Many Visitors in Town to Attend Anniversary Celebration—Tourists Heard from in Ireland.

The mills will be closed the first two days of the week.

Thomas Wallace of Providence is the guest of relatives in town.

William Kaulinson of Waterbury is visiting his mother on Fifth street.

Charles Card, his son Louis and wife of Derby are visiting in town over the celebration.

William Hoar of Atlanta, Ga., is visiting his father, William Hoar, of Central avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Toothill of Sterling and family are in town to attend the celebration.

Miss Beatrice Metcalf of Hartford is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Douglas of Hickory street.

Edward Butterfield of New York is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Meach of Sixth street.

Frank Fields of Michigan is visiting here for the first time in a number of years, the guest of his aunt on Sixth street.

Harold Andrews is at his home on Prospect street for the celebration, from West Lynn, Mass., where he is employed by the General Electric Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Murphy are celebrating the anniversary of Dr. George Moore and Charles Moore of Palmer, Mass., and Miss Maud Gellino of Hartford.

Mrs. Alice Babbitt and Miss Florence Babbitt of Paterson are attending the anniversary celebration as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crooks of Fourth street.

Local relatives have received word from Mrs. James Hollin and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Murray that they were visiting in Killarney, Ireland, and were having a splendid visit.

The North Main street fire station has been handsomely decorated for the celebration with bunting and flags under the direction of Captains Mussel and Murray, and its appearance is favorably commented upon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Ladd arrived Saturday from South Canterbury to visit Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Douglas. Mr. Ladd was born in Sprague and can easily recall the time the common name for Norwich was The Landing.

John Coughlin of Greenville, S. C., is the guest of the anniversary celebration of his brothers, Timothy and William Coughlin. Mr. Coughlin was a former resident of the place, but is now a contractor in the south. Mr. Coughlin is visiting at her home in Monson, Mass.

UNCAS POWER PLANT OBLIGED OF SHUT DOWN.

Obligated to Start Up Steam Plant Sunday Noon Because of Low Water at the Scotland Dam.

Sunday noon the electric light plant got up steam and set in motion its engines and generators for the supplying of electricity to the city.

If by some high act of imagination we could uncouple ourselves and look down upon our present-day Norwich as it appeared in the distant years I am confident we should see more clearly than now we can how marvelously the hand of God is moulding the affairs of our city to His own eternal honor.

THE FUTURE IS BRIGHT WITH PROMISE.

TAFTVILLE

St. Jean Baptiste Society Has Play and Banquet—Sailors Were Defeated—Visitors in Town for Celebration.

Sunday afternoon St. Jean Baptiste society held its usual July meeting in Parish hall with an attendance of 100 members.

This morning the society will go to the city and with its tableaux, St. John and the lamb will march in the parade.

At 5 o'clock the society held its annual Fourth of July banquet and play, which was well attended, prominent representatives from Williamsburg societies being present.

There were a number of speeches made after the play, among the speakers being Father O'Keefe and Massicotte, Francis Belque, the first president; Isidore Boucher, the present president; and M. A. Throre.

The banquet was well served and was followed by dancing for a short time. The committee of arrangements was President Boucher, O'Keefe and Massicotte, Francis Belque, the first president; Isidore Boucher, the present president; and M. A. Throre.

The game Saturday afternoon with the sailors from the U. S. S. Tonopah, stationed at New London, was a walk-over for the Lafayette club, and the game ended with the score 10 to 5 in favor of the home team.
