Cyclers Feast and Make Merry.

The Thread City Cyclers fittingly celebrated the reforming of their club on Tuesday night with a June festival and a most enjoyable evening's "Sing-Outs."

Members were present in large numbers to inspect the elaborate furnishings in the various rooms and the transformation wrought the past few days was certainly a pleasing one.

The club's orchestra furnished music for the occasion and many a catchy song hit was cleverly rendered by the stars of the club's far-famed minstrel troupe that has gained such renown the past season in this city and many of the suburban towns.

An excellent luncheon was served at 10 o'clock and when cigars were lighted there was more music and song and yet still more that rounded out one of the most enjoyable evenings in the popular club's history.

Charged With Petty Larceny.

Percey Brockton, 37 years of age, was arrested Tuesday by Capt. E. H. Richmond, charged with petty larceny. It is alleged that Monday the young man stole a bicycle repair shop of the Jordan Hardware company and slipped off an old tire from a wheel that he had put on a new one.
