Funeral of Mrs. Thomas Anderson. St. Andrew's Sunday School will have picnic.

The funeral services of Margaret O'Brien, wife of Edmund Anderson, were held from her late home, No. 84 South street, Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

The deceased was born in Norwich, the daughter of the late Michael and Margaret Griffin O'Brien. On June 27, 1884, she was married to Thomas Anderson, a native of Northampton, by Rev. F. M. Kennedy.

Dr. James L. Moriarty, Mrs. Moriarty and their son, of Waterbury, were the guests of the former's mother, on North Main street, Sunday. The trip was made by automobile.

Timothy Brennan of the 6th company, stationed at Fort Warren, Boston, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. J. P. Downing of North Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKimney and the latter's sister, Miss Katherine Sweney, of Staten Island, N. Y., who have been guests of D. J. Donovan of Eleventh street, have left town to visit other relatives in Massachusetts.

Daniel Coburn, the efficient foreman of streets in this district, has given his Eighteenth street hill a topdressing during the past week, and has put it in fine condition. At present he is engaged in repairing the crosswalks along North Main street.

COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE FOR UNCAS POWER CO. BILL

Senate Had Previously Passed Measure—Those on Committee. (Special to The Bulletin.)

Hartford, July 12.—The Uncas Power company bill which received a veto back in the house day before yesterday, had already passed the senate on June 30, and there is therefore no occasion for a committee of conference on it, the house having received it back today after the vote of the senate to adhere to its former action.

Niantic.—Prof. J. J. McCook and family of Hartford will open their summer home on the Bluffs Saturday.

MEANING OF OUR CELEBRATION

Christian Character of Our Ancestors Not Only Merits But Receives Highest Praise Man Ever Ascribed.

Sunday night at Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. Dr. M. S. Kaufman preached on "The Deeper Meaning of Our Great Celebration, from the text, Joshua iv: 6, 'What mean ye by these stones,' saying in part: 'In seeking for the deeper meaning of such a great celebration as we have recently enjoyed, if we go deep enough we shall certainly find God.'

I. First, it means that a personal God governs in the epoch-making movements of man's history. It was the spirit of adventure that started Pilgrims and Pilgrims out of their English homes over a stormy and uncharted sea, and that was the conviction that the living God had sent them on a high and holy mission. It was their faith in God that sent them forth and sustained them amid their hardships, privations and perils.

II. It means that education is a potent factor in life's problem. A remarkably large number of college graduates may be found among those who have selected the home of their birth—proving that college culture and training were highly esteemed by those men. Their education was not a mere matter of social position and worldly ambition, but a matter of spiritual growth and moral development.

III. It means that the Christian religion is a reality—entering into the very fiber of their personalities. It was a recognition of the Bible. For it was this Book that nourished their spiritual qualities and made them Christian heroes, and rendered them equal to the heavy tasks imposed upon them in their trying years. They fed upon its sublime truths and thereby grew strong, stalwart, sturdy.

IV. It was a fine recognition of the Christian Church—this mighty institution which has been the most majestic of all organizations known to men. Our forefathers respected and loved it, and to it they owe much of their glory which enabled them to make for themselves a new world.

V. It was a fine recognition of the American Republic. It was the spirit of adventure that started Pilgrims and Pilgrims out of their English homes over a stormy and uncharted sea, and that was the conviction that the living God had sent them on a high and holy mission. It was their faith in God that sent them forth and sustained them amid their hardships, privations and perils.

EXTRAORDINARY HAIR TONIC

It Won't Grow Hair on Bald Heads Unlike all other hair restorers, Parlatan Sage won't grow hair on bald heads. Neither will it grow hair on china eggs, door knobs or hitching posts.

One claim is about as sensible as the other. If your head is bald and you want to cover it with hair, get a wig. Parlatan Sage, the quick-acting hair restorer, is of no use to bald headed people; but for people who have thin hair, falling hair or dandruff, and whose hair is just beginning to show, there is nothing in this wide world that will give such satisfactory results as Parlatan Sage.

Parlatan Sage is guaranteed by The Lee & Osgood Co. to drive out dandruff and stop falling hair in two weeks, or money back. It keeps itching scalp in two days, and keeps the scalp cool and free from odors in warm weather.

There is nothing on earth that will so quickly turn full, falling hair into lustrous and luxuriant hair as Parlatan Sage. Try a bottle of Parlatan Sage. The Lee & Osgood Co.'s risk. Use it for a week and you will have no use for the ordinary tonic. Parlatan Sage is delightfully perfumed, free from grease and stickiness, and a large bottle costs but 50 cents. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every bottle.

DIED. MORREAU.—In Central Falls, R. I., July 10, 1909, Louis Morreau, formerly of Norwich. KENEY.—In New London, July 9, 1909, Capt. Nathan Kenney, aged 75 years.

ROBERT A. BROWN Engaged as Principal at West Town Street.

Robert A. Brown of Norwich has been secured as principal of the West Town street school for the coming year. He has rented one of Ira Wheeler's houses on Huntington avenue.

Saw Three Deer. While Mrs. Frank Sterry was picking flowers in her garden on Lee avenue on Friday afternoon, she saw three deer looking at her. She called her neighbors and the small boys started the deer and they jumped fences, raced away from the crowd and went down Pleasant street. They ate corn, beets and young cabbages and otherwise spoiled gardens in the neighborhood.

Briefs and Personal. Charles E. Hibbard and Mr. Nichols of Willimantic made a brief stay in town recently. Mrs. A. E. Stanton of South Windham is the guest of Mrs. Albert Miller of Huntington avenue.

Mrs. Paul Schough and sons, of New York, are visiting Mrs. Schough's sister, Mrs. Minnie Edmonson of Norwich town.

James Shelley has returned to his home in New London after visiting three weeks at Norwich town, visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Sadya Schough of New York has returned after spending three weeks at Norwich town, visiting friends and relatives.

John Culver of Stonington is in town looking up the Wheeler genealogy. He is the son of Mrs. Wheeler of Ira Wheeler of Huntington avenue.

Former residents who returned to their homes on Saturday were Mrs. Mary Lathrop of Worcester and Mrs. Roscoe Frazier of Providence. Roscoe Frazier and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keates returned home earlier in the week.
