

Heaping Coals of Fire. Calling woman a savage may fill the silly sense of her, but when it comes to finding that fast collar button she can heap coals of fire, all right—Washington Post.

The University of Bonn, Germany, for the first time this summer reached and passed the 4,000 mark in the number of students.

MURRAY'S Boston Store WILLIMANTIC, CONN.

Unusually Big Price Reductions On Women's Suits

Bargains far from ordinary offerings, which include our entire stock. A stock which includes many garments, every one is fashionable as to fabric, coloring and style.

Women's Coats

Stylish Coats at a price that is ridiculously low. Full length Coats of tan linen at $2.95, $4.95.

Rare Shirt Waist Value at $1.00 of white with long or short sleeves, open front or back, in a big variety of styles, and value that is unusual for $1.00.

The H. C. Murray Co.

Agents Ladies' Home Journal Paper Patterns.

Dr. F. C. JACKSON, DENTIST

Painless Extracting and Filling a Specialty

Lowest prices. All work guaranteed. Associated Dental Parlor, 752 Main St., Willimantic, aug17th

75 MONUMENTS, Headstones and Markers in our stock ready to be erected. Obtain our prices and inspect 1000 artistic designs.

John Lennon & Son, corner Main and Watson Streets, Willimantic, Conn.

GET YOUR GROCERIES WHERE HIGH QUALITY, GREAT VARIETY and LOW PRICES are always the guide. The Sure Place to find those conditions is at

H. E. Reade's

717 Main St., Willimantic, Telephone 199.

CHESBRO

has a lot of small Show Cases and a lot of Drug Store Fixtures for sale cheap.

ELMORE & SHEPARD

(Successors to Sessions & Elmore) Embalmers and Funeral Directors, 60-62 North Street, Telephone connection.

HIRAM N. FENN, UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER

63 Church St., Willimantic, Ct. Telephone. Lady Assistant.

L. M. REED

has the agency for the Travelers Life and Accident Co. of Hartford, Ct., and the United States Health and Accident Ins. Co. of Saginaw, Mich. Write for rates and full particulars. Box 231, Willimantic, Ct.

Willimantic, Danies and Putnam

WILLIMANTIC

Sale of Talbot Property at Windham. Frank Wilcox has sold to Mary E. Eaton and Mary A. Williams the house and thirty-two acres of land in Windham owned by G. N. Talbot of Boston, who is at the head of the Indian Hollow Trout company.

Joseph G. Davoll, aged 75, died at his home at Chestnut Hill, Friday morning. He had been in failing health for upwards of two years, but had been confined to the house for a few months only.

John Douglas was a Hartford visitor Friday.

Arthur Casey has returned from a stay at Block Island.

Louis Dimmock is camping at Lake Mashapaug for a fortnight.

M. C. Higgins of Norwich was in Willimantic on business Friday.

H. C. Brown of Comstock Bridge was a Willimantic visitor Friday.

Henry Anthony and family are passing their vacation in Haddam.

Representative E. E. Fuller of Tolland was a Willimantic visitor on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Swift have returned from a trip to New York and Brooklyn.

D. M. Buckley of Norwich was in the city on a brief business trip Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Thomas J. McKenna of Norwich was the guest of friends in Willimantic Friday.

Henry Arnold is critically ill. He was stricken with cerebral embolism Thursday evening.

Miss Margery Brick and Miss Marion Lincoln, visiting Miss Katherine Brown at Pleasant beach.

Selectman and Mrs. S. Arnold Peckham have as guests Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ross of Hartford.

H. A. Morse of Chestnut street is entertaining his brother, Rev. Amasa Morse of Stafford Springs.

The Misses Stiles of this city have as guests at the Stiles cottage, Crescent beach, the Misses Smith.

Miss Marion Hall of Providence is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Taft, 266 Summit street.

Miss Florence Pease is to teach school in the Center school at South Coventry, succeeding Miss Edna Newell.

Mrs. H. L. Hines has as guests Miss Elizabeth F. Rice of Scranton, Pa., and her sister, Gertrude Rice of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Dr. and Mrs. T. E. Parker are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Perkins of Jersey City, who made the trip in their automobile.

Miss Ojia Wood, who has been the guest of Mrs. George A. Thompson of Pleasant street, the past week, has returned to her home in Washington, D. C.

Clifford Smith has gone to Pine Grove, Niantic, for a week. Raymond Smith will spend Sunday there. Mr. and Mrs. James M. Smith have returned from a stay there.

Charles A. Capen, L. J. Storrs, President Beach and Professor Guley of the Connecticut agricultural college were in Hartford Friday, attending a meeting of the trustees of that institution.

Facts Well Established. There is no disinformation like sunlight. There is no diplomacy like plain speaking. There is no financial guarantee like publicity.—New York Evening Post.

Not in Teddy's Class. Nimrod was once regarded as a mighty hunter, but he never went out to hunt for moose. He was a big game hunter, but he never went out to hunt for mosquitoes.—Boston Globe.

A Sereuous Undertaking. If you think liberal education is easily obtained, just try to read those books of the Elliot selection.—Housington Post.

Wages to Be Advanced. Mill operatives in Danvers are interested in the announcement that the wages are to be advanced in the mills of the Grosvenorales on Aug. 15.

Visitors from Vicksburg. Thomas Curtis, who has been spending the summer in Danvers, will return to Vicksburg, Miss., on Saturday during the first part of September. Mr. Curtis, formerly overseer in the carding department of the Danvers Cotton company, is employed in the south as a classifier of cotton as it comes from the growers. He is an expert in fixing grades and values and has an excellent position.

Borough Notes. Mr. and Mrs. E. Pilling and daughter of Boston are guests of Miss Emma Pilling.

Mrs. William Keach is spending a short time in Manchester, N. H.

Mrs. J. E. Young and daughter are in Summit, N. H.

George Stone left Tuesday for Burlington, Vt., where he will be the guest of relatives.

C. A. Hamilton and Walter Murphy were at Providence river resorts on Friday.

Mrs. F. Rogers and son of New London have recently been guests of Mrs. Rogers' mother, Mrs. Henry Stephens.

A Gibbs of Worcester called on local friends Friday.

Herbert M. Gifford of Woodstock was in town Friday.

Going Back to Philippines. Mrs. H. L. Mason and children of

DANIELSON

Borough Residents on Summer Outings. Mrs. Miranda Kies' Funeral—Cat Hollow Mill May Be Operated—Philippine Visitors Leave for Home.

Rev. H. H. Brown will be the speaker at the Advent chapel Sunday afternoon.

Elizabeth Viger of Boston is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Morse.

Alfred L. Reed will spend the next week on the Cape Cod shore with a party.

Miss Dora Reeves has been spending several days with relatives in Woodstock.

Mr. Fred Shaw is visiting relatives in Thomaston, Mass.

Thomas Head has gone to Norwich to visit relatives after a stay with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Head.

Benjamin Dyer has returned to Austin, Tex., after a visit with relatives in Brooklyn.

Rev. Richard D. Hatch of Willimantic is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hatch, in Brooklyn.

William F. Lester of Providence is visiting Danielson.

Louis Wolsard has been spending several days with relatives in Webster.

Home from France. Miss Leonie Maindon arrived at her home in Danielson Friday morning after a visit to France.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Day have been camping at East Killingly this week.

Misses Evelyn Morin, Josephine Morin and Edward Hensault returned to a convent in Montreal in September.

Miss Bertha Ducharme has returned to her home in Southbridge after spending two weeks with relatives in Danielson.

Miss Bertha Ducharme has returned to a convent in Montreal in September.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Greene have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. George Greene and their little son of twenty, N. J., and Miss F. E. Knickerbocker of Stamford, Conn.

FUNERAL

Mrs. Miranda Kies. The funeral of Mrs. Miranda Kies was held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. N. Arnold, on Reynolds street, Friday afternoon.

Rev. R. E. Cushman of the Methodist church officiating in the absence of Mrs. Kies' pastor, Rev. Clarence H. Barber, of the Congregational church. Burial was in Westfield cemetery.

No Muster This Year. The firemen's muster discussed some time ago as likely to be held in September will not occur this year.

The members of the fire department expect to meet on the new general assembly in a few weeks and they are planning to fit their rooms in such a manner as to accommodate the general assembly.

If they spend the funds in their treasury on a muster they cannot very well spend the same money on equipping the new general assembly.

Decision among the members is for fitting up the rooms and letting the muster wait for another year.

Pascag Firm May Acquire Cat Hollow Mill.

It is rumored that the mill at Elmville known as the "Cat Hollow" mill is to be taken over from the Thayer Woolen company of Oxford, Mass., by the Pascag firm.

The mill has been closed for several years. It was formerly used for manufacturing woolen goods.

Members of the Pascag firm who are said to be interested in the deal were at Elmville this week.

Big Earnings at Brooklyn Jail. Over at the Windham county jail in the town of Brooklyn they are continuing to make records as relates to outside earnings.

The demand for labor has been exceptionally good and this fact has helped swell the record.

Union Success. Sunday morning in the Baptist church the first of the union services arranged for several weeks will be held.

The church looking forward to the period from Sept. 19 to Oct. 3, when revival services are to be held in Danvers by the members of that denomination.

Henry A. Butts of Newport was in Danvers Friday.

Leonard H. Burt started at the mill of the Danielson Worsted company the first of next week.

Alterations are being made to the Hutchins tavern on Franklin street, owned by Mrs. Joseph Cyr.

Prisoners from the jail at Brooklyn are employed in digging a trench 1,200 feet in length, for bringing water to the old people's home from a spring located in the field in the rear of the home.

League Basketball May Be Revived. There is talk of reviving league basketball in this section during the coming winter. A few seasons ago the league made a big hit and it is believed to be possible to revive the interest.

Wages to Be Advanced. Mill operatives in Danvers are interested in the announcement that the wages are to be advanced in the mills of the Grosvenorales on Aug. 15.

Visitors from Vicksburg. Thomas Curtis, who has been spending the summer in Danvers, will return to Vicksburg, Miss., on Saturday during the first part of September.

Mr. Curtis, formerly overseer in the carding department of the Danvers Cotton company, is employed in the south as a classifier of cotton as it comes from the growers.

He is an expert in fixing grades and values and has an excellent position.

Borough Notes. Mr. and Mrs. E. Pilling and daughter of Boston are guests of Miss Emma Pilling.

Mrs. William Keach is spending a short time in Manchester, N. H.

Mrs. J. E. Young and daughter are in Summit, N. H.

George Stone left Tuesday for Burlington, Vt., where he will be the guest of relatives.

PUTNAM

Body of Alexander Gillard Found Near of Railroad Tracks—Independent Order of Foresters' Court Dissolved—Another Blacklist Fine.

Dr. F. P. Todd of Danielson is the visiting physician at the Day-Kimball hospital for the month of August.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Tatem, Jr., have returned from Waterbury.

A. D. McIntyre, Jr., has returned from a visit in Whitinsville.

Frank C. Hubbard of Brooklyn was a visitor in town Friday.

William J. Brady of this city is now playing in the part of Senator Stone in A Gentleman from Mississippi, at the Netherland's roof garden, New York.

Mayor A. D. McIntyre has returned from a visit to the northern and central New York state.

Got Liquor for Blacklisted Man. Thomas Desrozier was fined, with costs, the sum of $29.45, in the city court Friday for getting liquor for a blacklisted man.

One of the biggest crowds of the year is looked for at the game between Putnam and the Andems this (Saturday) noon.

Manifold horse company will have its annual field day and outing at Putnam grounds on the north shore of Alexander's lake tomorrow.

The evening of the day will be a shore dinner.

Another Band Concert. Another of the regular Tuesday evening concerts by the Cadet band is down for next week on the lawn at the residence of Hon. George A. Ham.

Leon T. Wilson and Thomas P. Ryan, registrars of voters, met Friday for the purpose of permitting those voters who wished to register expressing their political preference as to caucus voting.

Suit for Divorce. Florence Gertrude Driscoll has filed papers to cause a divorce against William Driscoll. The case will probably be heard at the coming term of the superior court.

Clarence Faber, May Recover. The continuing controversy of Clarence Faber at the Springfield hotel, has buoyed the hopes of relatives and friends to the point where they are now ready to register expressing their political preference as to caucus voting.

An Amateur Orchardist. Attorney Charles L. Torrey has been spending a few weeks at his farm in East Putnam, where he has recently set out a large number of apple trees for the purpose of growing the fruit of a large scale.

Delegates from Artisans. Aldermen Benoit has been elected delegate from the Putnam branch of the French Artisans to the convention which will be held in Providence on Sunday.

Court of Independent Foresters Dissolved. The court of the Independent Order of Foresters, which has existed in this city for many years, has been disbanded and a majority of the thirty-six members have become affiliated with the Union St. Jean Baptiste. The small number of members in the court and other conditions made the plan to change desirable.

FOUND DEAD. Alexander Gillard was Probably Struck by Train—Money Not Disturbed.

The body of Alexander Gillard, 45, was found Friday morning, at the foot of the railroad embankment, between the bridge and the main line of the Midland division.

The head was battered and limbs badly injured, creating a first impression of a man who had been run over by a train.

Mr. Alexander held a life interest in the Alexander estate, which includes Wildwood park.

Revival Services Planned. The members of the Pentecostal church looking forward to the period from Sept. 19 to Oct. 3, when revival services are to be held in Danvers by the members of that denomination.

Henry A. Butts of Newport was in Danvers Friday.

Leonard H. Burt started at the mill of the Danielson Worsted company the first of next week.

Alterations are being made to the Hutchins tavern on Franklin street, owned by Mrs. Joseph Cyr.

Prisoners from the jail at Brooklyn are employed in digging a trench 1,200 feet in length, for bringing water to the old people's home from a spring located in the field in the rear of the home.

League Basketball May Be Revived. There is talk of reviving league basketball in this section during the coming winter. A few seasons ago the league made a big hit and it is believed to be possible to revive the interest.

Wages to Be Advanced. Mill operatives in Danvers are interested in the announcement that the wages are to be advanced in the mills of the Grosvenorales on Aug. 15.

Visitors from Vicksburg. Thomas Curtis, who has been spending the summer in Danvers, will return to Vicksburg, Miss., on Saturday during the first part of September.

Mr. Curtis, formerly overseer in the carding department of the Danvers Cotton company, is employed in the south as a classifier of cotton as it comes from the growers.

He is an expert in fixing grades and values and has an excellent position.

Borough Notes. Mr. and Mrs. E. Pilling and daughter of Boston are guests of Miss Emma Pilling.

Mrs. William Keach is spending a short time in Manchester, N. H.

Mrs. J. E. Young and daughter are in Summit, N. H.

George Stone left Tuesday for Burlington, Vt., where he will be the guest of relatives.

C. A. Hamilton and Walter Murphy were at Providence river resorts on Friday.

Mrs. F. Rogers and son of New London have recently been guests of Mrs. Rogers' mother, Mrs. Henry Stephens.

A Gibbs of Worcester called on local friends Friday.

Herbert M. Gifford of Woodstock was in town Friday.

Going Back to Philippines. Mrs. H. L. Mason and children of

JEWETT CITY

Borough's Two Bands May Consolidate—Miss Tinker Injured Hand—Local Guests at Coventry Reunion.

Sunday morning at the Methodist church, Rev. N. E. Cook will occupy the pulpit and his topic will be "The Glory of the Son of God."

Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Campbell of New York are enjoying vacation with relatives in Norwich, Lisbon and Jewett City.

A balladeer from Willimantic was in town on Friday taking measurements for the addition to Zeger's store. The framework will be built in Willimantic and shipped here within a week.

Postmaster and Mrs. W. H. Brown, Miss Alice Brown and Mrs. Brown will attend a family reunion in Coventry today.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Gately and Miss Nona Gately of Brooklyn, N. Y., are guests at the Driscoll home on Main street.

Simon, Brewer, Jr., left Friday evening for a month's visit in the west. His itinerary includes several days' stop at the Alaska-Yukon exposition.

Many flower lovers are admiring W. O. Soule's fine exhibition of sweet peas.

Clifford A. Kingsley of Providence has been visiting his cousins at the Bicknell home on Ashland.

Annie Bicknell of Montville is the guest of her sisters in town.

News from the Fishermen. T. D. Phillips and a friend caught a fine string of bass in Ashland pond Thursday. Town Clerk Welsh and Joseph Russell did the same trick in Peabody reservoir.

Master Fred Clark, 10 years old, who is at the Ozone camp at Beach pond, recently caught a two and one-half pound bass on a twelve ounce trout rod.

Bands May Consolidate. A movement is on foot to consolidate the Jewett City and the Slater bands. Joseph Labonne, master mechanic for the Slater company, is the president of the Jewett City band. He presided at a meeting held Thursday evening at which the matter was discussed and Joseph Labonne, Victor H. Heaux, Jr., William Caspar, and John Surling were appointed a committee to investigate and report the most feasible and agreeable conditions where a consolidation could be reached.

There are forty players in both bands and if united the borough would have one of the best bands for years.

Left Hand Injured. Miss Mary Tinker, employed in the makeup department at the Aspinook bleaching, while running a mangle machine, was painfully injured, having her left hand cut with the knives, one finger nail being torn off. Dr. R. K. Agnew attended the injured woman. She will be off duty for several days.

COLCHESTER

Baker's Wife Fined for Using Push Cart—Mrs. Annie Ryan's Funeral.

There was a fair sized crowd at the dance given by the Social club in Grange hall Thursday evening. Keely's orchestra furnished the music and Prof. Bland prompted.

Dr. Klein has purchased A. E. Roper's residence on Broadway. A number from town are at the Willimantic camp grounds.

Frank E. Wilkins of Westchester was in town Thursday.

Fined for Using Push Cart. Mrs. Simons, wife of the Jewish baker, who lives on Lebanon avenue, was brought before Justice L. C. Brown Thursday afternoon for using a push cart on the sidewalks in the borough contrary to the law. She was fined fifty cents, costing her $1.08, which she paid.

Julius Cohen of Hartford was the guest of friends in town Thursday.

Arthur Strong returned Thursday from Norwich, where he has been at the Backus hospital.

Funeral of Mrs. Annie Ryan. The funeral of Mrs. Annie Ryan of Marlboro was held at St. Andrew's church Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. M. H. May officiated. The bearers were sons of the deceased. Burial was in the family plot in St. Andrew's cemetery.

Misses Annie and Rosie Smith left town Wednesday for Portland, Me., to spend their vacation.

Frank M. Goodchild, D. D., pastor of the Central Baptist church, New York will preach in the Congregational church Sunday morning, Aug. 8th.

Attorney Richard O'Connell of Hartford is the guest of his parents on Pleasant street for a few days.

John Cavanaugh of New Haven is visiting at his home on Pleasant street.

The Independent and Montville ball teams play on the park this (Saturday) afternoon.

Joseph Aganovich and friends were at Hayward's lake Thursday fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Hakes left town Thursday for a month's visit with relatives in Stonington.

Mrs. Hattie Jackson of Norwich was at her residence on Broadway Wednesday.

On account of the storm Thursday the auction of Mrs. William J. Chamberlain's household goods was postponed.

Mrs. John Champlin is the guest of Mrs. A. E. Hunt on Linwood avenue.

BALTIC

Field Day of Workingmen's Club—First Friday Devotions Held.

Today is the day of the field day for the Baltic Workingmen's club. They will hold a picnic on Depot Hill.

The first Friday of the month was observed at the Immaculate Conception church with 5 and 7 o'clock masses and the Holy Hour in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shirley and family are passing the week at Revere Beach, Mass.

Miss Agnes Brennan is visiting friends at West Chester.

Mrs. George T. Bell is visiting in Saylesville and Central Falls, R. I.

Mrs. Henry Curtis of Danvers, Henry Reeves are passing a week at Watch Hill.

Miss Myrtle Bateau has gone to Whitman for a month.

Mrs. Joseph Butah, who has been

250TH ANNIVERSARY JUBILEE BOOK

A History of the 250th Anniversary Celebration of Norwich, fully illustrated, and bound in leather or cloth, will be published by The Bulletin Company. Those desiring a copy will please send their orders at once, as only a limited edition will be printed.

The BULLETIN CO., Norwich Conn. Please enter my order for one copy of The History of the 250th Anniversary Celebration of Norwich.

Cloth Binding ..... $2.00 Leather Binding ..... $3.00

Name .....

Street No. ....

State .....

Indicate binding desired by drawing line through one Not wanted.

Where to Trade in Jewett City

DR. J. M. KING Dentist

All work guaranteed. Finn Block, Jewett City, Conn. Office hours 9.30 a. m. to 8 p. m. Painless extractions. Telephone 40.

SUMMER MILLINERY