ROOSEVELT CARRIAGES SOLD. Landau and Brougham Disposed of at Auction at Low Prices.

Washington, Feb. 28.—"What did do I hear for this landau, the property of President Roosevelt?" asked a local auction dealer Saturday, addressing an eagerly interested audience.

Other stable equipment of President Roosevelt which went under the hammer today were a brougham, several blankets and a pair of fitted holsters.

Owing to the fact that the sale had not been advertised, good prices were not realized. The landau brought $250, the brougham $130, a carriage whip 75 cents, and the blankets a few dollars apiece.

William Carpenter Held in $300 Bonds—Saloon Keeper Fined for Permitting Loitering of Minor.

William Carpenter, aged 19, who was arrested Friday evening by Officer Grady while in the act of signing the cash register of Girace & Sons' store at 906 Main street, was arraigned in police court Saturday morning on the charge of breaking and entering, and being a minor, pleaded through William C. Lyman, who had been appointed guardian ad litem.

He was charged with two counts, the first alleging that on February 25, in the night season, he broke into the store of Girace & Sons and stole therefrom $2 in money, and the second count was for breaking and entering the same place Friday night with intent to steal.

The accused, through counsel, pleaded guilty to both, and when asked if he had anything to say, requested that the court be lenient and he would try to do better.

Probable cause was found by Judge Arnold and Carpenter was bound over to the next criminal session of the superior court under $300 bonds, which he was unable to furnish.

Young Carpenter told the authorities Saturday morning that he had been in Arthur McQuillan's saloon the evening before, Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Henry H. Hunter notified Prosecuting Agent Andrew J. Green of Hampton, and he came to this city Saturday afternoon and investigated. A warrant was issued and McQuillan was arrested and taken before Deputy Judge James A. Shea at a special session of court Saturday afternoon, charged with permitting William Carpenter, a minor, to loiter in the saloon. McQuillan pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs, amounting to $25.00, which he paid.

REV. A. J. SMALL

Resigns Pastorate at Chaplin—To Go to Merimac, N. H.

Rev. Andrew J. Small tendered his resignation as pastor of the Congregational church of Chaplin at the morning service Sunday, to take effect the last Sunday in March, or the first in April. Rev. Mr. Small came to the Chaplin church in January, 1903, succeeding Rev. Eugene M. Frary, whose resignation was deeply regretted by many of the citizens of Chaplin. Rev. Mr. Frary went to Bernardston, Mass., where he is still located.

Rev. Mr. Small has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Congregational church at Merimac, N. H. It is not known who will assume the pastorate made vacant by Rev. Mr. Small's resignation.

NORWICH TIGERS

Vanquished by Acorns at Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium.

The Tigers from the Norwich Y. M. C. A. were trimmed to a frazzle in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium at this city on Saturday evening by the Acorns of the inter-association league of this city.

There was absolutely nothing to it but Acorns all the way, the visitors never having the least chance to obtain the upper hand. The boys from the "Rose of New England" must have indeed been merely faded petals that had outlived their vitality and fragrance for they were woefully outclassed from whistle to whistle.

The first half was a runaway affair with the score 24-4 in favor of the Acorns, the hardy fruit of the "Oak." During the last half the Norwich boys showed a dash of team work, but to no particular consistency that was anywhere near dangerous.

Carlson played a good game for the visitors, succeeding in holding a Lewis from scoring from the floor, although the Acorns' captain played in decidedly hard luck. Parsons of the visitors is also deserving of notice, Jones was the star performer for the locals, but every member of the Acorns played with that snap and determination that at last clinches victory. The lineup and summary:

Acorns—A. Lewis of E. Lewis II, James C. Moran vs. Carlson vs. Tigers—Carlson B. Reed vs. Aberg c, Desjardins H. Parsons r.

Score—Acorns 49, Tigers 12. Baskets from the floor, Jones 11, E. Lewis 5, Cochrane 4, Moran 2, Parsons 2, Aberg 2, Desjardins. Fouls called on Reed 5, Moran 3, Parsons 2, Carlson 3, Cochrane 2, Aberg E. Lewis. Baskets from free tries, Jones 4, Parsons 5.

FRANKLIN C. TAFT

Files Petition in Bankruptcy, as Individual, and Partner in Machine Company.

The F. G. Taft Machine company of this city is bankrupt, Franklin G. Taft individually, an associate partner through his attorney, Samuel B. Harvey, filed a petition in bankruptcy with the clerk of the district court at Hartford Saturday forenoon.

Partnership assets, about $1,243, with approximate liabilities of $111. Individual assets all, except tools, which are claimed to be exempt, with liabilities of nearly $600.

The F. G. Taft Machine company has been doing business since 1905, and has been manufacturing gas engines of the marine type, said to be of an excellent quality. In 1905 F. H. Elmore was a partner, but sold out his interest to Henry C. Bacon, who has been affiliated with the company for something over two years, but he has not filed a petition.

It is rumored that Mr. Bacon recently sold out his interest to Jay M. Shepard, but it is not stated as an absolute fact, yet.

On account of the filing of the petition in bankruptcy, an execution sale that was to have been conducted by Constable W. J. Hastings Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the interests of a number of the creditors who had attached some of the company's property, was held up.

ADOPTED DAUGHTER.

Gets Estate of Mrs. Esther Babcock.

The will of the late Mrs. Esther Babcock of Spring Hill was admitted to probate Saturday by Judge L. J. Storrs.

The attorney William A. King of this city appeared for Mrs. Minnie K. Curciven, the adopted daughter and only heir. There was no opposition to the admission of the instrument. Rev. Leonard Smith was specified as executor by the terms of the will, but he declined to accept and Judge L. J. Storrs appointed Mrs. Curciven administratrix with the will annexed.

The appraisers appointed were C. C. Davis and R. W. Gardner of Spring Hill. The matter of a trustee for the trust fund will come up at a later date.

DIABOLICAL CRUELTY Shown in Case of Fox Snared in Brooklyn.

Dr. M. S. Warren shot another fox in the town of Brooklyn Friday afternoon, and the loop of a brass wire snare choking away its life. The fox had been snared and had broken away. Its windpipe was completely severed and it was breathing through a hole in its mangled neck. When the peck was cut, it fell away in two places, being cut in two by the wire at the neck. The two pellets, showing the cruelty of using snares, are to be seen at Hoyle's shop on Center street.

NINETY-SIX LOOMS Running in New Addition to Cötton Mill.

Ninety-six looms are running in the new addition to the mill of the Danielson Cotton company. These looms, which weave fancy materials, were taken from the small temporary addition which has been stripped of shafting, water pipes and electric wires, etc., and which is to be torn down and replaced on the brick part of the second section of the new addition is being pushed.

No More Dances at Army. No more dances or basketball games can be held at the army after this season. The big drill shed floor has been a favorite place for large parties of dances because of the liberal space, but the installation of the big dummy coast artillery defense gun to be placed in the center of the floor will diminish the value of the hall for dances by curtailing the space.

QUINEBAUG POMONA. Large and Enthusiastic Gathering to Witness the Annual Installation.

Grange hall was crowded nearly to the limit on Saturday, when the Windham county patrons gathered to witness the installation of worthy Master W. H. Barron and his associates by State Overseer B. A. Peck and Mrs. Peck from Bristol. Brooklyn grange led in the attendance with a delegation of 25. If it were away in two places, being cut in two by the wire at the neck. The two pellets, showing the cruelty of using snares, are to be seen at Hoyle's shop on Center street.

ARCANUM CLUB Elects Official Board for the Ensuing Year.

The Arcanum club has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Ernest M. Arnold; vice president, Parker Brigham; secretary, George W. Baker; executive committee, George P. Miner, J. E. Rafferty, W. E. Himes, R. M. Johnson, N. M. Parker. The report of the treasurer showed that the financial condition of the club is satisfactory. Resolutions were adopted expressing appreciation of the generosity and kindly interest of Hon. George A. Hammond shown through his liberality to the organization in effecting the recent renovation of the club quarters.

FOUR MEN Arrested for Receiving Goods Stolen By Miller from Bradley Place.

A sequel to the Fred H. Wood case developed Saturday when Eugene Oiler, Paul St. George, Louis Dupre and Alexander Dupre, all of Putnam, were arrested, charged with receiving and concealing goods stolen from the Bradley estate at Pomfret. The arrest of the men was based on evidence secured from Charles Miller, who burglarized the Bradley mansion and is now prisoner in Brooklyn jail. The facts furnished were worked up by State Policeman Robert Hurley of Hartford. The four prisoners were taken over to Pomfret Saturday morning for a special reason and the preliminary hearing was held in that town before Justice John Larned.

Charles O. Thompson, a grand juror, presided at the state's attorney's hearing for the defendants and entered a demurrer to the charges, which was overruled by the court. Oiler was charged with receiving goods to the value of $230. He was found guilty, fined $5 and sentenced to thirty days in jail. Oiler took an appeal and was released under a bond of $100, furnished by Dr. Omer Larue, to appear later in the superior court.

George and the two Dupres were all bound over, the court finding probable cause. St. George was charged with receiving goods valued at $23, Alexander Dupre with receiving goods valued at $21 and Louis Dupre with receiving goods valued at $301. St. George's bond of $300 was furnished by Fred H. Wood.

Dr. Larue went the $350 bonds of Louis Dupre and Alfred Dupre the $250 bond of Alexander Dupre.

All the things that Miller told the officers regarding his breaks and sales of goods to the men implicated are so near to being true as to cause another sensation in Putnam. The goods sold by Miller to the four men bound over Saturday have been recovered and are in possession of the local officers. They consist of a miscellaneous collection of articles, such as would be taken by a burglar with plenty of leisure to select from a fashionably fitted residence. French clocks, bric a brac, wearing apparel and innumerable other articles were included in the haul. Miller sold his ill-gotten collection for ridiculously small prices and did not receive in total as much as some of the separate pieces are worth.

Local Notes. William H. Taylor has been granted the privilege of using the park for the coming season at Willimantic park by the Park booking circuit of New York which supplies the vaudeville and other stage attractions.
