

Lodge Notes and Fraternal Interests.

Neopian Lodge Organized in Groton—
New Lodge of Pythian Sisters.

The members of the New England Order of Protection gathered in good numbers in A. O. U. W. hall at Groton on Friday evening to witness the institution of a new lodge of the order by Supreme Warden Frederick T. Peabody, assisted by Supreme Trustee R. H. Small, Past Grand Warden F. H. Hill, Grand Warden F. H. Tolia, Grand Secretary J. Wall, Grand Chaplain Emily R. Kingston, Grand Trustee M. J. Foley and Supreme Representative James L. Wheeler. The new lodge will be known as Fort Griswold lodge, No. 453, and starts with a charter list of thirty members, of which twenty were present for initiation.

The officers elected were: L. P. warden, Jennie E. Morgan; warden, Mrs. Catherine Brown; vice warden, Frederick C. Chidsey; recording secretary, Walter Hanover; financial secretary, Walter Wainwright; treasurer, Irving Crouch; chaplain, Mrs. Carrie Harvey; guide, Edward Welch; guardian, Eugene Brown; sentinel, Peter Sanville; trustees, Frank Serph, Clinton D. Hanover, Trieman Howell.

This lodge starts off with very bright prospects, as the new members are very enthusiastic and will have the work of Beulah lodge of New London before them, where they have a lodge of 370 members and one of the most progressive in the order.

The institution of the new lodge is due to the good work of Washington Morgan and Mrs. Jennie Morgan, who reside in Groton and have been for years earnest and faithful members of Beulah lodge.

DEGREE OF POCAHONTAS.

The Neosha Whist club met with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kinne on Thames street, Tuesday afternoon and evening. A baked-bean supper was served. Whist was played in the evening with nine tables. The prizes were won by the following: First ladies, Mrs. Elmer Allen, vase (49); second, Mrs. Grace Thorp, glass pitcher (42); first gentlemen, Rufus D. Harris, thermometer (41); second, Robert McKiernan, call bell (38); consolation, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. H. Culver played as gentlemen.

The next one will be held with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Manchester on Tuesday afternoon and evening, April 20, at 47 Colt street, and on Monday evening, April 26, a whist will be held in Foresters' hall.

Next Monday evening 'Sebequonash' council, No. 11, is going on a visit to the council in New London which is planning to entertain a goodly number of the Norwich members. A fine time is anticipated and is promised by the New London people.

HEPTASOPHS.

The next meeting of Norwich conclave, No. 424, on Monday evening, will mark the opening of a new quarter and will be ushered in with a new member by one of the officers. The other officers have promised to fall in line and there will be a healthy increase in the membership if they are earnest in their determination to help out. As it is likely that the age limit will be reduced to 45 years at the next meeting of the supreme lodge, it is very imperative on members having prospective members near that limit to urge them to action before July 1.

AMERICAN MECHANICS.

There was an important meeting of Mantonome council, No. 30, Wednesday evening in Pythian hall, which was the regular meeting night. Councillor Fred M. Eisele presided and it was decided to have Tom Gilmore, state organizer, who succeeds the late Jonathan Osborn come here, for work in the interests of the council. It is felt that work can be done by him which will build it up to a more active condition than it is at present. State Organizer Gilmore is to come here next Wednesday, April 14, and there is to be a meeting that evening at the home of Treasurer Frank Q. Smith on Laurel Hill, when plans for the work will be talked over.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS.

Major R. S. Griswold command has received and accepted an invitation from Sedgwick post of the Grand Army to attend their camp fire next Friday evening at the Buckingham Memorial. As there will be no meeting of the command before then, postal card notices will be sent out to the members directing them to meet at the Armory on that evening so as to march to the Memorial with the two cavalry regiments, which are also invited.

The command is also at work through its committee, on plans for their social time with music and cards at the next meeting when all the men eligible to membership are to be invited with the idea of interesting them in the organization and securing their membership if possible.
