Moretz, June 30th.

It is indeed gratifying to see that Judge Clark's sweep every county in the State for nomination for Chief Justice just as fast as the county conventions are held. He is bound to carry the State from center to circumference, regardless of the fact that a combination of conspirators have endeavored to move heaven and earth in their efforts to so besmirch the character of this just man as to snatch the nomination from him. The malicious accusations preferred have all been met, and the spotless Clark stands acquitted before the bar of the people.
