An especially delightful feature of the performance being the pretty, popular illustrated song, "You're Just the Boy for Me," as rendered by Miss Marion Bradley, the delightful little beauty who has been making her name in the city.

Mr. Turner in his rendering of high class ballads is proving a most pleasing feature. Mr. Turner is heard to great advantage in "With You in Eternity," "Pictures changed Monday, Wednesday and Friday."

LINCOLN PARK

Vaudeville at Rustic Theater.

The Vynos in their musical barnyard scene particularly pleasing. They set music out of the pump, the churn, the bridle, cow, everything. They won heavy applause by playing "Ain't You Coming Back to Old New Hampshire, Nolly" on the picket fence. The Vynos are especially unique and enjoyable entertainers of all kinds.

The dancing pavilion and other amusements are liberally patronized. With such features as are offered this week park patronage is bound to experience a daily increase.
