Carnival Well Attended.

The fourth night of the carnival being held in Town hall under the auspices of Division I, A. O. U., and the Ladies' Auxiliary, was largely attended, as on the three preceding nights. All roads seem to lead to the Town hall, and it is a jolly, good-natured crowd that assembles there, with plenty of amusement for the most exacting person who is upon pleasure bent. The music is furnished by the orchestra. There is dancing to music by Helms's orchestra.

Rural Drama Pleases Big House.

"Our New Minister," the attraction at Loomer Opera house Thursday evening, was accorded a good house and made a decided hit. Skeels and Joseph Conyers as the constable came in for a generous amount of applause and kept the audience in excellent spirits.

White is about the best man available for forward, but H. C. Lathrop, cashier of the Windham National bank, is swift at basket shooting, and will probably be used for the other forward. The remaining positions are being hotly contested, and candidates having a good rub for the various vacant positions are: Rev. W. P. Fazio, center; H. C. Lathrop, forward; H. C. Lathrop, forward; H. JEWETT CITY.

Annual Meeting of Ladies' Society of Congregational Church—Men Invited to Supper and Social.

The annual meeting of the ladies' society of the Congregational church was entertained by Mrs. George A. Haskell in the church vestry, Thursday afternoon and evening. In the afternoon, the annual reports were read, and officers elected for the year, as follows: President Mrs. W. H. Gane; vice president Mrs. H. N. Wheelock; secretary Mrs. Frank E. Robinson; treasurer, Mrs. Charles D. Wolfe. As the list of directresses was not complete the nominating committee was continued. The gentlemen were invited to tea at six o'clock. A supper of baked beans, cold ham, brown bread, white bread, pickles, cake and coffee was served. In the evening there were games to entertain everybody and a vocal solo by R. L. Frost. There was an unusually large number present to enjoy the social. The ladies who assisted Mrs. Haskell were Mrs. Sherman Waters, Mrs. Herbert Webster, Mrs. A. F. Shaw, Mrs. William C. Jeffers, Misses May and Pearl Gane, and Miss Martha Bothwell.

Water Test Satisfactory.

Recent tests of the city water supply indicate that the water contains a small amount of mineral matter and the figures for organic constituents are not high for surface water, but the chlorine is somewhat above normal. The number of bacteria growing on gelatin is high, but no sewage forms were found.

NORWICH RECEIVES BEQUEST.

From Mrs. E. E. Browning—$10,000 to Putnam Baptist Church. Mrs. Ellen Estelle Browning, who recently died at Packerville, has by the terms of her will given an amount which it is expected will be about $10,000 to the Baptist church of this city, of which she was a member. By the terms of her will $250 is given to Trinity Episcopal church of Norwich, and there is another bequest to a near relative.

Funeral.

The funeral of Albert H. Safford, who died on the 14th inst., aged 31 years, was held last Sunday afternoon at the home of his parents in Canterbury. The services were very pleasant, a goodly number of relatives and friends were present and there were beautiful flowers. Rev. A. J. Hetrick, who had been his pastor and teacher, conducted the services. Burial was in Carey cemetery.

Funeral.

Young Mr. Safford was tall and handsome, a bright and active mind, and was almost idolized by his parish. At school he was a good student and gave promise of becoming some day an honorable position of great usefulness in the world, and it is sad that this could not be realized.
