WESTERLY'S CHIEF OF POLICE

Identifies Horse Thief as William Albert Keyser, of Stoughton, Mass.—Mrs. Herbert P. Clark Gives St. Patrick's Masquerade Whist—Dilatory Soldiers Arrested—Shannock Entertainment of St. Michael's Parish—Briggs-Miner Marriage.

Ever since the arrest of the noted horse thief who gave his name as William Albert Keyser, and who has at least 74 thefts to his credit, Chief of Police Bransfield has been endeavoring to learn the correct name of the thief, and has finally succeeded.

Mrs. Herbert Pomeroy Clark gave a St. Patrick's masquerade whist at her home in Grove avenue, Wednesday evening.

At the request of the commanding officer at Fort Mansfield, two soldiers, Fishery and Terhune, was taken to the police station by Chief Bransfield.

The usual festivities given under the auspices of the local societies on the night of St. Patrick's day were omitted by reason of the shamrock entertainment given in the basement of St. Michael's church.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

About Francis Alexander.

A member of the family writes The Bulletin: Will you kindly allow me to correct, through your paper, a few mistakes in the interesting article on the Francis Alexander, contributed by your Putnam correspondent, and printed in today's Bulletin?

Francis Alexander was the son of Neil (not William) Alexander, and was born in Killingly in 1850, the youngest brother of Col. William Alexander (who, by the way, had no middle name), and was, therefore, the uncle, not the brother, of Luther D. Alexander.

It was a chilly St. Patrick's day, with cold blasts from the west, and snowsqualls at frequent intervals, and with hardly a ray of sunshine throughout the day. In fact there was nothing to indicate even springtime, still the open summer cars were operated on the Watertown Valley trolley road.

There were many wearers of the green in Westery Wednesday, and the American flag was at the masthead in front of the High school building.

It is hinted in the Parvateck end of the town that L. D. Fairbrother is to be chosen deputy judge of the town court of Stonington, to fill vacancy caused by the death of E. Couche.

Polig Briggs of Providence, formerly of Westery, and Miss Mary Burrows Miner of Mystic were married last Wednesday in Providence. The fact has just been announced in Westery. The ceremony took place at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church.

Senator Louis W. Arnold of Westery has introduced an act to exempt from taxation all municipal bonds, notes and certificates of indebtedness issued after April 1 of this year, and also to exempt deposits in savings banks and similar institutions invested in such securities.

William H. Van Horn returned to Willimantic Tuesday, after a brief visit with friends in town.

Abraham Elgart was in New Haven Tuesday.

William Chantley of Salem was a caller here Tuesday.

There was a large crowd at the auction held at Michael Levin's place on Lebanon avenue Wednesday. Mr. Levin has sold his store and residence. There was a large amount of goods and stock sold. Charles F. Brown, auctioneer, kept the crowd in good spirits.

Mr. Emeline Ransom left Tuesday for Atlantic City, where she will be the guest of friends for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles King have returned from a few days' stay in New York.

Mrs. Julius Phelps of Westchester was in town Tuesday.

David Shea returned Tuesday from Hartford.

Rev. George J. Donahue of Stafford Springs preached a Lenten sermon in St. Mary's church in East Hartford on Tuesday evening.

A new set of maps has been placed in each of the schools in the Lull and Patten districts.

The social and supper in the Congregational chapel was well attended Wednesday evening.

John Sena is contemplating an addition to his Main street block, in order to make more room for the Gem theater.

Work on the interior of the new Conversa block, on Main street, is rapidly progressing, and the stores will be ready for occupancy within a few weeks.

It may be taken for granted that the state police is not going to be wiped out for the present, and that if it ever is it will be for reasons other than that it devotes its time mainly to the suppression of gambling, and the illegal sale of liquor.

It doesn't always do these things without smirching itself, but so far as evidence goes there is nothing upon which to base a belief that the hum is of a permanent nature.
