Bath-Robinson Marriage on Saturday Evening.

On Saturday evening Mabel Ermina, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Robinson of 374 Ash street, was united in marriage with Robert M. Bath, youngest son of Mrs. Mary M. Bath, only relatives and a few intimate friends were present.

The house was handsomely decorated with lilacs, apple blossoms and ferns. In the library was an alcove banked with dogwood, lilacs, apple blossoms and ferns with delicate ferns, white roses, the top was a fringed wisteria. Candelabra stood on a small altar-like stand in the center of the floral bower.

At 7 o'clock to the Lohengrin wedding march, played by Miss Laura Chabro, a cousin of the bride, the bride and groom entered the library and advanced to the alcove. Master Everett Robinson was ring bearer, and Gertrude Rosebrooks were ribbon givers. The little girls were dressed in white. The bride-elect and groom followed. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. Mapleson of Suffield, acting pastor of the First Baptist church.

The decorations throughout the house were arranged by Mrs. Read, Mrs. E. Crane and Miss Crane, and received many compliments. A large number of beautiful presents were received by the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Bath left shortly before 9 o'clock in an automobile for a brief honeymoon in Rhode Island.

On their return they will reside for a while at the bride's parents at 374 Ash street. The bride is prominently identified with various activities at the First Baptist church. George Lilley's Motion Seconded. The president's insistence that there shall be a notable economy in naval expenditure should easily meet with a favorable response. We know of no department of the government in which retrenchment is more practicable. Secretary Meyer will have to abolish half a dozen perfectly useless navy departments, and concentrate the others and purged of agencies in those that are retained and he will have lopped off the ten millions of expenditure mentioned, and more.

Of course in doing this the administration will encounter the frantic opposition of all the politicians and beneficiaries of the system now in vogue, but the administration can do it if so minded, and all this protean economy can be spared. New York Sun.
