

A DAY OF TARIFF CONFERENCES

President Taft Brings About a Tangible Situation from Realms of Uncertainty.

EARLY AGREEMENT NOW LOOKED FOR

Various Conferences at the Capitol Yesterday Marked by Harmony Which Assures Peaceful Settlement of the Differences Existing—Nominal Duty on Iron Ore—The Customs Court of Appeals in Washington.

Washington, July 22.—President Taft appears to have brought about a tangible situation with regard to the tariff where uncertainty existed before.

The day was one of conferences and concluded with a conversation at the White House tonight, participated in by the president, Senator Aldrich and Representative Payne, at which the chief executive was assured that a harmonious settlement of the differences existing between the two branches of congress is practicable.

Harmony Everywhere. This conclusion was reached from the fact that throughout the various conferences held at the capitol today, the senators opposed to the "free raw material" program were consulted by Senator Aldrich, and a committee representing the same position on the house side held a conference with Chairman Payne.

It is evident that the president, by informing the conferees that the disputed points were before them for settlement, brought about a condition that augurs well for an early agreement on a conference report.

The tariff executive was able to get a better insight into the obstacles to the "free raw material" plan by his conference with the two leaders than he would in so large a gathering as the one which was present at the dinner last night.

Senator Aldrich today met a large number of senators who are opposed to free hides, coal and iron ore, and no encouragement was offered for the placing of any articles on the free list.

Meeting of House Tariff Insurgents. The "tariff insurgents" in the house who are opposed to free raw materials met again today and adopted resolutions protesting against the plan.

Representative Dwight New York, the republican whip of the house, conferred with Senator Aldrich late this afternoon and informed him that the anti-free-raw-material sentiment in the house was a matter which required serious consideration.

Compromise on Dutiable Hides. The advocates of dutiable hides in both houses declare a compromise is possible, but that they cannot consider

Police Send Out Description

Of Vahan Nalbandian, Who is Also Known by Name of Frank Jones

ANOTHER TRUNK MURDER MYSTERY

Discovered in Liberty Street Boarding House by Bessie Robins, the Landlady—Minos K. Monjian, Armenian Shoe Worker, the Victim—Motive of Murder Not Robbery as the Pockets Had Not Been Touched.

Lowell, Mass., July 22.—Another trunk murder mystery was added to criminal annals by the finding today of the body of Minos K. Monjian, an Armenian shoe worker, in a room of a boarding house at No. 14 Liberty street, this city, by the landlady of the place, Mrs. Bessie Robins. There was a bullet wound through the breast, with several knife wounds near it.

Body Fully Clothed. The body had been placed in the trunk fully clothed. It was probably put there late Saturday night, or early Sunday morning, for Monjian was seen by his sister in Boston Saturday afternoon. The motive for the murder is a mystery. It was not robbery, for the trunk was found to be empty and chain and some loose change were found in his pockets. The police say that since the victim's return from a trip to Chicago about two weeks ago, he had earned but $15, and had probably spent nearly all of that.

Police Anxious to Find Vahan Nalbandian. The man whom the police think may be able to throw some light on the matter and whom they are anxious to find, is Vahan Nalbandian, an associate of Monjian, who, like him, a shoe worker, Nalbandian has been in the country since Monday. This man is also known as Frank Jones, and the police are anxious to find him, as he has been asked to be on the lookout for him. In Worcester an especially careful search will be made through the Armenian quarter for Nalbandian.

Premeditated Crime, Police Say. It is believed by the police that the murder of Monjian and Nalbandian together in the trunk, either late Saturday night or early Sunday morning, was premeditated. The chief does not attempt, however, to explain the motive for the crime. Nalbandian's friends think it is now on some vessel bound for a foreign country.

Identification of the dead man was made by Milton Tooten, a shoe worker, and also by means of the bank book found on his person. This afternoon the identification was completed by Mrs. Lewis B. Adams of Jamaica Plain, Mass., Monjian's sister, who came here accompanied by her young interpreter at the United States immigration office in Boston. Arrangements were made for the burial of Monjian in the family lot, late tomorrow. Monjian was 28 years old and single.
