OBITUARY

Louis James Tucker.

On Wednesday afternoon, Louis James Tucker died at his home in North Franklin after suffering two years with tuberculosis. Mr. Tucker was born in 1891, the youngest of the five children of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Tucker of Wakefield, R. I. When he was three years of age his parents moved to Lebanon, where he attended school and later entered the store of W. L. Spencer in Lebanon. Four years later he came to the store of A. A. Race in North Franklin, where he was employed up to two years ago, when illness caused his retirement. Light outdoor work and a residence in the Adirondacks seemed to give him renewed strength, but upon his return to Franklin his decline continued.

In April, 1892, he married Miss Clara A. Wood of Westerly, R. I. who died in 1904. In 1901 he married Miss Eliza W. Potter of Peacedale, R. I. By his genial nature, excellent character, quiet industry, and fidelity to all the interests entrusted to him, he won the respect of the entire community. He contributed to the welfare of the town in many ways, at different times playing the cornet, auto horn and violin. In May of this year Mr. Tucker joined the Franklin Congregational church on confession of faith. His patience and fortitude have given ample evidence to the reality of his Christian faith.

He is survived by his wife and son, an only child, a brother, Edwin B. Tucker of Providence, and two sisters, Mrs. William Tucker and Mrs. Addie C. Clark, both of Wakefield, R. I.

WEDDING

Geor-Tucker.

Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Central Baptist parsonage on Slater avenue, Norwich, Adbert Geor Tucker and Miss Margaret Maria Tucker, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Tucker of Scotland, were united in marriage by the acting pastor, Rev. C. K. Flanders of Hartford. Owing to a recent death in the groom's family on the previous day the ceremony was postponed.

The bride was daintily gowned in white Persian lawn, wearing a white veil trimmed with pink and white flowers. She carried pink and white carnations.

Mr. Geor and his wife went at once to his home in the former White place, on the Scotland road. The groom is the son of Elisha and Elizabeth Geor and is one of the prosperous and enterprising young men of that section. His bride, who is a bright, amiable girl, has made many friends during her frequent visits to Norwich, and she received a number of beautiful gifts accompanied by sincere wishes for her happiness.

Henry A. Tyler of the city and Miss Ida M. Parker of East Lyme were united in marriage at Trinity Methodist Episcopal church at 5 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. The bride, Miss Ida M. Parker, is the daughter of Rev. M. S. Kaufman, D.D. Relatives were in attendance at the ceremony.

The groom is employed as a carpenter in the employ of the city. He is the son of R. L. the son of William Tyler and Nellie Card. The bride resides in East Lyme and is a native of the yard, the daughter of Eleazer H. Parker and Eva Ingraham and formerly lived here.

WEDDING

Whitaker-Peek.

On Wednesday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock, the home of Mrs. Hildah M. Peek at Lebanon, was the scene of a pretty wedding, when her daughter, Miss Eliza Preston Peek, was united in marriage with Milan D. Whitaker of Worcester.

Peek were a gown of white lawn, trimmed with lace, and carried flowers. She was attended by her sister, Miss Eliza Preston Peek, who was the bridesmaid. The groom wore a suit of silk mull and also carried flowers. The best man was Spencer Child of Greenfield, Conn.

The strains of the bridal march from Lohengrin, played by Miss Mabel Whitaker of Thompson, sister of the groom, were the first music heard. The bride descended down stairs to the parlor where they faced the company, which had arisen as the bride party entered. Rev. A. B. Bode of the Franklin Congregational church was the officiating clergyman. A ring was used in the service. The wedding music was played softly on the piano.

Following an informal reception a collation was served. The bride and her sister, Miss Mabel Whitaker, the young people succeeded in escaping the piano to arrive at the parlor to make their appearance interesting, and started on a tour. They are to make their home in Worcester.

The company of valuable presents, including silverware, a handsome hand painting, cut glass, linen, and money.

The guests included Mrs. Eva Whitaker of Worcester, mother of the groom, Mrs. Dwight Whitaker of Thompson, sister of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Berna Stead of Worcester, uncle and aunt of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. H. Smith of Worcester, Miss Inez Richardson of Hartford, Mrs. Edward A. Hoxie, and family of Lebanon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Geor, Leonard of Franklin.

The bride is a native of Franklin, attended the schools of Lebanon and studied at the Connecticut normal school. She was for some time assistant matron at the Rock Nook home, Town, and later held a similar position at the asylum at Hartford. She is a well known and estimable young woman.

The groom is a foreman for the Reid & Prince Manufacturing Co. of Worcester.

Zeiglmayer-Allen.

In St. Patrick's church Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock William Zeiglmayer 104 Boswell avenue was married by Rev. Hugh Treanor to Miss Bridget Alice Allen of 102 Boswell avenue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Zeiglmayer were the attendants. Both the bride and her matron of honor wore handsome dresses with hats to match. Relatives and friends attended.

There was a reception and breakfast at the home of the bride and guests were entertained. There were elegant gifts. After a wedding tour the young couple will reside at 102 Boswell avenue. The groom is a native of Middletown, but has passed most of his life here. He is a gunmaker, and has a large list of friends.

Delaney-Falvey.

Wednesday morning a pretty wedding took place in St. Patrick's church at 8 o'clock when John Charles Delaney, son of Mrs. Delaney of 33 Seventh street, and Miss Annie Rose Falvey, daughter of Daniel Falvey, of 102 Boswell avenue, were united in marriage by Rev. Joseph McCarthy. The best man was Thomas M. Delaney, a cousin of the groom. The bridesmaid was Miss Helena B. Falvey, sister of the bride. The bride wore a handsome champagne princess dress, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The bride's traveling dress was blue messaline with a large white and red floral pattern.

Following the ceremony the bridal party was driven to the home of the bride's father, Daniel Falvey, at 132 Sachem street, where a breakfast was served and a reception held. Guests were present from Providence, Worcester, and other places. Received valuable and handsome presents. The groom received a present of a hand-

HALF MILL COUNTY

Will Raise $36,000 for Floating Debts—Not Collectable Until Next Year—Legislators Coming to Norwich

(Special to The Bulletin.) Hartford, June 30.—The New London county meeting today laid a county tax of one-half mill on the county grand list, which, when levied, will raise a sum of money close to $36,000 for the purpose of meeting the floating debts of the county. Chairman Martin of the Finance committee, George E. Parsons of the superior court, who in such occasions the legally constituted clerk of the county meeting, occupied the secretary's chair. The official vote, which was passed on the motion of Representative Bushnell of Norwich, tells the whole story and is as follows:

"Whereas, The county commissioners of the county of New London deem it necessary to levy a tax upon the inhabitants thereof, and

"Whereas, They have called this meeting of the representatives for the time being chosen to the general assembly from all the towns of said county and the senators residing in said county to take action upon the said matter in accordance with the provisions of Section 1762 of the general statutes of the state of Connecticut; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, By said representatives and senators, in said meeting, duly and legally assembled, that in accordance with the aforesaid call of said county commissioners on this 30th day of June, 1909, that for county purposes a tax be, and the same is, hereby laid and imposed upon the towns of said county in proportion to their respective lists last made and compiled a total of one-half mill on the dollar on said lists when equalized and adjusted by the board of equalization of the state of Connecticut, to be levied and collected until next year.

Adjourned for Celebration. Hartford, June 30.—This afternoon Representative Tibbitts of Norwich moved that the house adjourn tomorrow to be met again at 11.30 next Wednesday instead of next Tuesday, and the senate will take the same action tomorrow. This is to permit the members of the general assembly to attend the Norwich celebration without the necessity of hurrying to Hartford on Tuesday, a feat which Mayor Dunn of Williamstown said in the house at the time the matter was up he was not certain they would all be able to accomplish.

Numerous members of both houses have signified their intention of coming to Norwich to see the celebration, and others will accompany the governor and his staff and members of his administration. The general assembly will substitute Friday for Tuesday of next week, so that the celebrating may not interfere with the course of legislation.

some chamber set from the members of the crew. A company of the crew, which has been a member for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Delaney left on the 2 o'clock train for Hartford, where they will reside with the bride's father on Sachem street for the present.

SUMMER HAIR DRESSING

The disagreeable and repulsive odors that come from the hair in summer are caused by dandruff.

Dandruff is caused by microbes which are hard to kill, but which can be killed by Parisian Sage, the quick-acting, money-back hair tonic.

Dandruff can never be cured until the small, aggravating and indomitable dandruff germ is conquered and destroyed.

And millions of dandruff germs have been destroyed, thanks to the great scientific and dermatologist who gave to the world Parisian Sage, the only real dandruff cure and hair grower the world has ever known.

If you have dandruff, Parisian Sage will cure you in two weeks, or your money back.
