NORWICH LODGE ENTERTAINS JOLLY CROWD OF MEMBERS AND GUESTS—ATHLETIC PROGRAMME ENJOYED.

With 125 Elks and their guests present, the annual outing of Norwich Lodge No. 46, B. P. O. E., was held at Pocquetanuck Drawbridge Wednesday with gratifying results. The day was just right for a picnic and the bracing atmosphere of the grove gave every one of the brethren present a mammoth appetite for chowder, and bread and butter, and 13 members furnished melody. The athletic events, too, were all that could be expected and furnished plenty of entertainment.

Most of the Elks went down on the 9.10 train, some went down by later cars. Others made the trip by launch, automobile and carriage. All arrived in time to get a chance at noon at one of Brother Frank Wright's Elks' games of checkers at the hotel there at 4 o'clock when a genuine old-fashioned Rhode Island clam-bake was opened.

The interim was filled in with the athletic events which were run off without a hitch. If no records were broken, it was slightly because of the quantity of chowder the contestants had consumed.

Meredith, N. H., Aug. 11.—Several persons were injured, two seriously, when the horses attached to a stage coach became frightened and started down a steep hill in Center Harbor today, the stage being overturned and all its occupants hurled to the ground. The stage was one used on a regular line between Meredith and Sandwich, operated by Everett Mayberry of Sandwich, and was being driven toward Meredith by Mr. Mayberry's wife, Edwin Richards, a farmer, living on the outskirts of Lincoln, N. H., who has been taking a vacation at the Weirs, with his daughter, Marie, and his collie dog in the wagon. Taft the Leader. The republicans are to be congratulated on the fact that the White House is still open to all the party leaders. All are as welcome as though no tariff difficulties had existed. House regulars and house insurgents, senate regulars and senate insurgents, will continue their visits to the president, and by him be received. He denounced nobody while the battle was on, and was denounced by nobody. He conferred with everybody seeking a conference, and expressed himself frankly. But nobody misquoted or misunderstood him. No one else would seek to fill his faith.

The president, then, is still his party's leader, esteemed by both factions and consulted by both. Two factions undoubtedly exist, and they must be brought together if next winter's legislation is to amount to anything, and next year's elections are to be won. Can the president bring them together? If not nobody can hope to. And we may be as certain that he will try, with all his power.—Washington Star.

Hazing at West Point. It looks as if hazing at West Point would have to be permanently suppressed again.—Indianapolis News.
