

The Watauga Democrat.

LOCAL AFFAIRS

Mrs. C. D. Taylor, of Valle Crucis, was a pleasant business caller at our office Monday.

Mrs. C. C. Farthing and little children, of Route 1, after a visit of several weeks to relatives in Raleigh, have returned.

After a few weeks spent at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, where he took some special work in surgery, Dr. Jones is in his office again.

Mrs. C. C. Adams, of Silverstone, has been spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. John Greer, in East Boone. The lady has many friends here who are glad to see her again.

Rev. W. R. Bradshaw, pastor of the first Baptist church of Hickory, will assist the pastor in a series of meetings at Cove Creek church, beginning on Tuesday, March the 15th. First sermon at 11 a. m.

Mr. Robert Castle, student of the A. T. S., and Miss Martha, daughter of Mrs. L. B. McNeill, of Zionville, R. F. D., were married a few days since. The couple, which is a popular one, has our best wishes for long life and prosperity.

Judge Warren, Chief Counselor for the Union Trust Bank at Bristol, was in town Monday, and made perfect satisfaction with all dissatisfied stockholders, where it was demanded paying back every dollar with interest on same.

John Harris, of the Beech Mountain section, a semi-lunatic, charged with hitting a Yates boy with a rock, and placed in jail here a few weeks ago, died in the prison Monday evening, after a short illness. He was given a decent burial, at the expense of the county, Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Brinkman conducting a brief service.

Mrs. Brinkman, wife of Rev. G. C. Brinkman, left yesterday morning for Baltimore, Md., the city of her nativity, where she will spend a few weeks with near relatives and friends. This is Mrs. Brinkman's first visit "back home" for several years, and her many friends here hope for her a pleasant visit and a safe return.

Mr. J. L. Tatum and Miss Juanita, popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Qualls, were married at the home of the bride's parents in East Boone early yesterday morning, Rev. Huggins performing the ceremony. The newly weds left at once for a brief honeymoon trip through Virginia, after which they will return to Boone, where Mr. Tatum is engaged in business. Tatum is a splendid young man, and his bonny bride is a member of one of our best families. Congratulations.

Mr. John Jenkins, of Sutherland, and Miss Josephine, charming daughter of Atty. W. R. Lovill, of Boone, and music teacher in the Sutherland High School, were married last Friday, the Rev. Arnold officiating. The news of the marriage was quite a surprise to loved ones and friends of the bride in Boone, as there had been no suspicions of her approaching marriage. The groom is a stranger to The Democrat, but we wish to congratulate him upon winning for his bride one of the choice girls of this entire community.

Miss McCartney, Watauga's efficient Public Health Nurse, is again "on the job" after a few weeks vacation, the most of the time being spent in Philadelphia. She resumes work with the hope that her next year's work may be more effective than that in the year just closed, but to the casual observer this seems almost impossible. Her work has been highly satisfactory in the past and we cannot ask for anything better in the future. All are glad to see her at home again, and in good trim for the big job that lays out before her.

Miss Myra, youngest daughter of Mr. J. M. Brown, of Blowing Rock, who has been in rather poor health for some time, left for the Bristol Hospital Tuesday where she will take treatment.

Modern Methods!!

A large part of the work that was once done slowly and painstakingly by hand is now handled rapidly and with far greater accuracy by machines. We do not aim, however, to let the increased use of machines cause us to grow machine like in dealing with our customers. In this we want to remain intensely human to every one. Notwithstanding we have been in business less than two years, our Resources are More Than $135,000, and we thank you for the confidence which has enabled us to reach this sum. Come and open an account with us and help us make one of the best banks in this section.
