

ANOTHER WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Gardiner, Maine.—"I have been a great sufferer from organic trouble and severe female weakness. The doctor said I would have to go to the hospital, but I would not bear to think of it. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash—and was entirely cured after three months' use of them."—Mrs. S. A. WILLIAMS, R. F. D. No. 14, Box 39, Gardiner, Me.

No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made exclusively from roots and herbs, a fair trial. This famous medicine for women has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and renewer of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ill, and creates radiant, buoyant female health. If you are ill, for your own sake as well as those you love, give it a trial. Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

BE SURE YOU GET THE GENUINE

A Necessity Besides A Luxury Especially during warm weather is this delightful soap. It's a skin soap. Because, good for the skin, it is peculiarly in a class of its own in these days where many preposterous claims of efficiency are made for what are after all only ordinary and often harmful soaps. Sulpho-Naphthol Soap is delightfully emollient, cleansing, healing and above all curative and preventative. It is a wonderful germ killer. Sulpho-Naphthol Soap keeps the skin soft and white, prevents the corrosive effect of excessive perspiration, overcomes skin affections and prevents infection where the skin has been bruised or broken.

Burdick, are the representatives of the Westchester Ward chapter, Westchester, at the Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which convenes in Washington today (Monday). The other delegates from Rhode Island are: Mrs. Charles Warren Lippitt, state regent; Mrs. William R. Thibault, alternate; Mrs. James A. Naylor, Mrs. George S. Baker, Mrs. Walter S. Frost, Mrs. Thomas W. Aldrich, Mrs. Frank Chaffee, Miss Grace Slocum, Gaspee chapter, Providence; Mrs. Charles A. Stearns, Miss Anna Whitney, Mrs. Edward Darling, Miss Claribel Crandall, Pawtucket chapter; Mrs. T. W. Berry, Mrs. Erminie Matthews, Miss Maybell Stanley, Flintlock and Powder Horn chapter, Pawtucket; Mrs. Daniel Edwards, Miss Edwards, Woonsocket chapter; Mrs. Nathan B. Dixon, Bristol chapter; Mrs. Edith M. Wiley, Mrs. J. A. Barber, William Ellery chapter, Newport.

There were several from Westery in the audience that witnessed the production of A Noble Outcast by the Union Dramatic company, composed of local amateurs, at Ashaway, Saturday evening. The drama was in four acts. The cast of characters was as follows: Gerald Weston, known as Jerry, the tramp; Charles Austin, Jr., Colonel Lee, a southern banker; Nathan Turner, James Blackburn, his nephew; George Wright, Jack Washington, Blackburn's rival; Charles Austin, Sr.; Mrs. Lee, wife of the colonel; Flora Gray, Frances, a disputed possession; Lulu; Sadie, faithful, but free, Marion Daly.

Charles Wesley Hamilton, who died suddenly last week in Boston, was known in Westery as brother of Rev. J. Benson Hamilton, D. D., pastor of Grace Methodist church about fifteen years ago. He was also brother of Bishop John W. Hamilton and Rev. Franklin Hamilton, chancellor of the American university, Washington. Another brother is Edward W. B. Hamilton, treasurer of the Massachusetts normal art school. Rev. J. Benson Hamilton attracted large congregations to the Westery Methodist church when he was pastor here. He selected subjects for his sermons that bordered on the sensational and thereby aroused public interest. He not only preached ardent sermons, but was also a fine baritone singer and accomplished organist, and combined preaching, singing and organ manipulation at the church services. He was a zealous Christian worker and was deservedly popular with the people of Westery. His brother, Charles Wesley Hamilton, was a frequent visitor and had many acquaintances in Westery.

The Christian Endeavor society of Westery and vicinity will have a union meeting next Tuesday evening in the Seventh-Day Baptist church in Ashaway. It is expected that there will be an attendance of at least 300 members. The address will be made by Rev. Edward S. Nimds, pastor of the Matthews Street Methodist church in Providence. The meeting is being arranged for by Charles J. Dutton, president of the Westery union.

In the senate Friday morning a substitute act authorizing Cranston to issue bonds was discussed. Senator Latham of Cranston offered two amendments, providing that the bonds be exempt from taxation. He argued in defense of the fact that the state institution have children who are educated at the expense of the state. The bonds amount to $350,000 and according to Senator Latham should not be taxed. Senator Arnold of Westery, with a good-humored smile, said in reply to this: "The inmates of the state institutions have already got out things for the town of Cranston since they increased the population so much that they stole one of our Westery representatives from us."

The amendments were lost and the substitute act passed. William Ahearn, a New London plumber, is preparing to bring suit against a local contractor, through his bondsmen, to recover about $1,400 alleged to be due for labor and material furnished under a sub-contract for government construction work in Stonington. The contractor is Frederick A. Eldridge and the bondsmen are John T. Edmond and Warren Randall. It is stated that Mr. Eldridge has no right to sue in connection with the case, and that therefore suit will be brought on the bond, which is said to be amply secured.

Rev. Joseph L. Peacock, whose resignation was recently accepted as pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, is now in the city of Boston, where he is a new pastor, Rev. F. A. C. Jones, of Rochester, assumes charge, preached in the First Baptist church, Norwich, Sunday, in exchange with Rev. William T. Thayer. Next Sunday Rev. Mr. Peacock will exchange with Rev. C. W. Wright of the Central Baptist church, Norwich. Mr. Peacock is now librarian of the Westery public library.

The superior court for Washington county, April term, will open at West Kingston today (Monday), with prospects of a busy session. Five cases will be given to the grand jury on the opening day. The most important is that against "Albert Fuller" on the charge of stealing a horse and carting from Joseph T. Murphy of Westery about two months ago. He was arrested in Stamford, where examination in the Third district court in Westery county jail in default of bonds. "Fuller" has stolen at least seventy-three horses, according to his own memoranda, and he is wanted for horse stealing in Norwich and other places in Connecticut and in New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania. The grand jury will probably return an indictment this (Monday) afternoon and Fuller's trial will probably begin next Monday. Two embezzlement cases and two liquor nuisance cases will also be considered by the grand jury.

The divorce docket will be in order Tuesday. Besides the large number of old cases there are nine new cases. The petit jury will be called in Wednesday and there are ten cases assigned for trial. There are nine new civil cases and five new complaints on the civil docket. The petit jurors from Westery are Nathan Perry, George W. Hoxie, John H. Dougherty, Adam Archie, William B. Briggs, James McGill and Horace E. Piers, and on the grand jury are Abram L. Olmstead, George W. Austin, Alfred A. Stillman, Isaac H. Harvey and Nathan M. Barker.

Luther, the bright little son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dock, and who is a general favorite, met with painful injury in front of his home in High street Saturday afternoon. The little chap is just a bit reckless and while riding on his bicycle he made a quick turn and attempted to cross in front of the press team. He was struck by the horse, thrown from his bicycle. One of the horse's hooves struck the boy's body and two of the wagon wheels passed over his leg. The boy was thrown to the granite pavement and he received a cut in the forehead which rendered him semi-unconscious. He was carried to his home and at once a physician summoned. Besides the cut in the forehead the boy received several contusions and bruises, but luckily no serious injury resulted.

Search warrants for liquor were served Sunday morning on Oliver E. Gavit and Willis Almy, proprietors of drug stores in the Martin block. Attorney Harry R. Agard, especially employed by the police committee in liquor cases, issued the warrants. Chief Branfield, Policeman West and Constable Reardon visited the Almy store and at the same time Sergeant Brown and Policeman Holland called at the Gavit store. At Almy's store one quart bottle filled with whiskey and another quart bottle partially filled were found on the prescription counter. At Gavit's a quart bottle of whiskey was found at the soda fountain. These were seized and that was all the liquor that intoxicated that were found by the searching parties. In each store there was a government license for the sale of liquor.

Local Laocoonics. Benjamin Wiley of Bedford is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. John Kenyon, on the West Side.

Miss Estelle Murray has assumed her duties as nurse for the Westery Visiting Nurse's association.

Postmaster Price, with Mrs. Price and daughter, returned from a two weeks' visit in Washington Saturday.

Most Famous Female Seminary. The good fortune of Smith college in securing as president a man who has declined the presidency of the college from which he graduated shows that the woman's cause stands high in the estimation of those who elect to make education a career. Considering the comparative newness of these institutions, their growing popularity and prosperity are almost phenomenal.

The Oldest Automobile. Two years ago last November Boston was much interested in the arrival there of Mrs. F. D. Cottle, who at the age of 97 had made the journey from New York to that city in an automobile in company with her grandson. Very likely she would not have made that visit had it not been for the fact that her husband, who was a well-to-do man, was destroyed by fire and earthquake and that experience brought her to New York to live. Since that time she has become quite an expert automobile driver, and two days ago gave notice at the headquarters of the automobile carnival committee that she was a candidate for the honor of queen of the carnival parade against Annette Kellermann, the champion swimmer, and another stage lady, Mrs. Cottle celebrated her fiftieth birthday one month ago, but does not intend that the world shall move on and leave her.

Albanian Customs. Some strange customs exist in Albania. To compliment an unmarried woman, for instance, is provocation for death. A bloody enemy is under amnesty while in the company of a woman. A woman may shoot a fiance who breaks his betrothal or call upon the young man's father to kill him. If a man commits murder, and, flying for his life, enters the house of another, friend or foe, he is safe. This is the case, even if he takes refuge in the house of a brother of the man he has slain. He may not remain there forever; but for three days he can live on the best that the house provides. When that time is up, he is shown on his way. Twenty-four hours is given him to make his escape; after that the amnesty is over and the blood feud begins.—The Balkan Trail.

The Kitchen Floor. It is the general opinion that nothing is quite so satisfactory and cleanly as a bare kitchen floor which requires the time honored scrubbing with soap and water, and were it not for the labor of keeping such a floor they would be more generally in favor with housekeepers. The work of scrubbing may be greatly lightened by using in each pailful of water a solution made by dissolving a tablespoonful of Gold Dust washing powder in a small quantity of hot water. If this is used on the floor each week old stains which seemed quite hopeless will gradually fade away. It is also excellent for scrubbing stone steps and woodwork.

WHAT THE PAPERS SAY.

If the public utilities bill dies it does not in vain. It has at least unmasked its enemies. If the voters of this state are wise they will make a list of them—and let them look to the corporations they snuggle up to for all favors in the future. It is interesting to note that William Waldo Hyde, who has claimed democracy's banner as his own, has at last found congenial company among the enemies of the public utilities bill. Democracy is to be congratulated. Some of the recent desertions of self-appointed leaders is to the everlasting gain of that much-betrayed party.—Bristol Press.

"Unfavorable" is a favorite word with legislative committees. In most cases it is a wise decision. But if applied to the public utilities bill many of the members who take that position will find that when they come up for further political honors the voters have also learned the word "unfavorable."—Bristol Press.

Governor Lilley. Some of the best news of the day is coming from Governor Lilley's sick-room in Hartford. Here is a man who has been most viciously pursued by enemies and it is no wonder that his strength has not been equal to all his tasks. Had he fallen under them, the world would have lost a brave fighter. As it is, he bids fair to become well again, to confound all his traducers and to comfort all his friends.—Concord, N. H., Monitor.

Made In A Model Factory. P. & G. Naphtha Soap is made in the same factory as Ivory Soap. In point of completeness, cleanliness and beauty, the Ivorydale factories of The Procter & Gamble Co. have few equals and no superiors. It is there that Ivory Soap is made. There, also, P. & G. Naphtha Soap is manufactured. It is not necessary to tell you anything about Ivory Soap. You use it; and you know that for bath, toilet and fine laundry purposes, it is unequalled. The same thing is true of P. & G. [Naphtha Soap. For quick, easy washing, it is unequalled. The price of "P. & G." is higher than that of ordinary laundry soap; but as one cake will last longer and do more work than two cakes of ordinary soap, it pays to use it. 5 Cents—All Grocers.
