OPEN HOUSE CLUB CONSIDERING NEW ROOMS

May Get Quarters in Shannon Building—Reports of Interest Heard.

The president, Rev. Nelson Poe Carey, presided Thursday evening at the regular monthly meeting of Open House, held in the club rooms in the Thames Loan & Trust Co. building, and well attended.

The usual reports were made by Secretary Harry J. Brancha, Financial Secretary Everett R. Hayes, and Treasurer Grosvenor Ely. Chairman Charles G. Cobb for the entertainment committee reported that the Union Dramatic club had volunteered to put on their melodrama, "The Teaser," for the benefit of Open House, and the committee had accepted the proposal and arranged to have it produced next week in T. A. B. hall with scenery and social to follow.

The secretary was to send a written vote of thanks to the club. Manager Floyd Christman of the baseball team responded to an invitation to report on the status of the team which was in need of financial support from the club treasury to provide a ground and necessary paraphernalia for playing. Also that Louis Simola had been appointed by him as assistant manager. The baseball situation in the club was discussed at length, opinions both pro and con being expressed about supporting the team financially by a contribution at this meeting. It was finally voted that Manager Christman look up the cost of grounds, which he said he had in mind, and confer with the board of governors.

On motion it was voted to name a committee of five to consider the club's part in the coming 25th anniversary. A letter was read from Mr. and Mrs. Rodenbaugh offering to put on an orchestral musical extravaganza with a cast selected from Open House and the little club. The club was not ready to take action on this and the matter was laid over to the next meeting.

President Carey reported briefly that there was nothing definite to say at this time as to the plans of the club for new quarters for next year, but that the board of directors had been in conference with J. R. Shannon regarding club rooms in the new Shannon building, but there would probably be a full report made at the next monthly meeting of the club. The meeting adjourned at 9.20.

OBITUARY.

The only surviving relative of her immediate family is her sister, Mrs. Hiram Rogers of New London.

Miss Hurlbut has been in indifferent health for some time, suffering from heart trouble. On Sunday she went to the residence of Mrs. Browning and while there was taken ill. She was cared for at the time and remained in the house until her death.

As a child she spent a few years of her life in Westerly and later lived for a time in Greenfield, but most of her life has been spent in Palmettown. She has always taken an active interest in the work of the Union Baptist church, of which she was a member.

James Fenton.

The death of James Fenton occurred at 4.30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Norwich state hospital, after an illness of over three months. Mr. Fenton was born in County Kerry, Ireland, and for the past 22 years has been a resident of this city, locating here when he came to this country. He was for many years employed by the water department as a residential engineer. He has been a resident of 19% Yantic street for many years and was held in high esteem by his many friends. His wife died about 15 years ago, and he is survived by two daughters, Miss Mary and Miss Julia Fenton, of this city, and one sister, Mrs. John Sheehan, of Springfield.

Masons Tenders Trouble Near End

H. N. Fox of State Board of Arbitration Says there is Misunderstanding on Both Sides—National President Coming Today—Settlement Expected This Week.

On Thursday morning Hiram H. Fox of New Haven, a member of the state board of arbitration and conciliation, came here at 10 o'clock and remained until 4.40 in the afternoon. He had a conference with the masons' tenders regarding their claims, and also saw a number of master builders during the day in regard to the existing trouble about the claim for pay by the masons' tenders. It is said that there is no strike, as no strike vote has been passed by the union; but a few months ago the union passed a statement to the effect that they would ask for a raise in pay the first of May, and that was the only notice to the builders. They are now to hear from the builders, they say, and are not striking. They proceeded in the matter without advisement, it is believed, and Mr. Fox stated that the laborer's trouble was a misunderstanding on both sides, and considered that there would be a quick settlement of the entire matter. He is to return here on Monday to see the masons' tenders and the Building Trades' council for a meeting, and it has been granted, and through a committee from this city, a proper arrangement in such troubles or misunderstandings as exist between the masons' tenders and the master builders.

National President Dominic D'Dalozzo of the Masons' Tenders' union is expected here today regarding the matter coming from New York. One of the master builders on Thursday evening stated that Arbitrator Fox had visited him and other master builders for the purpose of inquiring about the situation and learning their side of the matter. The master builders have not had any meetings since Tuesday evening, and there has been no change from the position expressed by them at the time. He said they had made no concessions and matters stood as they had a few days ago. He was of the belief, however, that the trouble would be adjusted in the next day or two, so that by Monday he believed all would be harmonious and the work would be going along as if nothing had happened.

During his stay in town Mr. Fox was shown about by Business Agent M. J. Kelly of the Central Labor union. Mr. Fox is, however, not the union's representative, as he with two others are appointed on the arbitration commission for the purpose of bringing about a proper arrangement in such troubles or misunderstandings as exist between the masons' tenders and the master builders.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY, SONS OF HERMANN.

State Convention to Be Held Here May 13—Immergruen Lodge Will Entertain.

There will be big and busy times here about Thursday for the members of Immergruen lodge, No. 12, the women's auxiliary of the Sons of Hermann, for the local lodge is to have the honor of entertaining the annual grand lodge meeting here on that date, with probably more than 100 delegates present from the 19 lodges in the state.

At the meeting of Immergruen lodge in Germania hall this week most of the arrangements were reported as practically completed, and the Norwich women are counting on giving the grand lodge delegates a good reason to remember their pleasant reception here.

Prohibition hall on Talman street has been engaged, and all the meetings will be held there beginning at 10 o'clock with a business session. At noon a dinner will be served in the banquet hall in the basement, and this will be followed by an afternoon business session, at which the election of officers will take place. Supper will be served after the business is over.

The evening will be a social one, in which there will be dancing, and a feature will be a sketch given by a Norwich cast. No Men Wanted, in the evening will be a presentation of the play "The Mistletoe" by Mrs. Rose Leopold, Miss Lydia Gertz and Mrs. William W. Tanner.

The general arrangement committee of Immergruen lodge consists of Mrs. Henry Leopold, chairman; Mrs. Helen Opitz, Mrs. Valentine Reich, Mrs. Charles Dearing and Mrs. Carl Steinhilber. They have been notified that they will have to be absent for one or two nights and places have been found for them in local families. Mrs. Steinhilber is chairman of the supper committee.

The grand lodge officers are the following: Grand president, Mrs. William Holbel, Collinsville; first grand vice president, Mrs. Katherine Hermand, Waterbury; grand secretary, Mrs. Meriden; grand treasurer, Mrs. Ansonia; grand reporter, Mrs. Minna Hermand; grand trustee, Mrs. Ansonia; grand chaplain, Mrs. Knabe, and Mrs. Tina Spring, all of Bridgeport.

FIXING UP CISTERNS FOR FIRE DEPARTMENT

There Were at One Time 25 About the City, but Many Have Been Filled In—Built in 1840 on a Tax of Four Cents.

The fire department is having the cisterns about the city placed in condition for use in case they should be needed. Probably but few know that there were at one time twenty-five of these cisterns at different locations about the city, and that the residents whom they controlled water supplies were paid so much each time the cisterns were filled. Hand engines pumped water from these cisterns, and they can be equally serviceable for the fire department now and one or more steamers can draught from them after they have been connected with the water mains. The cistern in front of the Second Congregational church has been made serviceable, and an old record lately found by Chief Stanton states that this particular cistern was filled by water from the roof of the church. Another cistern in Broad street near Broadway, has recently been located, and was used, and as such a connection is made with it by the water department. It will be in a position to draught from it if needed, there being a shaftout from the water main until needed. The cistern used to be filled from a two-inch pipe, the supply coming from Mr. Farnum.

These cisterns, or reservoirs, as they were then termed, were constructed in 1846 by a vote of the common council, June 23, 1846, when the purchase of three engines and the construction of 15 cisterns were authorized, and $3,000 appropriated for the apparatus and work. A tax of four cents was voted to cover the expenditure.

Many of the old cisterns have been filled in and others several feet below the surface of the present streets.

GUARD DUTY INSTRUCTIONS FOR THIRD COMPANY.

Out of Town Organization May Be Invited for Celebration—Battalion Drill Next Week Besides Field Day.

On Thursday evening at the armory Lieutenant Reed of New London was in attendance for the purpose of instructing the Third company in guard duty, and much time was devoted to that part of the regulations.

At the company meeting on Wednesday evening the members were read for the spring parade on Thursday of next week, and it was also announced that there would be a battalion drill on Tuesday evening with Captain Hagberg acting as major. The matter of inviting an out of town military organization to be their guests during the company's annual picnic was brought up and it will probably be decided at the next meeting. It was voted to buy a guardsman's handbook for the company meeting on Wednesday and the invitation to the common council and Board of Trade to attend their field day manoeuvres were accepted.

It is probable that there will be quite a number of visitors who will be present at the battalion drill, as it is open to the public. Last Sunday the range drill in the armory of Lieutenant Church went to Fort Wadsworth, where the usual instructions were received. Next Sunday the Fifth company will go.

New York Men Will Take Myer Leonard Away This Morning—Came Here from New Haven.

Leonard has been in the hospital, being brought here from New Haven. He has been in the country less than three years, and it is the disease that he was afflicted with before he came to this country. In such cases the patient is deported to his native country, and the New York men will take aboard an ocean liner bound for home, their duties ceasing then.

"Abide With Me," "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and "In the City" were sung by the choir. There were many beautiful floral tributes. The bearers were Deacons P. T. Young, Harrison Payne and B. C. and W. The most economical paint always is the one that takes least gallons and wears longest, and that's Devote.
