VISITORS FLOCKING TO WASHINGTON.

Military, Civic and Other Organizations Arriving from Every Point of the Compass—The City in Holiday Garb—Army of Keen-Eyed Detectives Stationed at Points of Arrival to Keep Sharp Watch for Crooks.

Washington, March 1.—The national capital is the mecca toward which the inaugural hosts are making their pilgrimage. The advance guard of the throngs which quizzically visit Washington to witness the induction into office of a new president began today in earnest.

Music Everywhere. From every point of the compass every train and steamboat arriving in Washington was burdened with human, several military, civic and other organizations being represented. The arrival of the advance guard of the throngs which quizzically visit Washington to witness the induction into office of a new president began today in earnest.

Extraordinary precautions are being taken by the authorities to prevent inauguration visitors from loss by pickpockets and thieves. An army of keen-eyed detectives have been placed to keep a sharp watch out for unwelcome intruders.

SPEAKER CONSTANTLY FOUNDED HIS GAVEL. Scenes of Great Confusion in the House—Forest Reserve Bill Passed by Bare Majority of Ten.

Washington, March 1.—By transacting its business today amid scenes of great confusion, the house of representatives manifested that the present congress is drawing to a close. To maintain even a semblance of order, the speaker was constantly pounding his gavel and admonishing members to cease conversation.

After two hours of stormy debate the so-called "antiquarian and white mountain forest reserve bill," amended so as to apply its provisions to all states was passed by a vote of 157 to 107.

By the terms of the bill the national forest reservation commission is created for the purpose of acquiring by purchase or otherwise the lands needed to promote or protect the navigability of streams on whose watersheds they are situated.
