OBITUARY.

Samuel K. Lovett. The death of Samuel K. Lovett occurred at his home a few minutes before midnight Sunday night, after a long illness resulting from a shock. For 24 years Lovett has been a resident of Norwich town, where for years he was a constable, and as such was for many years a familiar official in the superior court room, when he used to have charge of the jury.

It was the last of his immediate family. His sister, Mrs. Hannah Lapierre, passing away a year ago. He is survived by his wife, Mr. Lovett was a man highly esteemed, possessing a most jovial disposition. His many friends will sincerely regret his passing away.

St. Anne Cadets Drill. St. Anne's detachment of the Tierney cadets held its regular meeting Sunday afternoon at the T. A. B. building on Broadway, receiving two new members, Miss Mary E. Foley, with her assistants from the St. Anne's society, was present to help the girls of the detachment and John Crawford gave them drill work which was executed with marked ability and grace of the military order. William Murphy also assisted in the drilling.

Dr. McElfresh to Speak. Invitations to all the local Sunday schools and those in New London, Jewett City and Baltic, which have been sent out, are expected to be responded to by the attendance of a goodly number of interested Sunday school teachers at the meetings this afternoon and evening in Y. REID & HUGHES CO. LEASE SHANNON BUILDING. Will Have the Entire Ground Floor of the New Building, Giving 180 Feet Frontage—Large Entrance at Corner.

The lease of the ground floor of the new Shannon building when erected has been secured by the Reid & Hughes Co. for a term of years and they will occupy the entire floor together with their present building, just as soon as the building is ready. They will also have a large part of the basement. The new floor space with what they have will give them 180 feet frontage and in one of the best locations in the city.

The entrance will be about twenty feet wide and located at the corner, where formerly was Steiner's pharmacy. There will be six doors there.

Mr. Shannon is devoting much time to his new building and characteristic of him is to put up the best to be had. It will be fireproof in every respect and on the rear there will be metal window frames, while the stairways and the elevator shaft will be fully protected. In the upper stories it will be so arranged with fireproof doors that if a fire should start the room can be closed and nothing else would be damaged. It will be one of the best buildings the city can boast of and a decided credit to the corner.

THE SALOON MUST GO

Rev. P. C. Wright Fires the Opening Gun of the No-Licenses Campaign for this Year—Confident of its Success and was Satisfied with Last Year's Work.

Squared Away for Another Year of License was the topic of Rev. P. C. Wright at the Central Baptist church Sunday evening, when he fired the opening gun of the campaign for no-licenses of the year 1909, and he had a good sized congregation. In referring to the campaign last fall, he said he didn't feel as if they had done nothing or gained nothing because of the failure. The supposed silence since by the no-licenses men may have made many feel that the question was decided once and for all, but such is not the case. Hardly had the vote been declared when the no-licenses committee met last fall and began work for the present year. There will be a stronger campaign in 1909 than in 1908. We are not discouraged, but greatly encouraged, said Rev. Mr. Wright. There may have been a few so extremely hopeful that they expected a victory then, but it was astonishing we did as well as we did. It was a matter of being defeated by a small margin than to have won, for the lastly in the past would have continued its direful work.

Norwich is a beautiful city, but we can't maintain it unless we have a saloon stays, with its lawlessness of the past. Norwich must take and close the door of the open saloon and seal it with the seal of power.

Now we have this year $4 saloons, against $9 last year. There has been a decrease of five because of the remonstrances. The work of granting licenses was a little slow, not so fast as in other years, but they are out and to do the same business. We had hoped for fewer, for when 1920 voters, representing the best social and religious life of the city, had spoken their minds it was considered reasonable to expect those in authority would cut down the number. They have the authority. The authority lies entirely in the hands of the county commissioners. There may be appeals from their decisions, but it is highly improbable that the court would reverse their decision. They had the power, and after petitions from those wanting better condition, might have heeded the demand.

We have discovered what a hold the saloon has on the citizens of Norwich. We have discovered that it is no easy task to overthrow it, but the sentiment back of the 1920 voters will be heard—I give you that prophecy—it will be heard in the Town hall.

The people of the United States are a long suffering people and can stand much, but when they become convinced that a thing is wrong they will do all they have rather than be overcome. The sentiment of the 1920 was not that they believed in prohibition or a third party, but that conditions in Norwich were such that they wanted them corrected. The conditions centered in saloons.

OLICE BUSY DURING MONTH OF FEBRUARY. Eighty-Four Were Taken in Twenty-Eight Days—$228.65 Paid in Fines and Costs.

The police had a fairly busy month during February, having made the average number of arrests, the number being 84. The arrests were made for the following reasons: Intoxication $9, breach of peace 28, resisting officer 8, loitering on sidewalk 4, frequenting gambling house 7, non-support, violating liquor law, insane, vagrancy, failing to send child to school, gambling, one each.

There were 23 who paid fines and costs amounting to $228.65, while 37 were committed to jail. There were 5 discharged, 11 complaints nolleed with or without costs, 2 were taken away, 6 were continued and one took an appeal.

There were five on Sunday and those cases will come up for trial this morning.

There were 414 lodgers at police station during February, while the police found 20 doors unlocked and made them secure.

$90,000 BOG MEADOW PROJECT IS ABANDONED. Board of Water Commissioners Did Not Agree—Will Ask for $20,000 to Rebuild Present Dam, Which Leaks.

The board of water commissioners met at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the city office in city hall for an adjourned meeting from Friday night and held a two hour session, as the result of which the $90,000 project for Bog meadow was abandoned and will not be presented to the council tonight. In its stead the board will ask for an appropriation of $20,000 for the rebuilding of the present dam, which is leaky and not what it should be.

It was felt by the board that such a sum as $90,000 should not be spent now for the proposed work, it being considered too large, and as another proposition the rebuilding of the present dam will be asked for.

The present dam is not considered safe and in fact consists of only a small amount of masonry and gravel. It does not hold water without leaking and if it is intended to hold water can be secured at Bog meadow something must be done. It is believed that the sum of $20,000 will allow for the building of a core wall and the rebuilding necessary to furnish a dam like Fairview for all present needs and leave it so that it could be added to if deemed wise later and if necessary buy what land is necessary for flowage. That was unanimously voted by the board and will go to the council.

TEA AT HALL CLUB. The afternoon tea at the Halle club Sunday was one of the largest in some time and delightful for all attending. Those serving were Miss Bessie A. Grimes, pres; Mrs. Edith Whiting, Helen Crowe, Jennie Sheridan and Mary Kane. There were vocal solos during the afternoon by Miss Dora Aubrey, Miss Bertha Woodmansee and Miss Della Woodmansee, and a violin and piano duo finely rendered by the little Misses Whaley.

Miss Edith Whiting the directress, made announcement of the expected visit Sunday of Miss Jean Hamilton, field secretary of the International League of Women Workers, and the beginning of the three new classes in cooking, millinery, and tailoring was also announced.

PICTURES OF GROUPS IN PLAY. Some of the groups in the recent production of The Garden Party by the Halle club and Open House have recently had their pictures taken. Among them are the Big Chief Battle Axe chorus and the How'd You Like to Like chorus.
