

AFTER FORTY-FIVE YEARS

Rev. C. M. Perry of Bolton Retires from the Ministry. At Bolton Sunday Rev. C. M. Perry preached his last sermon at the Congregational church. He has been pastor for eleven years. The day also marked his retirement from the active ministry at the age of 70, after forty-five years spent in preaching. Mr. Perry was born in Holden, Mass., in 1839. On his father's side he is descended from John Perry, Puritan, who came to Boston in 1631. On his mother's side he traces his ancestry back to Robert Bruce, the Scottish chief.

Consul Alfred A. Winslow of Valparaiso reports that the Japanese steamer America Maru arrived in this port on June 8, 1909, direct from Japan, via Hong Kong, being out only 47 days. This is one of three steamers owned by the Toyo Kisen Kaisha company of Yokohama that are to ply between Japan and the coast of South America, with Valparaiso as the most southern port.

MURRAY'S Boston Store WILLIMANTIC, CONN.

A Splendid Assortment of Dress Fabrics

In fabrics of woolen silk, comprising many weaves, colorings and qualities, a stock large in variety, one with offerings remarkable in price.

Woolen fabrics of black and many colors in Broadcloth, Serge, Satin, Grenfell, Ottoman. Prices range from 80c to $1.50 a yard.

Black Silks which give satisfactory service, for a moderate price are—

27-inch Taffeta at 85c yard. 40-inch Taffeta at 95c yard. 36-inch Taffeta at $1.00, $1.50 yard.

Messaline Silks in widths 20, 22 and 25 inch, according to width are $1.00, $1.25, $1.75 yard.

Moire Velour, 20-inch $1.00, 27-inch $1.60 yard.

86-inch White Linen Waisting line, medium or coarse weave, 30c, 50c, 75c yard.

Bed Coverings

of good size in many grades and colorings at a reasonably low price.

Cotton Bed Blankets, a pair 45c to $1.00.

Wool Bed Blankets, a pair $2.50 to $5.50.

Home-made Comforters, $1.50.

Comforters of many styles, filled with clean cotton, $3.00 to $5.00.

Checked Bed Blankets in many color combinations, a pair $3.50.

Crib Blankets, blue or pink, 75c, $1.00.

Robe Blankets in many colorings and designs, with cord to match, for $2.75.

The H. C. Murray Co.

Agents Ladies' Home Journal Paper Patterns.

'Tween Season Time Is GAS HEATER Time

WILLIMANTIC GAS & ELECTRIC LIGHT CO.

ELMORE & SHEPARD, (Successors to Sessions & Elmore) Embalmers and Funeral Directors, 60-62 North Street, Telephone connection.

THIS IS THE WEEK FOR CANNING Peaches

H. E. READE, 717 Main Street, Willimantic, sept29d

CHESBRO has a new Cucumber Cold Cream Soap—25c per box. The Opera House Drug Store sept21d.

L. M. REED has the agency for the Travelers Life and Accident Co. of Hartford, Ct., and the United States Health and Accident Ins. Co. of Saginaw, Mich. Write for rates and full particulars. Box 221, Willimantic, Ct.

HIRMAN N. FENN, UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER, 41 Church St., Willimantic, Ct. Telephone.

WILLIMANTIC, DANIELSON, PUTNAM

WILLIMANTIC

Rev. J. O. Barrows of Stonington Has Pocket Picked—Loss $25.

There was a sick case of pocket-picking Tuesday morning at the local meeting of the board of the 10-10 Central Vermont train. The loss was $25.

Rev. Mr. Barrows came to this city on an early train from his home and was boarding the Central Vermont train to go to Storrs when he was to look after some cemetery work. He was jostled in the crowd by a man coming out of the station and another going to it down he found that his wallet, containing $25, was missing. He has since been out upon the streets and saw the two men who had bumped into him, but before he could call the attention of the authorities to them they had made their escape.

Mr. Barrows described the men as being about 30 years old, wearing dark suits and derby hats. They were fairly well dressed. The minister left this city on the 4:08 Central Vermont train to go to Storrs to finish his errand.

Attempted Suicide on Wedding Anniversary. Mrs. Myron Willis, 120 Commercial street, New Britain, attempted to commit suicide by drinking laudanum on Saturday night on Main street about 9 o'clock. Emetics were administered and Mrs. Willis was taken to the hospital. Saturday is the anniversary of the Willis couple's wedding, and according to Mrs. Willis, her husband, who is a brick maker, met her on the street and refused to recognize her. She became despondent and tried to end her life.

Myron Willis says the reason for his wife's action was due to an abscess in her ear and she was afraid to undergo a second operation. He attributes statements that she made relative to family troubles as due to her condition from the effects of the laudanum.

Mrs. Willis was formerly Miss Lillian Tucker and lived in Willimantic. Mrs. E. S. Tucker, who lives on the Camp Ground, is her mother, and with her husband, who is a brick maker in this city, Mrs. Willis formerly lived here.

Democrats Promise No Sensations. As far as can be learned there are no sensations to be sprung at the democratic caucus, but a number of the prospective members are understood, as they will poll a heavy vote. The democrats have practically all the plums in the political pudding locally.

Brings Replevin Suit. Attorney George E. Hinman brought a replevin suit Tuesday morning for Moses Haddad in connection with the property of the late Mrs. Haddad. J. Hastings was pressed into service and was busy Tuesday in the effort to serve notice on Swidan.

East Hartford Pariah Buys Land at Coventry Lake. St. James Church Ecclesiastical society of East Hartford has purchased a tract of land at Coventry Lake, a tract of land, 280 feet bordering on the lake front, about a quarter of a mile from the east end of the lake. The land is to be used for camping and cottage purposes by the members of that parish. It is said that the purchase was made for the use of the boys of the parish and the remainder at either end is utilized for the erection of a couple of cottages for the adults of the parish.

ASHFORD ASSOCIATION Opens Eighty-Fifth Annual Meeting With Baptist Church at Spring Hill—Centenary of Parish. The Ashford Baptist association opened its eighty-fifth annual meeting with the First Baptist church of Mansfield at Spring Hill Tuesday.

Tuesday forenoon programme included an address of welcome by Rev. Leonard Smith, pastor of the church, a solo by Mrs. E. P. Fellows of Brooklyn, N. Y., and a prayer by Rev. A. B. Todd.

In the afternoon a missionary service was held, commencing at 7 o'clock, with the service delivered by Mrs. J. L. Deering of Japan and was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Church's Centenary. In conjunction with the annual meeting the Spring Hill church is celebrating its 100th anniversary and the program included an historical address by the pastor, Rev. Leonard Smith, who is himself observing his twentieth anniversary as pastor of the church.

The Spring Hill Baptist church was organized in 1809 with thirty-seven members, and the first pastor was Josiah Bradley, with Eliza Bradley and William Bennett as the first deacons. During the pastorate of Rev. A. J. Chapin, that began in 1878, the meeting house was built on the site of the present one, which was moved to its present site, where it is now doing duty as a tenement house on Maple avenue, being well known as the "Beaver". The present church edifice at Spring Hill was built on the site of the old one at a cost of $4,000. In 1892 the church was incorporated under the laws of the state. Its present membership is 107.

Pastor for Twenty Years. Rev. Leonard Smith, the pastor, was born in England in 1852 and received his education up to his 14th year in the common schools of that land and in his 15th year was graduated from the English Commercial and Classical academy at Stone, Staffordshire, and then commenced upon a commercial career that he followed until his 21st year, when he came to this country and joined Calvary Baptist church, New York, and followed for about three years until he was called to the First Baptist church of Mansfield at Spring Hill, where, with the exception of ten months spent in Minnesota, he has remained actively on that field as pastor.

Rev. Mr. Smith, politically is a staunch republican, active in local and state affairs, and is very much an American, notwithstanding his birth.

SETTLED BY M. J. KELLEY. Norwich Agent of Carpenters' Union Ends Labor Trouble. M. J. Kelley of Norwich was in town Tuesday and straightened out the labor difficulties that have been hampering the work of the building industry on Jackson street that Joseph A. Martin is doing. The trouble is said to have arisen over the signing of a portion of a contract. Mr. Martin

DANIELSON

No License Campaign Opens Tonight—Democrat Talk of Nominating Three Selectmen—Waldo Block Being Remodeled.

Miss Lucy Frazier visited relatives in Norwich Tuesday. Mrs. Margaret Smart of Danbury is spending a few days in town. Arthur Leach of Wauvegan has entered school in Oberlin, O., to take a medical course, but without infringing any rules of the organization.

Quot Match Off. The proposed quilt pitching match between the Acorns of this city and the Oxford team of South Manchester has been declared, off owing to the style of paraphernalia used by the local team. The Oxford team use seven to ten pound quilts and the locals four pounders. The former team play with the quilts even with the ground and the Acorns have it projecting above the ground. Manager William Higgins of the Acorns recently received a letter from Manager J. P. Craig of the Oxford team that as the styles were different he would not bring his team here.

Political Forecast. One prominent democratic officeholder who was out Tuesday doing a little quiet campaigning for the interior set of the United States district judge, George B. McCracken will be nominated for first selectman on the ticket. He further said the chances for his election were bright owing to the contest for selectmen's honors Tuesday night at the republican caucus.

Going to Stafford Fair. Today, if weather conditions are right, there will be a big exodus of local people at the Stafford fair. This being the largest of the length of time since the spring months. Caucus notices have been issued by both the republican and democratic parties.

Remodeling Waldo Block. Work was completed yesterday remodeling the interior of the Waldo block, on Main street. A new floor is to be laid and many other changes effected. The building is being more modern in its arrangement.

Rainfall Over Five Inches. The total rainfall during the past week is in excess of five inches, this being the greatest amount of water that has fallen in this length of time since the spring months.

Net Gain Seventeen. Eighty-three names have been taken off the voting list of the town of Killingly by reason of deaths, removals and other causes. A net gain of seventeen names was added to the list on last Saturday, making a net gain of 17 names for the year. The names of the new voters are from the First district, which includes Danielson.

Office Vacant. The office of assessor of weights and measures is vacant in the town of Killingly. The vacancy is to be filled after the annual town election. The office was held for several years by John Healy, who died at the beginning of the present year.

Town Officers' Salaries. The following accounts show the expense of town officers' salaries and election expenses for the past year: Selectmen, $125.00; assessors, $100.00; auditors, $21; registrars of voters, $114.45; general election expenses, $345.19.

To Proceed on Holliness. Rev. Ralph S. Cushman, pastor of the Methodist church, is arranging a series of sermons on "A Plain Account of the Leading of the Scriptures concerning the Holy Spirit," in which the sermons are to be given are to be announced.

Firmen to Purchase Pool Table. Chief A. P. Woodward and John Jackson are to purchase a pool table for the representatives of the Danielson firmen's association to purchase a pool table to be placed in the new building at the corner of the new central fire station. The association now has a fund of over $400.

No License Meeting Tonight. The voters of the town will have their say on the license question in favor of no license this (Wednesday) evening in the Town hall, when the temperance campaign will be inaugurated. The meeting is to be held at 7 o'clock.

Democrats May Nominate Three Selectmen. The democrats of Killingly are discussing the possibility of nominating three candidates for selectmen in this town. Those members of the party who want three candidates claim that the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe, obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

PUTNAM

Jacob Kahn's Fines and Costs Amount to $104.79—Eric H. Johnson Declines Nomination—Plea of Non-Suit Entered in Girard Case.

Jacob Kahn, charged with receiving silk machine stolen from the mill of the Hammond & Knowlton company, is being tried by Judge Russell in the city court Tuesday morning. On the first four counts he was fined $70, on the fifth count he was fined $30, making a total fine with the costs of $104.79. The first four counts alleged the purchase by Kahn of the stolen goods, the fifth count the fifth a purchase of ten pounds of silk. Under the statute Judge Russell could have given Kahn a sentence of not more than six months in addition to the fine, but in view of the fact that Howard James, from whom Kahn purchased the stolen goods, had been sentenced to a period of three months, Judge Russell showed clemency to Kahn and placed him on probation for a period of three months. Judge Russell showed clemency to Kahn and placed him on probation for a period of three months. Judge Russell showed clemency to Kahn and placed him on probation for a period of three months.

Back from Dakota. Monroe Baker of Platte, S. D., has been visiting relatives in this section. Mr. Baker went west about two score years ago. The vacancy is to be filled after the annual town election. The office was held for several years by John Healy, who died at the beginning of the present year.

Remodeling Waldo Block. Work was completed yesterday remodeling the interior of the Waldo block, on Main street. A new floor is to be laid and many other changes effected. The building is being more modern in its arrangement.

Rainfall Over Five Inches. The total rainfall during the past week is in excess of five inches, this being the greatest amount of water that has fallen in this length of time since the spring months.

Net Gain Seventeen. Eighty-three names have been taken off the voting list of the town of Killingly by reason of deaths, removals and other causes. A net gain of seventeen names was added to the list on last Saturday, making a net gain of 17 names for the year. The names of the new voters are from the First district, which includes Danielson.

Office Vacant. The office of assessor of weights and measures is vacant in the town of Killingly. The vacancy is to be filled after the annual town election. The office was held for several years by John Healy, who died at the beginning of the present year.

Town Officers' Salaries. The following accounts show the expense of town officers' salaries and election expenses for the past year: Selectmen, $125.00; assessors, $100.00; auditors, $21; registrars of voters, $114.45; general election expenses, $345.19.

To Proceed on Holliness. Rev. Ralph S. Cushman, pastor of the Methodist church, is arranging a series of sermons on "A Plain Account of the Leading of the Scriptures concerning the Holy Spirit," in which the sermons are to be given are to be announced.

Firmen to Purchase Pool Table. Chief A. P. Woodward and John Jackson are to purchase a pool table for the representatives of the Danielson firmen's association to purchase a pool table to be placed in the new building at the corner of the new central fire station. The association now has a fund of over $400.

No License Meeting Tonight. The voters of the town will have their say on the license question in favor of no license this (Wednesday) evening in the Town hall, when the temperance campaign will be inaugurated. The meeting is to be held at 7 o'clock.

Democrats May Nominate Three Selectmen. The democrats of Killingly are discussing the possibility of nominating three candidates for selectmen in this town. Those members of the party who want three candidates claim that the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe, obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

Corporation Counsel George W. Meadon, Jr., and the judge who interrupted by cries of "Objection" and the chairman had to call for order repeatedly. Among other things Judge Woodward said, "The reason for his nominating Mr. Peckham was that he believed him to be a liberal. This was a direct crack at the present incumbent, Judge W. C. Conliffe. Mr. Conliffe obtained the floor, said he did not propose to waste the time of the voters by any lengthy discourse and nominated Alphonse L. Gellinas for first selectman.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

Bad Weather Compels Postponement of Fair—Sixty Names Added to Voting List.

The Stafford fair, which was to have begun on Tuesday had to be postponed on account of the storm. Several of the showmen, each of whom were unable to stay in their tents on account of the rain. If the weather is favorable, the fair will open today (Wednesday) afternoon.

At the session of the registrars on Monday, six names were added to the voting list. This is an unusually large number for an off year and is due to the activity of the temperance cause. The names of the new voters are from the First district, which includes Danielson.

Miss Rand Music Supervisor. Miss Frieda Rand of Monson has been elected supervisor of music in the public schools to succeed Miss Harriet Werner, who resigned. Miss Rand is now supervisor in Holland and Wales and comes well recommended.

Miss Lucy Frazier visited relatives in Norwich Tuesday. Mrs. Margaret Smart of Danbury is spending a few days in town. Arthur Leach of Wauvegan has entered school in Oberlin, O., to take a medical course, but without infringing any rules of the organization.