Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Beausollet and two sons, Henry and Joseph, of North Main street, who have been spending the past week with relatives in Waterbury, have returned.

Mrs. James Service of Boswell avenue is recovering after an attack of grip, and her daughter, Miss Isabella Service, has returned to her duties as teacher in the Tatfville public school.

Miss Madeline Driscoll has returned to St. Joseph's seminary, Hartford, after spending the Christmas vacation at the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis H. Driscoll of North Main street.

The Holy Name society of St. Mary's church is planning to hold a smoker and social in the Father Mathew's T. A. society's rooms the latter part of this month. Thomas Fields, the well known dancer, will be present and there will be music and speakers.

Vaseline Stains Linen. Vaseline makes a stain on linen, which should be removed before the article is sent to the laundry, for it is set by soap.

Soak such stains in kerosene, alcohol or turpentine before touching them with water.

Effective Reform. This sentence from Judge Robinson's decision in the Fox-Lilly case is almost epigrammatic: "A reform, to be effective, should not be inaugurated by violating the fundamental law of the state."—Hartford Times.

MAN DENIED HIS GUILT

Mehrholz Girl He Claims Called Him Into Her Room Because She Was Afraid but Nothing Wrong Took Place—Prisoners Sent to Jail and Tomlinson Has Disappeared.

When the superior court opened on Thursday morning August Gomez of Albany's Point was presented on the charge of carrying a concealed weapon. He was given three months in jail.

According to the story told by Attorney A. A. Browning the accused had trouble with his boarding house November 16; she told her son after leaving the house. When the men met Gomez produced a revolver, but was disarmed.

Phillip Wyant, aged 40, of New London, pleaded guilty to attempting to assault an Italian girl in New London. Attorney Freeman spoke for him, stating that he does not drink, is a good carpenter, has an efficient and a good character, but does not live with them. He was given not less than a year nor more than three in state prison. He pleaded guilty to carrying a concealed weapon, Ezra Mather was given three months in jail and fined $50. He is 20 years old and lives in Old Lyme. Attorney Freeman said he had been on probation for a time and wanted to join the navy. A shot had been fired through a window in Old Lyme, and the bullet fitted Mather's weapon, and he was supposed to have been in the vicinity. State's attorney called him the bad boy of Old Lyme.

For the theft of a $400 motor boat in Clinton, Sept. 2, John W. Forbes, who pleaded guilty Wednesday, was given one to two years in state prison.

On the charge of entering cottages at Quaker Hill and stealing a Fredrick, Edward and Charles Chapman and Joseph Forsyth pleaded guilty. They were given good advice by Judge Wheeler, who sentenced them to six months, executing Charles, who is to be put on probation later.

Antonio and Joseph Perkins pleaded not guilty to cruelty to a horse in Preston, Dec. 7, and Attorney E. W. Perkins was assigned to their case.

Tomlinson Disappears. State's Attorney Hull stated Thursday that the head in the case of George Tomlinson of Groton will be held open a few days longer, pending a search for Tomlinson. Owing to the fact that the bond would work a great hardship on the youth's mother, Mrs. George Lamb of Groton, this leniency was granted by the state.

Tomlinson was charged with felonious assault, and has been out on $2,000 bonds waiting trial. He has been employed in the factory at Pawtucket, coming here this week to answer the charge.

Wednesday it was noticed that Tomlinson had been in court up to that time, had suddenly disappeared. Neither his counsel, Ralph Denison, nor the state's attorney, Paul Gable, secretary of the board, Edward G. Black, had since been searching for the youth, but in vain.

The bond which Mrs. Lamb gave for her son's appearance in court was backed by her home in Groton. Mr. Lamb is in a serious condition with heart trouble, and the family is not in a position where it can afford to lose their home through having the bond called.

Tomlinson will be diligently searched for, and meanwhile the bond will be continued for the sake of his family. Mr. Black said that the girl called to him and said there was a hand by the window, and asked him to come in there and see. He went and saw that it must have been a dream or a cat.

He denied any wrong-doing. This completed the evidence for the day, court adjourning at 4:30 until this morning at 10 o'clock.

THAMES RIVER TERRACES. Paper on Their Delta Form and Structure Read by F. P. Gulliver at Baltimore.

F. P. Gulliver returned Tuesday night from attending the 60th meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science in Baltimore December 28 to January 2. At the meeting of the Geological Society of America he read two papers on the Thames River terraces, and at the Association of American Geographers, he read a paper on "The Delta Structure of the Thames River Terraces, Connecticut." He said:

The terraces of the Thames river in eastern Connecticut are from 15 to 20 feet above sea level at New London, 40 to 50 feet at Montville, 70 to 80 feet at Brewster's Neck and near Trading Cove, 100 to 120 feet at Norwich, 120 to 140 feet at Willimantic, and 250 to 280 feet near Danielson. A casual inspection of the surface forms of these terraces would suggest that they were formed as river terraces after the retreat of the ice. This was Dana's idea in regard to them and he published in 1842. The structure, however, is a delta structure, which was well shown by the cuts made at the navy yard, north of Groton, when the New York Shore Lines, and the Hartford railroad built its line from New London to Norwich in 1837.

Mr. Gulliver was secretary of section 22, Geology and Geography, at the meeting.

First Defeat for Auspicious. Savannah, Ga., Jan. 7.—The races at Thunderbolt track today attracted a large crowd, who saw five good events. Auspicious met his first defeat of the season in the fifth event. Sunfire set the pace and won handily.

N. Y. U. 11, Wesleyan 10. Middletown, Conn., Jan. 7.—The New York university basketball team defeated Wesleyan here tonight, 11 to 10, in a close and rough game.

Billiard Matches. New York, Jan. 7.—In a match game of billiards here tonight, Thomas Gallagher defeated Calvin Demarest by a score of 250 to 172. In the afternoon Demarest defeated J. H. Hendricks by a score of 250 to 75.

Should Be Careful. Mr. Taft will please take good care of himself while on his Panama trip. It would put the country in an embarrassing position if anything serious were to happen to him.—Chicago Tribune.

Warning to Knox. James Buchanan was the last man to become president who had ever been secretary of state. Instruments of that office would do well to be inaugurated in the presidential building behind them. Think on this, Mr. Knox.—Brooklyn Eagle.

More to Inaugurate. It is going to cost $12,000 more to inaugurate Taft than Roosevelt. But there's a great deal more of him to inaugurate.—Atlanta Journal.

Or a Carnegie Medal. Pittsburg should erect a tall and expensive monument to the six confederates who wouldn't take money.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Where He Would Shine. What a citizen of Venezuela Robinson Pearson Hobson would make! His predictions of trouble would come every crack.—Washington Post.

Destroying the Canal Enemies. The best way to destroy the enemies of the Panama canal's digging process is to "keep on with it" digging.—Memphis News-Scimitar.

TATFVILLE.

Unclaimed Letters at Postoffice—Personal Mention. Henry Fontaine was the guest of friends in Willimantic Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Mulgrue of Front street has returned to her position in Ponemah mills after an attack of grip.

Unclaimed letters in the Tatfville postoffice are addressed to the following: Max Hoyer, Alfonso Hamel, Miss Mae Wright.

Fred Lavasseur of New Bedford and Edward Bergeron of St. Lincoln, Canada, are the guests of Zephyr Braunitz of South C street for the week.

Edward Bergeron and H. C. Dion attended the ball given by Garde Florimonde at Willimantic Wednesday night and had a very enjoyable time.

Walter S. Grant returned this week to the Ponemah mill, where he is employed as carpenter. Some time ago he was successfully operated upon for appendicitis.

Representative Charles P. Bushnell returned Thursday after attending the inauguration of Governor Lilly and the organization of the house of representatives.

J. C. Duff is visiting his brother, Thomas Duff, of New Bedford, who is well known as a ball player and played in a pool match at Providence New Year's day, his side winning $25.

NORWICH TOWN.

Evening of Whist at Mr. and Mrs. David Deans—Accident to Woodcutter.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. David Deans entertained at whist. The delightful evening being passed, the guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Allen R. Kinney, and the first gentleman's honors went to William Freeman of Groton, who was awarded Mrs. James Butler's prize and the second gentleman's prize was given Allen R. Kinney. A pleasant social and refreshments were served the guests.

James McFarlan of Providence has been visiting local friends.

Mrs. Frank Larkham and daughter, Gladys, of Norwich City, are guests of Mrs. H. J. Larkham.

As Ralph Ennis was chopping in the woods on the 28th of December, the axe slipped, cutting his foot badly.

Mrs. Charles Tracy has returned to her home in Hartford, after visiting her sister, Mrs. Lucie J. Dolbear.

The Central Vermont train that passes through here about noon was delayed nearly an hour on Thursday.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS.

Dorando Pietri, the Italian runner, was defeated by the American, who is Rochester in a ten mile relay race, defeating a team composed of three boys by about half a mile. Time, 53:47 2-5. It is said that Bresnan may play the outfield next season, as he has a wealth of catches in his Cardinal outfit and is able outfielder because of the release of Murray to the Giants.

One of Stallings' most promising recruits is Jimmy Austin, a third baseman from the Orange team in the Western league. From what scouts have told Stallings of Austin the latter is likely to give "Wild" Conroy a hard fight for the third base guard.

Ed Walsh, the big pitcher of the Chicago Americans, is worth all he is asking for if $45,000 is his figure. He is not only a star but an excellent horse for work as there is in baseball. Manager Fielder Jones insisted, last fall that Walsh was worth more money than he was getting.

In an exciting football contest at Oakland, the first game between the Japanese and Chinese, the Imperials, a picked Colletti eleven, defeated the Japs by the score of 19 to 0. The Imperials were the only team to win in the contest.

The signals were in English. Dan Kelly, holder of the amateur world record in the 200 yard dash, has retired from the circuit path. He is now 25 years old and says he has wasted enough time in the sport Kelly has done in the automobile business with his father.

Tommy Murphy and Jim Driscoll are practically been matched to meet within three weeks. New York and Philadelphia clubs are after the match.

Uncle Jim Ladd has returned his contract to George L. O'Rourke. This will be the 15th season on the diamond, but he can still travel some.

It seems to be assured that Battling Nelson and Packey McFarland will fight for the world's lightweight championship at San Francisco March 7.

Tom Thomas, the English middleweight, who recently defeated Bartley Cox, is coming to this country in the hope of getting a match with Ketchell.

Manager Tom Dowd of New Bedford practically has signed the contract for the third base guard of Hartford's Patriots' day game at New Bedford.

Sam Crawford, Ty Cobb and Bill Doolittle have returned their signed contracts to President Navin of the Detroit Tigers.

Tommy Ryan, the former middleweight champion, may be the next instructor of boxing at the Illinois A. C. gymnasium formerly occupied by Joe Chiniski.

Jim Bonner, the Summit Hill coal miner, whose good work in Boston is well remembered, will sign a contract for a ten-round contest with Paddy Laven to take place at Reading, Pa., January 15.

PUT HIS ART ABOVE WEATHER. Painter and Western Critics Split on a Question of Meteorology.

In a gallery there hangs a large canvas in an imposing frame. The painting shows a waterfall in one of the states famous for startling natural scenery. The picture has occupied its present place for several years.

"Does it belong here?" asked a visitor of the man in charge. "No more than the others you see?" "Seems to me it should be in the capitol of the state, where the scenery is," said the visitor.

"It was painted for the state," replied the man in charge, "but when it was shown to the art committee they refused to accept it."

"What was the objection?" "You see, the sky is overcast. The artist put in a gathering storm like an impending calamity. The art committee said it was a reflection on the reputation of the state; that a storm such as is represented was unknown in that latitude."

"Couldn't the artist put in another sky one that accorded with the state's reputation for sunshine?" "It would be comic, but he refused," was the reply. "The art committee by the storm effect on the canvas and he refused to budge. He sent it here, and here it remains."

THE SAVINGS BANKS OF CONNECTICUT.

Mr. Bulkeley—I want to say, Mr. President, if the senator from Montana will permit me to reply to the inquiry of the senator from California (Mr. Flint), that in my own state, where we probably have as large and as successful savings banks conducted on the New England plan as exist anywhere, the salaries of the officers who conduct the banks are of a very limited character. The president of the bank is generally, as the senator from Montana has described, a retired business man, who performs the duties of that office without compensation, and the executive officer who receives a compensation is usually the treasurer.

Mr. Flint—I will ask the senator from Connecticut whether he knows what is the largest amount paid one of the trustees or officers of a mutual savings bank in his state.

Mr. Bulkeley.—We have in the city where I reside one of the largest savings banks, if not the largest in our state, with deposits amounting probably from $20,000,000 to $25,000,000.

Mr. Flint.—I would like to know what the largest amount paid one of the trustees or officers of a mutual savings bank in his state.
