VARIOUS MATTERS

A good thing and easy to take, "Bella," August 23.—adv.

The third annual reunion of the descendants of C. C. Hall was held at Cheshire last week.

The Daughters of Liberty throughout Connecticut enjoyed the state picnic Saturday at Mansfield Grove.

Miss Frances Eldredge of Old Mystic has been engaged to teach school at Occum during the coming year.

The officers are busy perfecting the arrangements for the Rockville fair, which comes on September 21, 22 and 23.

It was decided at a recent meeting of the Gale Ferry Country club to hold the annual tennis tournament next week.

Mrs. Grace Aldrich Crowell will be one of the vocalists at the midsummer fair of St. Mark's Episcopal church in Mystic this week.

The members of the Kibbe family will hold their annual reunion and picnic Wednesday, August 26, at Kibbe's hotel in Somers.

Nearly all the arrangements are completed for the first outing of the Holy Name society of St. Mary's church on next Sunday at the draw-bridge.

Tarvia as a preservative of macadam, particularly where there is much automobile travel, seems to be giving satisfaction. It also reduces the need of sprinkling.

The local Maennerchor will doubtless have delegates at the Connecticut Saengerfest which will be held in Hartford September 13.

About two weeks ago a grayish caterpillar made its appearance in some parts of the state. It attacks the leaves of certain trees, leaving nothing but the skeleton.

J. A. Gamble of Willimantic, a graduate of the Connecticut agricultural college last June, has been appointed to succeed O. P. Burr at Gilbert farm, located in Georgetown.

People who have been at Northfield will soon be returning to their homes, as the general conference closed Monday night after a session as large as any in the past decade.

Good progress is being made on the new storehouse for the C. M. Robertson company in Palmetto. The walls are already up several feet and the carpenters will soon be at work.

One farmer was surprised this season at the non-appearance of the potato bug on his vines. He found that his flock of white-leghorns made daily rounds, and ate up the destroying bugs.

Norwich telephone users have not yet discovered that the new Lincoln cent is as good as a nickel when dropped in the slot at the pay station, being slightly heavier and heavier than the ordinary cent.

Charles Noel Flagg of Waterbury has been notified that Mrs. Lilley, widow of Gov. Charles L. Lilley, desires he should paint the portrait of her husband to be added to the list of paintings of Connecticut governors.

It is stated that the prospects for a good year for this year Long Island sound are not bright. The reasons are not clear, since the temperature has been right and no heavy storms have disturbed the beds.

Tomatoes are coming into the city in quantities and the prices are reasonable. A generous supply of all kinds of vegetables is also to be found in the local stores, except that sweet corn has not yet been plentiful.

Monday was to have been the first day of the harvest of the 1909 tobacco crop, but the splendid, soaking rain that set in has postponed the harvest for a week, as the ground is too wet for a few days' quick growth before cutting.

G. A. R. veterans will be interested in the booklet issued by the Chicago & Northwestern Railway for the G. A. R. encampment that held at Salt Lake City. It contains group portraits from life of Civil war commanders, and many views of Salt Lake City.

The invitations to the laying of the cornerstone of All Saints' church, New London, Friday afternoon, August 24, at 4 o'clock have been issued by the building committee. The pastor, Rev. Howard Colby Ives, who is away on his annual vacation, will return for the ceremony.

A male chorus of nearly 1,000 singers picked from the German societies of the state, sang Monday in Meriden on German day. They were under the direction of Prof. John H. Keller, who was recently elected director of the Tarville Maennerchor after the death of Prof. John S. Krauss.

Perjury Case Continued. William Stamoullis was arraigned in the New London police court Tuesday charged with perjury in testifying in a justice court in a case in which it was alleged that one Boucica, a Greek, stole $97 from another Greek named Mica. Stamoullis testified that he heard Boucica admit that he stole the money, and this complaint alleges that this testimony was false. Stamoullis fled to Norwich where he was captured by Policeman Henderson on Monday. The case was not heard Tuesday as Attorney Cronin, the prosecutor, was absent from the city. It was continued until Monday next, and Stamoullis was required to give a bond of $750 for appearance then. He could not do that and went to jail.

Petition in Bankruptcy. Louis D. Carter of Putnam has filed voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the district court of the United States, in which he lists his debts at $1,922.86, which consist of wages, $54 and unsecured claims, $1,868.86. His assets consist of stock in trade, $500; household goods, etc., $200; machinery, tools, etc., $75 and policies of insurance, $200. There is also $200 in property claimed to be exempted.

Captain Hagberg a Member of the State Team which will Complete in the National Rifle Match in Ohio Next Week

The members of the Connecticut rifle team leave today via Springfield for Camp Perry, Ohio, where they will participate next week in the national rifle match. The team was selected from the best shots in the state and included in the number is Capt. John Hagberg of the Third company, C. A. C. N. G. of this city, who leaves this morning to join the other members of the team. Lieutenant Coleman of the same company was also selected as a member of the team, but was unable to get away at this time and his place is taken by Captain Hamilton of Greenwich.

The team was to have had some practice at the East Haven range on Monday and Tuesday, but owing to the rain this preliminary work could not be carried out.

Preliminary practice for the national rifle match will begin at Camp Perry on Friday, August 20, and continue on Saturday. Sunday the range will be closed. On Monday, August 23, the national team match will be opened, to be followed by the national individual rifle match and the national individual pistol match. These matches should be completed by Friday, August 27, when the national association rifle matches begin. They include 17 matches.

The team entering the national match will either subsume themselves or be
