Favors Consolidation of Districts

Principal Tirrell Believes It Would Be a Good Thing for Norwich and Recommended a Committee Be Named to Look It Up—Educational Matters Before Board of Trade—Enlargement of Academy Building.

The March meeting of the board of trade was favored with a large attendance on Wednesday evening at the Buckingham memorial, the large hall being well filled when President W. Cary called the meeting to order shortly after 8 o'clock.

After the report of the secretary had been read by H. W. Tibbitts and approved, President Cary explained that the Kickerbocker Manufacturing Co., which the board had expected to come here, had been obliged to go elsewhere as the Comstock building was not in condition to be occupied. He also stated that the public library committee had been at work on the Shannon corner changes, but inasmuch as Mr. Brown did not desire to sell and it would be necessary to get it by condemnation, it was decided to abandon the project. The new industrial committee has been doing much work, and as the result the Pace Co. is to retain its storehouse here, and the Franklin street property has been sold and a new factory will be erected there.

The following new members were elected: Frank Hemstead, James T. Crawford, Robert S. Bartlett, Louis M. Carpenter, Willis T. Rogers, H. W. Tibbitts, Charles E. Chandler, E. Beckwith, Patrick J. Cassidy, Ellis Raphael, George S. Draper, making the total membership 309.

LIFE'S TRUE STARTING POINT. Subject of sermon by Evangelist Luther at First Baptist Church.

Evangelist Luther's address at the First Baptist church Wednesday evening upon Life's True Starting Point, was a leading merchant of Springfield, N. C., by two expert doctors—one a lung specialist. Then was shown the danger of constipation and liver trouble. "After three weeks' use," writes Mr. Blevin, "he was as well as ever. I would not take all the money in the world for what I did for my boy." Infallible for coughs and colds, it's the safest, surest cure for constipation and liver trouble. 50c and $1.00. Lee & Osgood Co. guarantee satisfaction. Trial bottle free.

Swept Over Niagara. This terrible calamity often happens because a careless boatman ignores the river's warnings—growing ripples and faster current. Nature's warnings are kind. They gently caution or urge in the back waters you the kidneys need attention if you would escape fatal maladies—dropsy, diabetes or Bright's disease. Take Electric Bitters at once and see backache fly and all your best feelings return. "After long suffering from weak kidneys and lame back, one $1.00 bottle of Electric Bitters cured me. I. B. Blankenship of Belk, Tenn. Only 50c at Lee & Osgood Co.

Many a life, the speaker thought, had proved an utter failure, if not a downright curse, because of a failure to begin rightly; and many another had fallen far short of its possible achievement, because of the lateness of the hour in life's day when the true starting point was discovered and made the basis of action.

Multitudes said Mr. Luther, have sighed for a Pauline conversion, meaning that they would see a great light or pass through some unusual outward experience, and for lack of it have doubted the genuineness of their conversion, while those who have begun their daily conduct might be much improved without rivaling God's choice saints, roll as a sweet moral urge their most important point, the really vital thing; and the speaker was waiting to hear from all such a vote in favor of a surrender (what a surrender!) to Christ.

This total surrender to and endorsement of Christ was the true starting point for any life that would reach its highest development and usefulness here, and fullest and grandest fruition in the ages to come; a surrender that recognizes first, the kingdom of Christ (Lord); second, the individual obligation of the subject (Thou-me); third, the total character of the obligation (what a surrender!) and the practical character of the service (do).

Mr. Luther earnestly urged those present to thus start their lives right, if they had not already done so, and to do so at once.

The subject for this evening will be "If—and If Not."

LENTEN SERVICE HELD AT CHRIST CHURCH. Rev. C. J. Mason of Stonington Preached at Union Service.

The midweek united service for Lent for the Episcopal churches was held Wednesday evening at Christ church with a good number attending. The service for evening prayer was read by the rector, Rev. Nelson Fox Carey, assisted by Rev. Charles C. J. Mason, rector of Calvary church, Stonington, who was also the preacher for the evening.

For his text Rev. Mr. Mason chose John xvi. 31: I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. In an interesting way he developed the point that this text was taken from a sermon which he had preached at the first words before the crucifixion, in which Jesus was fixing the new relations to be established after His death. He said that we should be pointing to the resurrection. On G. W. W. he reads a readiness to impart, but he does not say that he is ready to receive His truth. An application of the text may be made to many historical facts in our history. The spirit of truth has brought to pass in a way that men could not have comprehended in advance. As instances, the discovery of the New World, the Russo-Japanese war, and also right at our own door the awakening conscience on those sins that are so prevalent among us, the divorce evil, child labor, poe, and the financial dishonesty in connection with the trusts. How could we have the spirit of truth, or another sermon from the mount upon these evils.

The Holy Spirit was never more irresistibly at work and speaking more heartily than at the present day. The risen Lord is still our Lord and "master" whose life and work we are to follow. Let us be awaiting, and let us listen in these resurrection times and at the end the Holy Spirit shall lead us into all truth.

Up Before the Bar. N. H. Brown, an attorney of Pittsfield, Vt., writes: "We have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for years and just those who have been cured of such ailments as constipation, biliousness or sick headache, these work wonders. 25c at Lee & Osgood Co."

Why Not Consolidate Here? Mr. Tirrell stated that the chief reasons he had found against consolidation here were that the people thought that the consolidation would be a waste of money and that it would be a waste of time. He said that the people here were not interested in the subject and that they would not support it
