

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

AMERICANS.

There will be a meeting at the usual place on Thursday night next.

SATURDAY NIGHT.—A few days since we expressed the opinion that the reign of order and decency, asserted by the National Intelligence as having begun in Washington, admitting, at the same time, that the Sabbath day, then last past, was not marked by any outrageous attacks upon persons or property, and hoping that this occasion of hostilities against the public peace on that day, was but the prelude to a return to the peaceful, happy, and prosperous times which we enjoyed prior to the advent of "Bloody Monday"...

The authorities of Washington, after pandering to the worst and most depraved appetites of human nature, until they have gotten beyond control of reason and law, find, when they attempt to apply a corrective, that the virus has spread throughout the body politic, and, like a cancer, can only be eradicated by the knife, if, indeed, the application of this desperate alternative will save the body from its ravages.

The citizens of Washington, rendered desperate by the presence of an armed band of ruffians, who prowl around their dwellings, and through the streets and avenues of the city, attacking and maltreating their persons and destroying their property and lives by fire and sword, have been compelled to arm themselves in self-defense.

The beautiful American pole on Virginia avenue, in the Sixth ward, was visited by the fall-destroyer, and levelled with the ground, as was also its fellow in the Seventh ward.

Resistance was offered to either of the last. The instrument used, apparently, was a pit saw. There is no ground for the assertion that the storekeepers near the depot were attacked. The truth of the matter seems to be, that the shops formed entrenchments for both parties, and hence the fight of the workmen.

An investigation of the night occurrences was held at the jail yesterday, which resulted in the holding Thomas Rook to bail for $1,000, John Cunningham in $500, and Joseph Cook in $500, and $40 for carrying weapons.

In addition to the facts published in another place, we have been informed that on Saturday evening seventy-five men, all completely armed, marched out of the alley leading from Birch's restaurant, and proceeded toward the Northern part of the city, whence, the presumption is, they divided into three parties, one proceeding to the Sixth, another to the Seventh ward, the other committing the depredations in the Northern part of the city.

How the beautiful pole in the Seventh ward could have been destroyed without the knowledge of the police, situated, as it is, only a few feet from the station house, is a mystery to us. Had the pole been a trifle longer it would in falling, have reached the door of the station house.

FESTIVAL.—The Ladies of Gorseuch Chapel Mite Society, are holding a Festival at Island Hall. We visited them a few evenings since, and were charmed with the appearance of things. They have lots of good things there—any quantity of beautiful things, and a plentiful supply of useful things. The ladies are attractive, pretty, beautiful, intelligent. The gentlemen kind and attentive.

SOMEWHAT SINGULAR.—On Monday morning an investigation was being held at the jail by Justice Goddard into the circumstances of the robbing and burning of the premises of Mr. Polton, on the Island, in September last. Whilst this was going on, and a witness was in the act of testifying, he looked up and said, "why, there are the very two men who did it." This had reference to Joseph Cunningham and Isaac Lambert, who happened to be calling at the jail to see some of their friends.

INDEPENDENT.—On Sunday night a house situated on the corner of N and Union streets, Island, occupied as a grocery store by Mr. Wiley, was fired on the outside in two places, and entirely destroyed. An attempt was made some time since to fire these premises which failed, on which occasion he was robbed of everything valuable, even his books. He was asleep when the fire broke out, and was roused by neighbors, having barely time to seize his books and escape. His wife and children were providentially absent.

WE call attention to the advertisements of Angel and Beron, and Joseph F. Hodgson.

THE REIGN OF TERROR.—We have made many inquiries in relation to the riots of Saturday and night, but we must confess that all the information we have been able to obtain has been of a most unsatisfactory character, the whole of the transactions being shrouded in a mist. But from the most reliable sources that we can ascertain any of the facts they are as follows:

A gang of the party known as "Regulators," "Exiles," &c., who arrived from Baltimore on Saturday morning, variously estimated in number from six to fifteen, armed with muskets, proceeded in the direction of "Swampoodle." A small boy, hearing them announce their intention of attacking Charles Hurdle, ran on before them and apprized Hurdle of it, who immediately, in connection with a comrade, prepared for defence. When they found Hurdle they immediately fired at him, but were repulsed by Hurdle and his companion. The skirmishing was kept up for some time without any injury on either side.

Between seven and eight o'clock in the evening a party of the same crowd, about fifty, all told, attacked the boarding house of Mrs. Hughes, on Third street near Massachusetts avenue, where five young men were seated at a table playing dominoes. On entering the house, they put out all the lights and commenced firing upon the party inside, and with fatal effect, shooting a young man named Murphy, the ball entering the abdomen on the left side, passing backward and slightly upward, and lodging in the muscles at the back. He died in about half an hour after he was shot. Another young man, named Hutchings, received a slug in the face at the same time.

The money drawer was robbed of twenty or thirty dollars. Just above, on the corner, stood the American pole, which these villainous rascals next proceeded to, and cut down. Some of the members of the Northern Liberty Company hearing of this, arrived at the spot, when considerable firing took place between them, and we hear some seven or eight were wounded.

In the meantime some of the special police came upon the ground, and succeeded in arresting Timothy Hurley, John Cunningham, James Fletcher, and Joseph Cook, respectively, for riot; Thomas Rook, W. Wilson, alias Mahoney, and Patrick McCarthy, for shooting. Hurdle accuses three of the parties arrested at the ones who attacked him during the day. Extra police officers Carter and D. A. Harrower attempted to arrest some of the "Exiles," and Harrower was shot by them, the ball entering to the right of the nose, under the eye, and has not yet been extracted; and, we regret to learn, he is in a dangerous condition, for we regard him among the best of our police.

A pistol was presented at Carter, but the cap snapped; Carter returned the favor with a similar result. The demons were not yet satisfied. Hurdle's house was visited, (he having in the meantime been arrested for the occurrences of the day, though none of the attacking party were) and the furniture and contents completely destroyed.

The beautiful American pole on Virginia avenue, in the Sixth ward, was visited by the fall-destroyer, and levelled with the ground, as was also its fellow in the Seventh ward. Resistance was offered to either of the last. The instrument used, apparently, was a pit saw. There is no ground for the assertion that the storekeepers near the depot were attacked.

An investigation of the night occurrences was held at the jail yesterday, which resulted in the holding Thomas Rook to bail for $1,000, John Cunningham in $500, and Joseph Cook in $500, and $40 for carrying weapons. The jury of inquest upon the body of Murphy rendered a verdict that William Wilson, alias Mahoney, and Patrick McCarthy formed a portion of the party who fired the guns and pistols by which Murphy came to his death. They were therefore committed to stand trial at the next term of the Criminal Court.

SEARCH WARRANTS.—It will be remembered that some time since the shoe shop of Mr. Spates, Four-and-a-half street, Island, was entered, robbed, and fired, communicating to the adjoining buildings of Messrs. Poulton and Zell. Through the exertions of a citizen of the Seventh ward, various parties were collected; and, by his persuasions, William Wilson, one of the parties arrested for riot on Saturday night, was induced to blow on two others, Thomas Cunningham and Isaac Lambert. These latter visited the jail on Monday morning, to see some of their comrades, when Cunningham was arrested, but Lambert escaped.

PRESENTATION.—A delegation of the Franklin Fire Company of this city has visited Philadelphia and presented two silver pitchers—one to the Good Will Engine Company and one to the West-coast Engine Company.

SOBS OF MALTA.—We learn that it is proposed to establish this philanthropic and popular association in this city. It has for several years been one of the favorite "institutions" in New Orleans, and has of late been instituted in several of the northern cities.

Michael Murphy, who was killed Saturday night on English Hill, was buried yesterday afternoon. Notwithstanding the rain, his funeral was attended by a large number of his late fellow workmen, who were allowed to suspend their work for that purpose.

ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that Mr. A. Hatch, of the Seventh Ward, received a severe wound on Monday night, by the accidental discharge of his revolver. It went off as he was undressing, to retire to bed, the ball passing through his hand.

It is reckoned that there is one liquor shop for every eight families in New York city, and for some neighborhoods in the city one grog shop for every ten families.—Exchange.

Judging by those we see in our walks in this city, we should suppose that the proportion of grog and beer shops to families is not less here than in New York.

GOVERNOR WALKER.—St. Louis, Nov. 23.—Governor Walker, of Kansas, is here en route for Washington. There is nothing new from Kansas.

An official report states that there are at present 58 Sabbath Schools in Chicago, with 500 teachers at 6,000 scholars.

A young lady in Cincinnati, a few days since, died from bleeding at the nose. While standing, the blood rushed from both nostrils in a stream.

In Germany, kissing the head of a lady is deemed a mark of respect rather than a liberty.

In excavating Oak street culvert in the upper part of the city of Evansville on Tuesday last, the workmen came to the remains of a cabin eighteen feet below the surface of the street. It had evidently been a German habitation, and that of a European. The discovery suggests numerous interesting questions.

It does not appear possible that a deposit of 20 or 25 feet of earth can have been made on the present site of the city since the first civilized foot trod upon the banks of the Ohio at this point. The age of some of the trees that formerly stood upon the present surface would almost preclude such a supposition.

The Evansville Journal says: That the builders and occupiers of the cabin were civilized men is proven by the auger holes and pins—by the pegged soles and seams of the boots, by the spinning-wheel and absence of Indian implements. Who were they, and when did they erect their habitation there? The date of the first settlement of Vincennes by Europeans is, in doubt, but it is known to have been made before the year 1700—one hundred and sixty years ago. It is possible that the spinning-wheel, that now lies in our sanctum, twirled the moving foot of the busy housewife, and its hum was heard among the trees before the bees made their first music in the primal forests here—and these old boots, perhaps, made the first prints of civilization along the levee now busy with the operations of an extensive commerce.

The Tampa (Florida) Peninsula says that the entire military force now in Florida has been ordered out on active service. It comprises about two thousand men, and it seems probable that they will be able to conquer the Indians.

The newspapers in many parts of the west say that emigration is nearly as heavy this fall as it was last spring. The fall is deemed as good a season for farmers or even agricultural laborers to emigrate as the spring. The land can be broken and fences built, and the farm got ready generally for operations in the spring.

Commodore Foote attributes to the influence of the American missionaries the formation of most of the late treaties of Siam with western nations, which he thinks are already enabling that country to progress.

M. Lamartine, whose fortune was greatly impaired by a series of bad years and his indulgence to poor tenants, has this year had a magnificent crop of wine upon his Macon estate in France. It is said that he has sold three thousand casks at 80 francs each, and has consequently realized a sum of two hundred and forty thousand francs.

At his late residence, No. 899 Ninth street, on Saturday, the 21st instant, about 5 o'clock A. M., our venerable and highly esteemed fellow-citizen, GEORGE CRANDALL, in the 79th year of his age.
