

Signs of the Season

Strawberries, Asparagus, String Beans, Water Cress, Dandelions, Vegetable Salads, Ferns, Peas, Oatman Oranges, Camembert Cheese, Lamb, Chicken, Veal, Broilers, Turkey, Squabs, Tongues, Capons.

Somers Bros.

PAINT PAINTERS' SUPPLIES OF ALL KINDS AT FRED C. CROWELL'S, 87 Water Street.

Geo. R. Harris, M. D. Physician and Surgeon

With O. F. HARRIS, 31 B'way. Office hours—1 to 10 a. m., 4 to 8 p. m.

Fine Tailoring SWANN'S

Everett F. Goodwin Piano tuning, voicing, regulating and repairing. Satisfaction guaranteed.

We have just received a large shipment of Park & Tiltford's genuine Key West Cigars

THE PARKER-DAVENPORT CO., Proprietors, Norwich, Conn.

MARY P. CLAPP announces a Spring Opening and Sale of Art Embroideries, Materials and Novelties, April 1st and 2nd.

WELCOME THE NEW ARRIVAL of another joyous season—the glad springtime. But arrivals new or old we're always on hand with satisfactory Wines and Liquors and quick service.

GEORGE GREENBERGER

Quick Deliveries

Lang's Dye Works, 157 Franklin Street.

The Bulletin

Norwich, Tuesday, March 30, 1909.

VARIOUS MATTERS.

Springlike weather on Monday. Garden and flower seeds are selling. The Old Farmer's almanac threatens snow today.

Ascension lilies begin to appear in the window decorations.

Merchants find their early spring trade most encouraging.

Early risers and late workers welcome the ever-lengthening days.

Some of the Easter cards and booklets are veritable works of art.

Many plowed fields are noticeable on the line of the Montville trolley.

Good weather pleases the shoe dealers, as it means a demand for natty footwear.

Pleasant days increase the number of visitors to the Slater museum and to the park.

A day of sunshine brings out the reports and their youthful passengers in large numbers.

The new trolley schedule on the Norwich-Montville road is to go into effect on April 1st.

The Monday evening dancing class had its final dance for the season last evening at Miller's.

Owners of pines note that the recent wind storms have stripped the trees of cones as rarely happens.

The storm of last week is stated to have caused the highest tide of any in eight years. Much damage has been done along the shores.

At the fellowship meeting at the Road church, Stonington, on Wednesday, the sermon will be preached by the Rev. E. S. Worcester of Norwich.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society and St. Anne's temperance society will receive Holy Communion in a body, at St. Patrick's church at the 7.30 o'clock mass, on Sunday morning.

The next annual convention of the Northeastern Dental association will be held in Providence next October.

The largest and most thoroughly representative gathering ever held in New England is expected by the committee.

The number of persons losing their lives by drowning in southern New England is larger than usual this year, owing to the mild weather and poor ice.

Of the 50 deaths reported, 28 were those of children 15 years of age and under.

The prayer chain has reached Bridgeport and is calling forth the usual protest. The United States postal authorities have forbidden the mails to all endless chain schemes, and such a letter will not be carried through the postoffice if its contents are known.

The Sullivan brothers who were at Lincoln, Conn., last summer, last dancers and singers of the first order, have been covering the middle states this winter, gradually working their way east from Chicago, and are at a Western vaudeville house this week. There are four of them.

Although there has been plenty of opportunity in the north to cut ice, the dealers, recognizing the fact that there is bound to be a demand from southern New England, have boosted the price, so that the dealers are paying at wholesale about four times what the ice could be bought for last year.

A Westminister correspondent writes: Mr. and Mrs. Edmondson, a very old couple, were robbed last Sunday night of 12 hens and two roosters, depriving them of their source of living. The police are requested to be on the lookout as the property will probably be taken a distance as the thieves had a horse and wagon.

BIDS FOR WORK AT BOG MEADOW.

Six Contractors Submit Figures, but the Water Board Takes Them Under Consideration.

On Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock the bids for the work at Bog meadow where a new dam is to be constructed were opened before the board of water commissioners and several contracts were awarded. There were six bids submitted, but the commissioners decided not to give out any of the figures.

The contract was not awarded, the commissioners holding the matter over for consideration at a meeting of the board on Friday evening, there being a number of features which they wish to discuss before deciding upon the contract.

BUYS PORTION OF FARNUM PROPERTY.

Ellery C. Coolidge of Cambridge Secures an Undivided Third from A. L. Hooley's Estate.

William H. Hooley and Burton Mansfield, trustees of the estate of Amelia E. Hooley of New Haven, have sold to Ellery C. Coolidge of Cambridge all of the rights of Mrs. Hooley, an undivided third in the Farnum property in Water street, including the right to the Farnum Yacht Club. The purchase price was about $5,000.

Revival at First Baptist.

The revival service at the First Baptist church Monday evening was devoted to the Sunday school. An interesting exercise of songs, responsive readings and prayer, conducted by Supt. C. Fowler occupied the first half of the hour, after which Dr. H. E. Higgins took an impressive chair talk upon "The Pathway of Life, and the choice all are called upon to make between the straight gate and narrow way and the broad way leading to eternal ruin and misery. The Scripture basis for which is recorded in Matt. 7: 13, 14. Tonight he will speak upon The Demand of the Moment.

SCORES AT 500.

Contest at Colonial Club With Dr. Higgins in the Lead.

There was a delightful evening at the Colonial club on Monday, when the 5th annual 500 score match was held. There was no change in the position of the players. Dr. H. E. Higgins being still in the lead. The scores are as follows: Higgins 27,250, Lewis 23,650, Roy Washburn 24,110, Lamb 23,710, Davis 21,350, Oat 19,580, Sharnam 19,940, Winsker 18,250, R. B. Washburn 17,540, Piersen 17,430, H. Washburn 17,400, Winters 16,860, McLaughlin 16,850, Williams 16,840, Smith 16,830, Brown 16,820.

PERSONAL.

Conrad S. Schultz of Westbury was in Norwich on Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Kane has returned from a week spent visiting in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Talbot are visiting their daughter in New York this week.

Charles P. Corcoran of Norwich has been in Westbury, the guest of Elmer Flynn.

John Bennett and John McLeon of Norwich were visiting friends in Westbury recently.

Michael Carroll, who is now employed in Northampton, spent Sunday at his home in this city.

George Pickering of Norwich has been visiting at the home of his parents on East avenue, Westbury.

George H. Spicer of Ashaway came to Norwich Monday morning for a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Crowell.

NOTED AT THE OPENINGS.

Favored Hues and Shapes in Spring-tide Millinery—Dainty Finery and Elegant Gowns.

Rose and catwax shades are favored.

Some of the prettiest of the dainty hats are of Tuscan braid.

The parasollette holds its own. Forget-me-nots are among the season's favorite flowers.

For traveling and morning wear an elegant line of tailored hats is offered. To complement the modish headwear are beautiful gowns in the fashionable coral, wistaria and blue and white.

Director and empire costumes are equally admired.

The beauty of the three-piece suits appeals to all shoppers.

Tailored suits and the satin tailored waists were never more elegant.

Are you looking for Easter finery in the latest models and of pleasing prices? Consult The Bulletin's advertisements today.

WEDDING.

Anderson—Johnson.

P. B. Anderson, United States consul to Calabar, Cuba, and Miss Anne Regina Johnson of No. 88 William street, Hartford, formerly of this city, were married Saturday afternoon at the bride's home in Hartford. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Maurice Stowe of New York city at 3 o'clock in the presence of a small party of relatives. Frank Leonard Johnson, a brother of the bride, was best man, and Miss Ellen V. Johnson, the bride's sister, was bridesmaid. The wedding dress was white messaline, directoire, cut on train. The bride wore a veil caught with lilies of the valley and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. She wore diamonds, a present from the bridegroom. The bridegroom was a catwax directoire and she wore a hat with jet trimmings and alpacas. The house was decorated with palms and Easter lilies. A reception followed.

Owing to a change in plans the wedding took place Saturday and the bridal party left immediately for Washington and then on to Cuba, where they will be at home at an American consulate, Calabar, Cuba, after May 1. Mr. Anderson is a lawyer from Pennsylvania and in connection with his government position in Cuba has a sugar and banking business. Both Mr. and Mrs. Anderson have been well remembered by their friends, retaining many handsome wedding presents.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Vaudeville and Motion Pictures.

TWO COURTS IN SESSION

Busy Times for the Superior and Common Pleas Courts with Civil Business—Decisions by Judge Wheeler.

With the court of common pleas sitting in the main court room in the county court house at New London, Monday morning, the superior court held a session in the Judge's room, which opens out of the main court room. Judge Wheeler in this improvised court room heard the arguments in the demurrers in the cases of William Hoxie vs. New Haven road and Judge Wheeler in this improvised court room heard the arguments in the demurrers in the cases of William Hoxie vs. New Haven road and Judge Wheeler in this improvised court room heard the arguments in the demurrers in the cases of William Hoxie vs. New Haven road.

The afternoon session of the court moved into the main court room, common pleas having adjourned, and the case of Mrs. Beesie A. Heath vs. Charles H. Heath, the Colchester case in which Mrs. Heath claims non-support and uses for alimony, was continued.

The Health case was not completed on Monday, and was continued until Thursday, when it is expected it will be finished.

Today court comes in for Salter's appeal from county commissioner, and the unfinished divorce case of Elizabeth Cochrane vs. William L. Cochrane.

Judge Ralph Wheeler has returned decisions in three cases, granting divorce and sustaining demurrer. All three matters were heard at the short calendar session of court last Friday. Judge Wheeler reserving decision.

Nettie S. Crandall of Leyard is granted a divorce from Caleb W. Crandall for her petition for divorce to the amount of $500. This case was an uncontested divorce case, and was carried Saturday afternoon at the court when Mrs. Crandall told a story of cruel treatment. The story was corroborated by her daughter, a pretty girl in a school teacher in the Groton schools.

The custody of the children is given Mrs. Crandall. The estate of the husband is found to be $1,000 and from this amount the alimony is fixed at $500. The date for payment of this amount is set at two weeks from Monday last.

Oliver M. Watrous is no longer obliged to "honor and obey" Ernest Wheeler, for her petition for divorce is granted by Judge Wheeler. Mrs. Watrous resides in Leyard, where her husband also makes his home, although not with her. In this case also intolerable cruelty was the ground. Judge Wheeler made no provision for the children in granting the divorce, an order of the probate court of Leyard the children were some time ago placed in Mrs. Watrous' care as guardians.

In the case of Yennan, administrator vs. Hill the demurrer of Attorney B. E. Hewitt, counsel for Yennan, is sustained.

The common pleas court was in session at New London on Monday for the trial of one case.

BOOKS ON INDUSTRIES.

Many at Otis Library Relate to Many in Norwich.

The following list of books in the Otis library relate principally to some of the largest industries of Norwich. It is hoped that, notwithstanding the expense, other books may be added, as several shown in this list may be desirable.

Textile Fabrics—General Works. Chamberlain, J. F. How We Are Clothed; A Geographical Reader, 1905.

Dodge, C. R. Descriptive Catalogue of the United States Textile Industry, 1897.

Fiber and Fabric; A Record of Textile Industries in the United States. Wilson Trade Vols. 40-48. 1904 to date.

Franz, G. S. Principles of Dyeing, 1903.

Howey, J. L. American Textile Machinery, 1879.

History of Silk, Cotton, Linen, Wool and Other Fibrous Substances, 1845.

Morris, William. Textile Fabrics. In His Architecture, Industry and Wealth, pp. 133-184. 1908 to date.

Todd, M. P. Hand Loom Weaving; A Manual for School and Home, 1902.

Williams, A. How It is Made.

Baskets.

First, Annie. Cane Basket Work, 1899.

Lames, J. How to Make Indian and Other Baskets, 1902.

Morse, Mary T. V. Basket Making, 1901.

White, Mary. How to Make Baskets, 1901.

More Baskets and How to Make Them, 1902.

Paper.

Butler, F. O. The Story of Paper-Making, 1901.

Clapperton, G. Practical Paper-Making, 1907.

Craze, W. Bases of Design, 1902.

Cross, C. P. and Bevan, E. J. Text-book of Paper-Making, 1900.

Wool and Silk.

Brockett, L. P. The Silk Industry in America, 1878.

Ellwanger, W. D. The Oriental Rug, 1902.

Langton, M. B. How to Know Oriental Rugs, 1904.

Nichols, W. C. Cotton Company, Silk; Its Origin, Culture and Manufacture, 1898.

Priestman, H. Principles of Worsted Spinning, 1907.

Stimmons, P. L. Animal Products. For Wool and Woolen Manufactures. See pp. 13-19.

Wheeler, C. How to Make Rugs, 1902.

Cotton.

Hevlin, H. B. Cotton Weaver's Handbook, 1908.

Marsden, R. Cotton Weaving; Its Development, Principles and Practice, 1902.

Rochelle, W. F. Great American Industries, Vol. 2.

Sansone, A. Printing of Cotton Fabrics, Comprising Calico, Rieaching, Printing and Dyeing, 1887.

Shepperson, A. B. Cotton Facts, 1906.

Taggart, W. S. Cotton Spinning, 2 vols., 1898-1897.

P. S. Consular Reports. Cotton Textiles in Foreign Countries, 1930.

White, W. H. The Cotton Industry in Slavery, With a History of the Rise and Progress of Cotton Manufacture in England and America, 1838.

Wilkinson, F. Story of the Cotton Plant, 1899.

Young, T. M. The American Cotton Industry, 1907.

Designs.

Dry, L. F. Pattern Design, 1903.

Lilly, A. E. V. and Midgley, W. Book of Studies in Plant Form. With Some Suggestions for Their Applications to Design, 1896.

Nisbet, H. Grammar or Textile Design, 1908.

Sansone, A. A Old Time Wall Paper, 1903.

Smith, A. & Sons' Carpet Company. (Portfolio of Rug Designs).

Peiris, W. M. P. Egyptian Decorative Art, 1895.

Four New Members.

The Carpenters' union received four new members Monday evening at its regular meeting in Chamberlain's hall in the Lucas building. The routine business was transacted and the meeting was a short one.

BAD STOMACH

Many in Norwich are Being Thoroughly Purified by Mi-o-na, the Guaranteed Cure for Indigestion.

People of Norwich who suffer from dyspepsia and other stomach troubles are getting tired of taking preparations containing opium, because opium simply digests the food artificially. Opium relieves, it never cures.

And remember, opium only digests animal food; it has no effect on starchy food, such as potatoes, rice, bread, etc. Mi-o-na cleanses and purifies the stomach and bowels, and tones up and puts energy into the stomach walls, so that they properly mix the food with the natural digestive juices of the stomach.

Mi-o-na tablets quickly arouse the stomach from its inaction, and in a few days it is able to do its work easily and without exertion. There will be no more sour stomach, fermentation of food, dizziness, sick headache, belching of gas, or foul breath.

Mi-o-na only costs 50 cents a large box, and is guaranteed by The Lee & Osgood Co. to cure dyspepsia, sea or car sickness, vomiting of pregnancy, and stomach sickness resulting from over-indulgence of the night before, or money back.

The plaintiff was James N. Reed and the defendant was the defendant. Reed claims that after he and Mrs. Simmons left the employ of the New England Navigation Co., where they were in the steward's department of one of the New York boats, they went to New Haven, where Mrs. Simmons secured such quota as the place of business known as the Dixwell hotel. She engaged Reed as manager and chef, agreeing to pay him $15 a week. Mrs. Simmons, according to Reed, paid him only a little and he now sues for $270.

Mrs. Simmons' defense is that the place was conducted by Reed and herself and that Reed shared in the profits. A contract signed by Mrs. Simmons by which Reed was to receive $15 a week was introduced as evidence, but Mrs. Simmons said that she signed this only when Reed with a razor threatened her if she refused.

The stories of the witnesses for the plaintiff and those for the defendant differed in every detail. Reed said that the contract was signed by Mrs. Simmons of her own free will. He denied being one of the owners, the menus, cards and stationery of the Dixwell hotel were introduced to show that they had provided for Reed, proprietor, James Reed, manager. Reed said in his testimony that he handed over the proceeds each day to Mrs. Simmons.

Mrs. Simmons' defense is that the place was conducted by Reed and herself and that Reed shared in the profits. A contract signed by Mrs. Simmons by which Reed was to receive $15 a week was introduced as evidence, but Mrs. Simmons said that she signed this only when Reed with a razor threatened her if she refused.

The case was brought into the court by a colored lawyer, Attorney George W. Crawford of New Haven. Attorney Crawford was original in his questioning of the witnesses and laid a foundation for the case. Mrs. Reed asked a question. Mrs. Reed asked the question and launched off into an irrelevant story. Crawford was told to stop and Crawford said that he was unable. With a sigh, he said: "Well, if you want to get it out of your system, go ahead, and he waited until the case was over and then he left. Crawford and Mrs. Reed had a tilt over the question as to whether they had provided for Reed, proprietor, or not. Mrs. Reed admitted that she had her husband before the New Haven city court for non-support.

The case of the case was the evident ill feeling between the families and sympathizers of the plaintiff and defendant. They were drawn up in separate sections at the court room and while not testifying glared defiance at one another.

The case of the case was the evident ill feeling between the families and sympathizers of the plaintiff and defendant. They were drawn up in separate sections at the court room and while not testifying glared defiance at one another.

The court of common pleas will come in here this morning with the jury in the case of Avery vs. White. There are several more witnesses to be called in this case.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

Mrs. Marguerite Almy of Washington street visiting in Rye, N. Y., and in New York city.

Mrs. I. P. Taft of West Upton, Mass., formerly of Norwich, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. James Moore of Williams street.

Mrs. Marion Bishop, who has been spending several months with school friends in the west and with her sister in Elmira, N. Y., has returned to her home on Broadway.

AN INCENDIARY AT MOOSUP.

A Plan to Burn Salisbury Business Block Frustrated.

An attempt was made on Sunday night at 11 o'clock to burn the Salisbury block at Moosup. The incendiary broke into the cellar and laid a fuse from the furnace to a pile of straw 50 feet away, and was warranted in expecting that the property would be destroyed. Mrs. Adams, who occupied the upper tenement, was annoyed by the smoke, but could get no track of the source of it. The fuse did not work and the criminal scheme failed. The block is occupied by stores, clubs and families and is in the center of the crowded business quarter of the village, and the fire followed the fuse to the straw, as was planned, a large loss must have resulted from the fire. It was fortunate that the design of the incendiary did not prove to be successful.

Carried about the person, or hoarded in the house, encourages extravagance; is a temptation to the dishonest and is always wrong in principle, for it keeps just so much money.

OUT OF CIRCULATION

Bank your cash and use a checking account. By so doing you increase the working assets of this community.

Dr. Nehemiah Perry, who was a native of Norwich and 70 years old. He at one time conducted a boarding house in Norwich, and was for a number of years pastor of St. Paul's church, Norwich, being rector emeritus at his death. He was a member of the church, East Norwich. He was one of God's noblemen and truly can it be said that the world was better for his having lived.

Dr. Nehemiah Perry.

The funeral of Dr. Nehemiah Perry, who died at Boxwood cottage, Fairfield, was largely attended. He was born in Ridgefield, Conn., in 1838, and was educated under Professor Banks. He studied and practiced medicine and surgery with his father, when he received his medical certificate from the state. He was one of a noted line of doctors. His grandfather, Dr. David Perry, died in 1872. Dr. Perry was a field, where he practiced medicine for fifty years. He was succeeded by his son, Dr. Nehemiah Perry, second, in 1893. He retired from practice, owing to declining health. Dr. Perry was a lineal descendant of Richard Perry, a lawyer of New Haven in 1837. He was a friend of Lord Howe and Washington, as historically stated. Dr. Perry's contemporaries have all passed away. In the sea-air of Fairfield he found a tonic that brought back his strength. His unblemished life, dignity of character, and unflinching courage, marked him as "one of the noble men."

Dr. Perry was a brother of Mrs. Henry Ruggles of this city.

LOOKING FOR TURNOUT.

One Belonging in New London Disappears from Montville.

A horse belonging to Billings Crandall of New London is being searched for by sheriff and constables Sunday night the animal disappeared from Montville, where it had been driven by Mr. Crandall's son, Robert. It is not known whether the animal was stolen or whether the horse strayed along the highway and was picked up by some one.

Young Crandall drove to Montville to call at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Killeen. The animal was hitched to a wagon and started for home. When Crandall was ready to start for home the horse and wagon were missing.

The animal is a bay horse, stands about 15 hands high and weighs close to 1100 pounds. A combination surrty was attached to the horse.

SPECIAL

At the Mill Remnant Store, 201 West Main Street, a lot of Fancy Silks for evening and wedding dresses, all colors, at low prices; also Latest Style Dress Goods, Suiting and Cotton Goods at half price. Come and see them.

MILL REMNANT STORE, 201 West Main Street.

JOHN BLOOM, Prop.

MILLINERY

See our handsome line of Spring Hats.

O'CONNOR'S, 275 Main Street, 2nd Floor, May Building.

Here are the Newest, Snappy, Smart Hats for Men, shown this season.

Our new lines (and they are all new) are the very best makes shown in the city.

Handsome lines of NECKWEAR for Easter.

SHIRTS that fit and are fit for everybody. No such patterns have been shown here, for they even excel the custom lines that cost double the price.

FANCY VESTS in new ideas.

FOWNES' GLOVES and FANCY HALF HOSE at

McPherson's 101 Main Street, City.

to which everyone is invited to visit and inspect the excellent line of Ladies' Hats ever shown here before. All the latest styles and prices are reasonable.

Trimings bought here will be put on hats free of charge.

The New York Millinery Store

MRS. H. SCHWARTZ, Prop.