D. A. R. ELECTION.

Tellers Counting the Ballots—Work May Take Many Hours.

Washington, April 22.—There is suspense tonight among the Daughters of the American Revolution over the result of the election of a president-general and other officers today. The balloting began at 10 in the afternoon, and for the tellers are engaged in the prodigious task of counting the votes. This may take many hours and the possibility is that they will not be able to submit their report until morning.

Washington, April 22.—At 1 o'clock this morning Mrs. Donald McLean said that about two-thirds of the votes still remained to be examined.

It was agreed that the funeral should be as elaborate as the high station of the deceased called for, the wishes of the family and the religious and the final arrangements provide for the impressive funeral service of the deceased. The funeral will be held at St. John's church at 1.45. After the church service the line of march will be to the cemetery at Waterbury, where the Knights Templar will perform the funeral. During the service the church bells will toll for 45 minutes, the bells of St. John's church at 1.45. After the church service the line of march will be to the cemetery at Waterbury, where the Knights Templar will perform the funeral.

People to Abstain from Labor Five Minutes.

The body will be lowered to its last resting place at four o'clock, at which time the military and naval forces will be dismissed. The funeral will be held at St. John's church at 1.45. After the church service the line of march will be to the cemetery at Waterbury, where the Knights Templar will perform the funeral.

GENERAL ORDERS NO. 4.

Announcing the Military Bodies Serving to Escort Remains to Waterbury.

Waterbury, April 22.—Col. James Geddes tonight announced that the military bodies which will escort the remains here are the Second regiment, infantry, the First Separate company, C. N. G., the Second Signal, C. N. G., eight companies of the Coast Artillery, C. N. G., Troop of Cavalry, C. N. G., the Second division of the Naval militia. All the field and staff officers will be mounted.

General Orders No. 4, 1909.

In pursuance of special orders No. 63, A. G. O. (c. a.), the several organizations of this regiment are hereby ordered to assemble in their respective armories under arms and equipped in full dress uniform (white gloves), for one o'clock on Saturday morning, at the funeral of the late Governor George L. Lilley, commander in chief, in Waterbury, Saturday, April 24th, 1909.

CHAUNCEY P. GOSS, JR., Captain and Adjutant.

GEORGE T. JACKSON, Regiment Sergeant Major.

It is not known yet what line of march will be taken from the capitol to the depot to St. John's church. There is also much anxiety expressed here over the conditions at the railroad station. The next depot is not yet ready for occupancy and the temporary depot is far too small for the expected throngs of people which are expected. The funds which are in wreathed condition for a parade and an effort will be made to procure for removal to the capitol.

EMBLEMS OF MOURNING SEEN ON EVERY HAND.

Black and Purple Drapes Fronts of Hartford Buildings.

Hartford, Conn., April 22.—Emblems of mourning to show the grief of a state stricken by the loss of its chief executive, Gov. George L. Lilley, were being lowered to half staff on all buildings, both state and private, and business houses displaying their fronts in black and purple.

The new depot is not yet ready for occupancy and the temporary depot is far too small for the expected throngs of people which are expected. The funds which are in wreathed condition for a parade and an effort will be made to procure for removal to the capitol.

When Governor Weeks read the communication from the secretary he said: "I accept the office."

Judge Prentice then administered the oath of office to Governor Weeks. The oath was as follows: "You do solemnly swear that you will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of Connecticut so long as you continue a citizen thereof and that you will faithfully discharge and exercise according to law the powers and authority appertaining to the office of governor of the state of Connecticut until another be chosen at the next periodical election of governor, and be duly qualified, to the best of your ability, so help you God."

Fate of Sultan Connected with Legislature Within 24 Hours

ABDUL HAMID REMAINS PASSIVELY IN HIS PALACE. GENERAL ASSEMBLY NOTIFIED OF DEATH OF CHIEF EXECUTIVE.

COMPROMISE ARRANGED WITH CERTAIN INFLUENTIAL CONSTITUTIONALISTS—SULTAN MAKES MANY PROMISES—INVESTING ARMY CONCENTRATION.

Constantinople, April 22.—The Young Turks have won another victory over Sultan Abdul Hamid, but whether the sultan will remain as sovereign of the empire is yet undecided. The sultan has offered to place the affairs of government entirely in the hands of the ministers, provided that they will not be able to submit their report until morning.

Sultan Promises and Agrees. Tewfik Pasha, the grand vizier, arranged a compromise today with certain influential constitutionalists, and this was approved by the sultan personally. But he will not give up the military group to carry it into effect. Besides promising to withdraw himself from administrative activities, the sultan agreed to change the personnel of replacing of the Constantinople garrison and the troops guarding the palace and the son by troops from the corps which has practically been investing the city for four days.

Deposition Question Discussed. The chamber of deputies and some senators met today at San Stefano and are now discussing the question of the deposition of the sultan. The warships have gone to that place, and the military and naval forces are being concentrated at the constitutional party.

Army Investment Complete. Mamoud Schefek Pasha, commander of the Third army corps, has arrived at that place, and the concentration of the investing army is complete. Doubtless the next twenty-four hours will decide the fate of the sultan, who is residing passively at his palace, awaiting the issue.

EXTRA GUARDS OVER KIDNAPPER

Attempt at Suicide by Prisoner and at Release by Friends Frustrated

JAMES BOYLE SUDDENLY TAKEN ILL.

Found Lying on Cell Floor in Convulsions—Doctors Worked Over the Man for Hours—Attempt to Liberate the Abductor—Guards Found Twenty-Foot Ladder in Position at Cell Window.

Mercer, Pa., April 22.—The Mercer county authorities are greatly worried tonight over an alleged attempt by James H. Boyle, the Whitla kidnapper, to commit suicide, and later a well planned attempt by his friends to liberate him from the jail here. While both attempts were frustrated, their successful conclusion seems to have been averted by the narrow margin.

Boyle a Very Sick Man. Late today it was learned that early yesterday morning Boyle suddenly became ill. He was found on the floor of his cell in convulsions. Doctors were hurriedly summoned and worked over him for several hours. Boyle is a very sick man, but no danger of serious consequences is feared. Excitement is said to have been averted by the narrow margin.

Attempt at Liberation by Outsiders. A few minutes after last midnight a letter found on Boyle's person addressed to Sharon, Pa., in which he describes to parties not generally known the best way to effect his liberty. It is alleged Boyle wrote this letter some time ago, and it was found in the cell. The authorities are investigating the matter and developments are expected in Sharon. At nearly every hour Sheriff Chess is said to uncover suspicious traces of an attempted escape of Boyle, and for this reason extra guards are now on duty.

Sheriff Uncovers Suspicious Traces. A letter found on Boyle's person addressed to Sharon, Pa., in which he describes to parties not generally known the best way to effect his liberty.
