

The Bulletin

HENRY ALLEY & SON, Furnishing Undertakers, 83 Main Street.

NORWICH TOWN. Hunters Shoot Silver Gray Fox—New Year's Eve Party—Endeavorers Watch Old Year Out.

CRIMINAL COURT CASES ASSIGNED

Grand Jury will be Called in for Tuesday and Petit Jury on Wednesday—Pleas to be Taken on Tuesday.

The Bulletin should be delivered everywhere in the city before 6 a. m. Subscribers who fail to receive it by that time will confer a favor by reporting the fact to The Bulletin Co.

THE WEATHER. Forecast for Today.

For New England: Fair Saturday and probably Sunday, slowly rising temperature, moderate winds, mostly southeast.

Observations in Norwich. The following records, reported from Sevin's pharmacy, show the changes in temperature and the barometric changes Friday:

Table with 4 columns: Time (7 a. m., 12 m., 6 p.), Barometer (29.70, 30.25, 30.25), Wind (S.W., S.W., S.W.), and Clouds (B, C, B, C).

Observations in Norwich. The following records, reported from Sevin's pharmacy, show the changes in temperature and the barometric changes Friday:

Table with 4 columns: Time (7 a. m., 12 m., 6 p.), Barometer (29.70, 30.25, 30.25), Wind (S.W., S.W., S.W.), and Clouds (B, C, B, C).

GREENEVILLE. Ladies' Aid Society of Congregational Church Gives Social and Concert—Annual Business Meeting Held—Other Notes.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Greenville Congregational church, following the custom for former years, entertained the members of the church New Year's night with a delightful social and concert.

GREENEVILLE. Ladies' Aid Society of Congregational Church Gives Social and Concert—Annual Business Meeting Held—Other Notes.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Greenville Congregational church, following the custom for former years, entertained the members of the church New Year's night with a delightful social and concert.

The annual church business meeting, which is usually held on Friday night of January, took place Friday night at the residence of Mrs. W. G. Haselden.

New Year's Service at St. Mary's. At all the masses on St. Mary's church of New Year's there were large congregations.

Personal Notes. Charles P. Bradley of Central avenue has returned from a week's stay in Providence.

Miss Catherine Quinn of Newark, N. J., is visiting her cousin, Miss Mary T. Sullivan of Central avenue.

Miss Nellie Looby, who has been spending the winter at the home of relatives on Hickory street, has returned to Rye, N. Y.

Miss Clara Fleetwood of New Haven, formerly a teacher in the kindergarten of the Greenville grammar school, is the guest of Mrs. Charles Sevin of Central avenue.

On New Year's morning a party of hunters, Reuben Potter, Edward Gay, Joel Ashwell, C. A. Gager, William Lathrop and Michael Pouch, brought in a handsome silver gray fox, weighing twelve pounds. It was shot by Reuben Potter, making this third this season, and was killed on Plain Hill.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH. Annual Meeting With Election of Officers—Will Celebrate 250th Anniversary.

At the First Congregational church on New Year's day the annual business meeting was held at 3:30 o'clock. The meeting was opened by the reading from the scriptures, II Peter 3, by the pastor, Rev. George H. Ewing, followed by prayer. Rev. Mr. Ewing acted as moderator.

The clerk of the church, Herbert L. Yerrington, gave the report of the last meeting and the record of the year. The following officers were elected: Pastor, Rev. George H. Ewing; Treasurer, Lewis A. Hyde; Secretary, Herbert L. Yerrington; Steward, Lewis A. Hyde; Sunday school superintendent, Mrs. Aaron W. Dickey; Deacons, Dwight W. Avery and Henry E. Essler; Standing committee, Mrs. Thomas J. Wattle and Frank Avery.

Church 250 Years Old. All reports were approved. It was also decided to hold the 250th anniversary of the church on the same days as the 250th anniversary of the settlement of the town of Norwich, which was in 1614.

On New Year's day at 5 o'clock Herbert L. Yerrington gave his twenty-eighth annual report in the First Congregational church. He was assisted by Charles D. Geer, chairman of the committee on the program.

Following the recital a most appetizing supper was served in the chapel and a large number partook. The supper was in charge of Miss Mary E. Wattle, assisted by Miss Abbie L. Hale, Miss George O. Stead and Miss Fannie Williams.

Scotland Road Pupils Entertain. At the Scotland road school, which closed last week, the following interesting programme was carried out, under the direction of the teacher, Miss Viola Chesbro.

At the Scotland road school, which closed last week, the following interesting programme was carried out, under the direction of the teacher, Miss Viola Chesbro.

There was a small fire at Baltic Friday evening at about 11:40 o'clock in one of the company houses, occupied as a dwelling, and the third from the corner of High and Mill streets.

Under the auspices of Professor Maher a sunlit hop, the afternoon and evening of New Year's day, was given at the Casino orchestra, drew a large number there on Friday at both hours.

Under the auspices of Professor Maher a sunlit hop, the afternoon and evening of New Year's day, was given at the Casino orchestra, drew a large number there on Friday at both hours.

State's Attorney Hull was in Norwich on Friday morning for the purpose of getting the cases ready for trial before the criminal court of common pleas which comes in here on Tuesday for the January session.

The following cases were assigned for Wednesday before the petit jury: State's Attorney Hull was in Norwich on Friday morning for the purpose of getting the cases ready for trial before the criminal court of common pleas which comes in here on Tuesday for the January session.

SUDDEN DEATHS NUMBER 187 DURING THE YEAR. Report for the County Submitted by Coroner Franklin H. Brown—Norwich Had 34.

Coroner Franklin H. Brown has made his quarterly report of sudden deaths to the state's attorney, being submitted to him on Friday, Dec. 31, 1908.

There were 536,169 depositors in the savings banks on October 1, 1908, and 532,995,766.78 on October 1, 1907, the deposits amounted to $256,272,291.56, showing a decrease of $4,272,291.56.

There were 536,169 depositors in the savings banks on October 1, 1908, and 532,995,766.78 on October 1, 1907, the deposits amounted to $256,272,291.56, showing a decrease of $4,272,291.56.

There were 536,169 depositors in the savings banks on October 1, 1908, and 532,995,766.78 on October 1, 1907, the deposits amounted to $256,272,291.56, showing a decrease of $4,272,291.56.

There were 536,169 depositors in the savings banks on October 1, 1908, and 532,995,766.78 on October 1, 1907, the deposits amounted to $256,272,291.56, showing a decrease of $4,272,291.56.

There were 536,169 depositors in the savings banks on October 1, 1908, and 532,995,766.78 on October 1, 1907, the deposits amounted to $256,272,291.56, showing a decrease of $4,272,291.56.

There were 536,169 depositors in the savings banks on October 1, 1908, and 532,995,766.78 on October 1, 1907, the deposits amounted to $256,272,291.56, showing a decrease of $4,272,291.56.

There were 536,169 depositors in the savings banks on October 1, 1908, and 532,995,766.78 on October 1, 1907, the deposits amounted to $256,272,291.56, showing a decrease of $4,272,291.56.

cost $150,000, but it is thought by those who have seen such jobs undertaken that it will mean $200,000 at the least.

TAFTVILLE. Daniel Day Returns After Four Months' Visit in Scotland and Ireland—Other Personal Notes.

Daniel Day returned to his home on Hunter's avenue this week after a four months' visit in Scotland and Ireland, which he spent as a tourist.

Mr. Day has lived in Taftville nearly all the time since he came to this country and in prime was an expert mason. He was employed on the Taftville mill when they were being built.

George Morrisette of Plainfield was the guest of local relatives Friday.

John Dunne and Wilfred Pollard were visitors in Attaxausan Friday.

A. E. Reeves was the guest of friends in Thompsonville New Year's day.

Frank Boucher of New Haven is visiting his parents on North A street over New Year's.

A party of twenty-two young men attended the Olympic sunlight on Friday morning at the Casino.

Ralph Andrews and Walter Burnshaw left Friday afternoon for a short visit with the former's uncle in Jersey City.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah J. Donovan, Merchants' avenue, have left to spend a week with relatives in New York.

Peter Michaud of Glasgow is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Michaud, of Providence street.

Miss Annie McCarthy of Merchants' avenue is the guest of her sister, Mrs. William Casey, in Pawcatuck, over the holidays.

The survey of the Cing-Chang-shan which is said to be built jointly by the Chinese and Japanese, has been completed. The cost of the line is estimated at 5,000,000 taels (one tael about 10 cents).

CASTORIA. The Kid You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Ayer.

Many little lives have been saved by Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. It is the only safe remedy for infants and children, as it contains no opiates or other narcotic drugs, and children like Foley's Honey and Tar. Careful mothers keep a bottle in the house for all emergencies. The Lee & Osgood Co., Lowell, Mass., Sole U. S. Agents.

MARRIED. DOMBROSKE-LEARY. In this city, Dec. 30, at the Catholic parsonage of St. Ann's, by Rev. P. L. Fitzpatrick, Harry Frederick Dombroske and Miss Margaret Augusta Leary, both of this city.

MARRIED. COGSWELL. In Center Barnstead, N. H., Dec. 30, 1908, Margie Dearborn, wife of G. H. Cogswell, and William J. Cogswell, Norwich, in the presence of Rev. P. L. Fitzpatrick, this (Saturday) morning at 10:15 o'clock.

CHURCH & ALLEN. 15 Main Street. Funeral Directors and Embalmers.

Full Dress Suits. Price Albert Suits and Tuxedos. Cut prices on Winter Suits and Overcoats.

Shoe Specials Today, Saturday. Ladies' $1.75 Shoes, $1.50. Men's $2.50 Calf and Box Calf Shoes, $2.00.

FRANK A. BILL, 104 Main Street. buys a 17 Jewel Hamilton movement in a 20-year gold filled case.

Saturday Positively the Last Day Japanese China at your own price.

Tokio Japanese China Co., 21 Broadway. Clearance Sale.

For Sale. The fine Cottage House and Barn No. 183 Broad Street.

BUY A BOTTLE OF Golden Wedding Whiskey. THOS. H. WILSON, 78 Franklin.

THE Porteous & Mitchell COMPANY.

Our 36th Great Annual Clearance Sale.

Will Begin This Morning. This is the Great Merchandising Event of the year for the people of New London and Windham Counties.

Remember—This Sale Begins Saturday January 2nd, and no matter where you live it will pay you to attend this Sale.

Full Details of This Annual Sale are contained in our Page Advertisement in The Norwich Morning Bulletin of January 1st.

The Porteous & Mitchell Co. buys a 17 Jewel Hamilton movement in a 20-year gold filled case.

$15.00 buys a Waltham movement in a 20-year gold filled case.

$10.00 buys a Waltham movement in a 20-year gold filled case.

Great Mark Down Sale of Art Goods and Remnants of Holiday Stock.

GEO. A. DAVIS, 25-29 Broadway. We have some good things which we do not want to carry over and shall put prices on them that will insure quick sales.

We are still quoting the Lowest Prices in town on Furniture. Second-hand Furniture bought and sold.

SCHWARTZ BROS., 9-11 Water Street. Open evenings. Tel. connections. dec36