judge took occasion, in the midst of his business, to remark, with great force, that he did not consider an abolitionist or nigger settler any better than a horse thief. This sentiment, so unfeeling, was well understood. McCrea was thunderstruck. He had hoped for bail, but now he saw that he was doomed, and directed his counsel to abandon the petition, and ask the marshal to take him back to prison.

Some two weeks since, the guard-house of the Fort was broken open at dead of night, and all who chose escaped. McCrea's irons had been taken off some days before, but he alone of all the inmates remained. Evidently he expected justice, and from that he would not flinch. As a reward, doubtless, for the magnanimity of such conduct, the marshal, Mr. Donabson, transferred him from the guard-house to the keeping of his bitter enemies—such men as would glory in his death, and were engaged in the assaults made upon him by Clark.

His keeper, and all the witnesses for the prosecution, swore falsely against him; and but the one upon the stand being excluded from the room, no two of them agreed in their testimony, on the first day. They held a consultation next night, however, but the testimony thereafter was woefully wide of the truth, and contradictory whilom.

Our correspondent furnishes the full statement of one witness for the prosecution, which agrees so perfectly with McCrea's published letter, that we omit it entirely, with the single remark that it proves him to have acted only in self defence, and prudently; with great pains to avoid a personal encounter.

He is without relations and without money; he has an affectionate, angelic wife and one child dependent upon him for support, now poor indeed! Yet, day by day her passing form may be seen hovering around his place of confinement, though three miles from their late happy home, and allowed but half an hour to converse with him, and that in the presence of his life's enemy, the same headed ruffian that outraged the person of Phillips; but her every word breathes courage, and, pointing to their bright boy, she exclaims, "Never mind my sufferings, they will soon be over; but oh, think what a disgrace your flight would bring on him!" That noble intuition of his father was sitting at his feet, playing with his chains, thus thinking, poor infant, that those very chains were preserving his father from the vengeance of those who would, by perjury, take his life; because he had the courage to defend himself against the murderous blows of one of his party.

"Poor McCrea! He is doomed, unless the friends of freedom make his cause their own. Although the testimony proffered greatly in his favor, still "the power behind the throne" was stronger than law and justice, and McCrea was refused bail, and put under keepers, at a cost to the Territory of $12,500 per annum. No doubt they will sound the trumpet to furnish him October next, should they manage to get some of his witnesses out of the way. The opinion now pretty generally prevails, that if McCrea is not destroyed, it will not be the fault of the court, or the want of well instructed witnesses. Of this, the District Attorney, who is a disgrace to the office, has ever boasted. Every hope of getting justice at this court, which sits the third Monday of next October, is blasted; and there is no hope now left but that of getting help from our friends North and East to carry his case up. If that is not furnished, the freeman of Kansas will be almsed of the consequence of thrusting the tyrant's foot off his neck in future.

Let it never be said, that while Missouri can furnish her $75,000 to carry one election in Kansas, you can neglect to furnish her one penny, should they manage to get some of his witnesses out of the way. The opinion now pretty generally prevails, that if McCrea is not destroyed, it will not be the fault of the court, or the want of well instructed witnesses. Of this, the District Attorney, who is a disgrace to the office, has ever boasted. Every hope of getting justice at this court, which sits the third Monday of next October, is blasted; and there is no hope now left but that of getting help from our friends North and East to carry his case up. If that is not furnished, the freeman of Kansas will be almsed of the consequence of thrusting the tyrant's foot off his neck in future.

Let it never be said, that while Missouri can furnish her $75,000 to carry one election in Kansas, you can neglect to furnish her one penny, should they manage to get some of his witnesses out of the way. The opinion now pretty generally prevails, that if McCrea is not destroyed, it will not be the fault of the court, or the want of well instructed witnesses. Of this, the District Attorney, who is a disgrace to the office, has ever boasted. Every hope of getting justice at this court, which sits the third Monday of next October, is blasted; and there is no hope now left but that of getting help from our friends North and East to carry his case up. If that is not furnished, the freeman of Kansas will be almsed of the consequence of thrusting the tyrant's foot off his neck in future.

Let it never be said, that while Missouri can furnish her $75,000 to carry one election in Kansas, you can neglect to furnish her one penny, should they manage to get some of his witnesses out of the way. The opinion now pretty generally prevails, that if McCrea is not destroyed, it will not be the fault of the court, or the want of well instructed witnesses. Of this, the District Attorney, who is a disgrace to the office, has ever boasted. Every hope of getting justice at this court, which sits the third Monday of next October, is blasted; and there is no hope now left but that of getting help from our friends North and East to carry his case up. If that is not furnished, the freeman of Kansas will be almsed of the consequence of thrusting the tyrant's foot off his neck in future.

Let it never be said, that while Missouri can furnish her $75,000 to carry one election in Kansas, you can neglect to furnish her one penny, should they manage to get some of his witnesses out of the way. The opinion now pretty generally prevails, that if McCrea is not destroyed, it will not be the fault of the court, or the want of well instructed witnesses. Of this, the District Attorney, who is a disgrace to the office, has ever boasted. Every hope of getting justice at this court, which sits the third Monday of next October, is blasted; and there is no hope now left but that of getting help from our friends North and East to carry his case up. If that is not furnished, the freeman of Kansas will be almsed of the consequence of thrusting the tyrant's foot off his neck in future.

Let it never be said, that while Missouri can furnish her $75,000 to carry one election in Kansas, you can neglect to furnish her one penny, should they manage to get some of his witnesses out of the way. The opinion now pretty generally prevails, that if McCrea is not destroyed, it will not be the fault of the court, or the want of well instructed witnesses. Of this, the District Attorney, who is a disgrace to the office, has ever boasted. Every hope of getting justice at this court, which sits the third Monday of next October, is blasted; and there is no hope now left but that of getting help from our friends North and East to carry his case up. If that is not furnished, the freeman of Kansas will be almsed of the consequence of thrusting the tyrant's foot off his neck in future.

Let it never be said, that while Missouri can furnish her $75,000 to carry one election in Kansas, you can neglect to furnish her one penny, should they manage to get some of his witnesses out of the way. The opinion now pretty generally prevails, that if McCrea is not destroyed, it will not be the fault of the court, or the want of well instructed witnesses. Of this, the District Attorney, who is a disgrace to the office, has ever boasted. Every hope of getting justice at this court, which sits the third Monday of next October, is blasted; and there is no hope now left but that of getting help from our friends North and East to carry his case up. If that is not furnished, the freeman of Kansas will be almsed of the consequence of thrusting the tyrant's foot off his neck in future.

Let it never be said, that while Missouri can furnish her $75,000 to carry one election in Kansas, you can neglect to furnish her one penny, should they manage to get some of his witnesses out of the way. The opinion now pretty generally prevails, that if McCrea is not destroyed, it will not be the fault of the court, or the want of well instructed witnesses. Of this, the District Attorney, who is a disgrace to the office, has ever boasted. Every hope of getting justice at this court, which sits the third Monday of next October, is blasted; and there is no hope now left but that of getting help from our friends North and East to carry his case up. If that is not furnished, the freeman of Kansas will be almsed of the consequence of thrusting the tyrant's foot off his neck in future.

Let it never be said, that while Missouri can furnish her $75,000 to carry one election in Kansas, you can neglect to furnish her one penny, should they manage to get some of his witnesses out of the way. The opinion now pretty generally prevails, that if McCrea is not destroyed, it will not be the fault of the court, or the want of well instructed witnesses. Of this, the District Attorney, who is a disgrace to the office, has ever boasted. Every hope of getting justice at this court, which sits the third Monday of next October, is blasted; and there is no hope now left but that of getting help from our friends North and East to carry his case up. If that is not furnished, the freeman of Kansas will be almsed of the consequence of thrusting the tyrant's foot off his neck in future.

Let it never be said, that while Missouri can furnish her $75,000 to carry one election in Kansas, you can neglect to furnish her one penny, should they manage to get some of his witnesses out of the way. The opinion now pretty generally prevails, that if McCrea is not destroyed, it will not be the fault of the court, or the want of well instructed witnesses. Of this, the District Attorney, who is a disgrace to the office, has ever boasted. Every hope of getting justice at this court, which sits the third Monday of next October, is blasted; and there is no hope now left but that of getting help from our friends North and East to carry his case up. If that is not furnished, the freeman of Kansas will be almsed of the consequence of thrusting the tyrant's foot off his neck in future.

Let it never be said, that while Missouri can furnish her $75,000 to carry one election in Kansas, you can neglect to furnish her one penny, should they manage to get some of his witnesses out of the way. The opinion now pretty generally prevails, that if McCrea is not destroyed, it will not be the fault of the court, or the want of well instructed witnesses. Of this, the District Attorney, who is a disgrace to the office, has ever boasted. Every hope of getting justice at this court, which sits the third Monday of next October, is blasted; and there is no hope now left but that of getting help from our friends North and East to carry his case up. If that is not furnished, the freeman of Kansas will be almsed of the consequence of thrusting the tyrant's foot off his neck in future.

Let it never be said, that while Missouri can furnish her $75,000 to carry one election in Kansas, you can neglect to furnish her one penny, should they manage to get some of his witnesses out of the way. The opinion now pretty generally prevails, that if McCrea is not destroyed, it will not be the fault of the court, or the want of well instructed witnesses. Of this, the District Attorney, who is a disgrace to the office, has ever boasted. Every hope of getting justice at this court, which sits the third Monday of next October, is blasted; and there is no hope now left but that of getting help from our friends North and East to carry his case up. If that is not furnished, the freeman of Kansas will be almsed of the consequence of thrusting the tyrant's foot off his neck in future.

Let it never be said, that while Missouri can furnish her $75,000 to carry one election in Kansas, you can neglect to furnish her one penny, should they manage to get some of his witnesses out of the way. The opinion now pretty generally prevails, that if McCrea is not destroyed, it will not be the fault of the court, or the want of well instructed witnesses. Of this, the District Attorney, who is a disgrace to the office, has ever boasted. Every hope of getting justice at this court, which sits the third Monday of next October, is blasted; and there is no hope now left but that of getting help from our friends North and East to carry his case up. If that is not furnished, the freeman of Kansas will be almsed of the consequence of thrusting the tyrant's foot off his neck in future.

Let it never be said, that while Missouri can furnish her $75,000 to carry one election in Kansas, you can neglect to furnish her one penny, should they manage to get some of his witnesses out of the way. The opinion now pretty generally prevails, that if McCrea is not destroyed, it will not be the fault of the court, or the want of well instructed witnesses. Of this, the District Attorney, who is a disgrace to the office, has ever boasted. Every hope of getting justice at this court, which sits the third Monday of next October, is blasted; and there is no hope now left but that of getting help from our friends North and East to carry his case up. If that is not furnished, the freeman of Kansas will be almsed of the consequence of thrusting the tyrant's foot off his neck in future.

Let it never be said, that while Missouri can furnish her $75,000 to carry one election in Kansas, you can neglect to furnish her one penny, should they manage to get some of his witnesses out of the way. The opinion now pretty generally prevails, that if McCrea is not destroyed, it will not be the fault of the court, or the want of well instructed witnesses. Of this, the District Attorney, who is a disgrace to the office, has ever boasted. Every hope of getting justice at this court, which sits the third Monday of next October, is blasted; and there is no hope now left but that of getting help from our friends North and East to carry his case up. If that is not furnished, the freeman of Kansas will be almsed of the consequence of thrusting the tyrant's foot off his neck in future.

Let it never be said, that while Missouri can furnish her $75,000 to carry one election in Kansas, you can neglect to furnish her one penny, should they manage to get some of his witnesses out of the way. The opinion now pretty generally prevails, that if McCrea is not destroyed, it will not be the fault of the court, or the want of well instructed witnesses. Of this, the District Attorney, who is a disgrace to the office, has ever boasted. Every hope of getting justice at this court, which sits the third Monday of next October, is blasted; and there is no hope now left but that of getting help from our friends North and East to carry his case up. If that is not furnished, the freeman of Kansas will be almsed of the consequence of thrusting the tyrant's foot off his neck in future.

Let it never be said, that while Missouri can furnish her $75,000 to carry one election in Kansas, you can neglect to furnish her one penny, should they manage to get some of his witnesses out of the way. The opinion now pretty generally prevails, that if McCrea is not destroyed, it will not be the fault of the court, or the want of well instructed witnesses. Of this, the District Attorney, who is a disgrace to the office, has ever boasted. Every hope of getting justice at this court, which sits the third Monday of next October, is blasted; and there is no hope now left but that of getting help from our friends North and East to carry his case up. If that is not furnished, the freeman of Kansas will be almsed of the consequence of thrusting the tyrant's foot off his neck in future.

Temporance Meetings. The citizens of Lawrence are desired to meet, on mass, at Hutchinson's Hall, next Saturday evening. Temperance men, rally.

This brief is the call, as we find it. But nobody can be so deaf as not to have heard a loud, very loud and oft repeated call, by another voice, to the same meeting. There can be no mistaking the urgency of the case. Will not temperance people attend, all as one? Lawrence has raised her standard for above the common mark in the temperance cause. She has invited the world to behold a wonder—a city founded on teetotalism—a city so rapid in its growth, that it "didn't stop to be a town."

And having thus made herself "the observed of all observers," she will "define her position" so emphatically, that everybody who sets foot upon her soil shall understand her.

Legislature. A body which has the Kansas Legislature met at Pawnee last Monday. Rev. Thomas Johnson was elected President of the Senate, and H. A. Hallerman, Clerk, and John Grover, Assistant. Dr. H. S. Stringfellow was elected Speaker of the House. Lyle, Clerk, and Marine, Assistant. The Free State men were admitted to seats.—Kansas Tribune.

For reasons given in our last number—sickness and previous delay—we issue a half sheet this week, hoping thereby to "get out of the drag," as the tailors say. Our patriots will pardon all, this number is so rich—thanks to the Fourth.

Camp-Meeting Notice. A camp-meeting will be held on the claim of Mr. HERR, a mile and a half above the crossing at Blanton, on the Wakarusa, commencing Aug. 16th and continuing over the Sabbath. All are invited to attend. L. B. DENNIS.

Religious Meeting. On Mount Oread near Doctor Ross's office, next Sunday evening, 6 o'clock, Mr. NEEZ will preach on the occasion of the late anniversary.

Prices Current. LAWRENCE, July 7, 1855. Corn—$0.09 per bush; corn meal $1.00 per bush; wheat—$1.25 per bush; flour—$2.50 per bush; sugar—$12.00 per cwt; molasses—$8.00 per cwt; lard—$10.00 per cwt; tallow—$6.00 per cwt; butter—$12.00 per cwt; eggs—$1.00 per dozen; chickens—$1.00 per pair; turkeys—$2.00 per pair; geese—$1.50 per pair; ducks—$1.00 per pair; hams—$10.00 per cwt; bacon—$8.00 per cwt; pork—$10.00 per cwt; beef—$8.00 per cwt; mutton—$10.00 per cwt; calves—$8.00 per cwt; pigs—$6.00 per cwt; sheep—$8.00 per cwt; horses—$100.00 per head; mules—$100.00 per head; oxen—$100.00 per head; cows—$80.00 per head; calves—$50.00 per head; pigs—$20.00 per head; sheep—$20.00 per head; chickens—$1.00 per pair; turkeys—$2.00 per pair; geese—$1.50 per pair; ducks—$1.00 per pair; hams—$10.00 per cwt; bacon—$8.00 per cwt; pork—$10.00 per cwt; beef—$8.00 per cwt; mutton—$10.00 per cwt; calves—$8.00 per cwt; pigs—$6.00 per cwt; sheep—$8.00 per cwt; horses—$100.00 per head; mules—$100.00 per head; oxen—$100.00 per head; cows—$80.00 per head; calves—$50.00 per head; pigs—$20.00 per head; sheep—$20.00 per head; chickens—$1.00 per pair; turkeys—$2.00 per pair; geese—$1.50 per pair; ducks—$1.00 per pair; hams—$10.00 per cwt; bacon—$8.00 per cwt; pork—$10.00 per cwt; beef—$8.00 per cwt; mutton—$10.00 per cwt; calves—$8.00 per cwt; pigs—$6.00 per cwt; sheep—$8.00 per cwt; horses—$100.00 per head; mules—$100.00 per head; oxen—$100.00 per head; cows—$80.00 per head; calves—$50.00 per head; pigs—$20.00 per head; sheep—$20.00 per head; chickens—$1.00 per pair; turkeys—$2.00 per pair; geese—$1.50 per pair; ducks—$1.00 per pair; hams—$10.00 per cwt; bacon—$8.00 per cwt; pork—$10.00 per cwt; beef—$8.00 per cwt; mutton—$10.00 per cwt; calves—$8.00 per cwt; pigs—$6.00 per cwt; sheep—$8.00 per cwt; horses—$100.00 per head; mules—$100.00 per head; oxen—$100.00 per head; cows—$80.00 per head; calves—$50.00 per head; pigs—$20.00 per head; sheep—$20.00 per head; chickens—$1.00 per pair; turkeys—$2.00 per pair; geese—$1.50 per pair; ducks—$1.00 per pair; hams—$10.00 per cwt; bacon—$8.00 per cwt; pork—$10.00 per cwt; beef—$8.00 per cwt; mutton—$10.00 per cwt; calves—$8.00 per cwt; pigs—$6.00 per cwt; sheep—$8.00 per cwt; horses—$100.00 per head; mules—$100.00 per head; oxen—$100.00 per head; cows—$80.00 per head; calves—$50.00 per head; pigs—$20.00 per head; sheep—$20.00 per head; chickens—$1.00 per pair; turkeys—$2.00 per pair; geese—$1.50 per pair; ducks—$1.00 per pair; hams—$10.00 per cwt; bacon—$8.00 per cwt; pork—$10.00 per cwt; beef—$8.00 per cwt; mutton—$10.00 per cwt; calves—$8.00 per cwt; pigs—$6.00 per cwt; sheep—$8.00 per cwt; horses—$100.00 per head; mules—$100.00 per head; oxen—$100.00 per head; cows—$80.00 per head; calves—$50.00 per head; pigs—$20.00 per head; sheep—$20.00 per head; chickens—$1.00 per pair; turkeys—$2.00 per pair; geese—$1.50 per pair; ducks—$1.00 per pair; hams—$10.00 per cwt; bacon—$8.00 per cwt; pork—$10.00 per cwt; beef—$8.00 per cwt; mutton—$10.00 per cwt; calves—$8.00 per cwt; pigs—$6.00 per cwt; sheep—$8.00 per cwt; horses—$100.00 per head; mules—$100.00 per head; oxen—$100.00 per head; cows—$80.00 per head; calves—$50.00 per head; pigs—$20.00 per head; sheep—$20.00 per head; chickens—$1.00 per pair; turkeys—$2.00 per pair; geese—$1.50 per pair; ducks—$1.00 per pair; hams—$10.00 per cwt; bacon—$8.00 per cwt; pork—$10.00 per cwt; beef—$8.00 per cwt; mutton—$10.00 per cwt; calves—$8.00 per cwt; pigs—$6.00 per cwt; sheep—$8.00 per cwt; horses—$100.00 per head; mules—$100.00 per head; oxen—$100.00 per head; cows—$80.00 per head; calves—$50.00 per head; pigs—$20.00 per head; sheep—$20.00 per head; chickens—$1.00 per pair; turkeys—$2.00 per pair; geese—$1.50 per pair; ducks—$1.00 per pair; hams—$10.00 per cwt; bacon—$8.00 per cwt; pork—$10.00 per cwt; beef—$8.00 per cwt; mutton—$10.00 per cwt; calves—$8.00 per cwt; pigs—$6.00 per cwt; sheep—$8.00 per cwt; horses—$100.00 per head; mules—$100.00 per head; oxen—$100.00 per head; cows—$80.00 per head; calves—$50.00 per head; pigs—$20.00 per head; sheep—$20.00 per head; chickens—$1.00 per pair; turkeys—$2.00 per pair; geese—$1.50 per pair; ducks—$1.00 per pair; hams—$10.00 per cwt; bacon—$8.00 per cwt; pork—$10.00 per cwt; beef—$8.00 per cwt; mutton—$10.00 per cwt; calves