VARIOUS MATTERS.

Letter to the People

That desire the purest food, best in quality, best variety, best service—rich and poor that pay their bills.

We find it a great pleasure to carry on our weekly system of accounts.

We follow the markets of Boston, New York and anywhere that can offer us anything new and good.

We hear the remark often from the traveling public "Somers, the variety you have here is better and greater than I have seen anywhere."

Our supply of Fresh Killed Native Poultry is worthy of your attention.

Three points of our business: First—Quality. Second—Quantity and variety. Third—Satisfaction.

RULES FOR THE SCHOOL OF LIFE

Don't Waste Your Time, Go Up, Not Down, Have a Purpose and Walk in the Presence of the Ideal, Says Rev. Dr. L. L. West.

At the Second Congregational church on Sunday evening the pastor, Rev. L. L. West, D. D., delivered a sermon of valuable import and suggestion for the new year. Speaking upon the subject, "Some Rules for the School of Life," as a text Dr. West used James iv. 14: "What is your life?" Perhaps there is no question we could ask of a larger number of answers. And each answer comes back tinged with the overshadowing motif of the force of the question. "What is your life?" he said, "from which we could get a larger number of answers. And each answer comes back tinged with the overshadowing motif of the force of the question."

First—Don't waste your time. Time is the most precious thing you've got. Don't fool around and don't dawdle at your fellow's time and don't dawdle at your own. Time is the one common and priceless possession, but how different will be the results into which we will have transmuted the hours of 1909. No one is so prodigal of time as young people, and it is not until afterwards that we look back and realize the folly of the wasted hours.

Second—Be sure you're going up, and not down. The end of the things you begin so easily in youth, but see that they are on the upgrade, if ever so little.

Third—Have a purpose. To make it worth while, let it be high enough to give some pull. Let it be something clear, definite, positive; the more clear, distinct and single it is the better. Something that shall be like the pole-star, always grasping you, holding and leading you.

Fourth—Strive as far as may be to work in the presence of the ideal. There is almost nobody who doesn't live ten times more in his imagination than in the real. When the man climbs up in the high tower of his imagination and gets his vision, he goes down to the battle, well content, for he has that in his heart that makes him live in the presence of the ideal. The man who does not every morning or every noon when it comes to him as you would expect, then, following these four rules for the school of life, he becomes beautiful and noble and worth while.

IS THIS A SQUARE DEAL?

The Lee & Osgood Co., the Druggists, Will Give You Your Money Back if Mi-O-NA Does Not Cure Dyspepsia.

The Lee & Osgood Co. makes this square deal offer because they are authorized to do so by the makers of Mi-O-NA tablets, and they are willing to have this statement appear in The Bulletin because they know the offer is genuine.

And while it may be that there are about 5 cases in 100 that are too far gone for Mi-O-NA to cure, we are willing and ready to take all the chances, and if Mi-O-NA does not cure, any dyspeptic can have his money back.

Even with this liberal offer the Lee & Osgood Co. will not have to refund but a very small percentage, because 99.5% of the dyspeptics will find so much relief in Mi-O-NA that they will once again look upon the sunny side of life, and will continue to use Mi-O-NA.

Now, reader, you may say how can the makers of Mi-O-NA make such an offer? How do they know the 99.5% of the users will be cured, and that the other 8 per cent, or the dyspeptics, will be relieved?

Why, it's all very simple. We've made this same offer in 1908 towns big and small, and we have figured out the percentages, so that when we make this statement we know it to be absolutely true.

Mi-O-NA tablets are truly great for anyone that has stomach trouble. I can not praise them too highly for what they have done for me."—Mrs. W. D. Bennett, Bucksport, Me.

The price is only 50 cents a box.
