Lodge Notes and Fraternal Interests

St. Rose Branch Growing—Farewell to Neopian Deputy—Social Whistles—Foresters Debate Important Matter—Odd Fellows' New By-Laws.

At the stated meeting of Norwich council, No. 726, on Tuesday evening at the Buckingham Memorial, Orator Adams was instructed by vote of the council to make arrangements for an evening of whist on Oct. 12th, which is the next regular meeting night of the council. On this whist evening the members are expected to bring some friend or a former member, and it is anticipated that it will be one of the largest gatherings held by the council in a long while. All the members are expected to take the plan up with enthusiasm and every man is to see that he attends with another fellow in tow. The orator was also instructed to prepare for a ladies' night some time between now and the first of December, but no specific time for this was set.

The death of Brother E. P. Gardner by a runaway accident at Thompson, Pa., was reported and the usual committee appointed. A curious coincidence was noted that the check received from Mr. Gardner for his last assessment had been deposited the very day of his death. He had been a member of the order for twenty-two years.

DEGREE OF POCAHONTAS.

The first of its evenings of whist in Foresters' hall was held last Monday by Neosho club of the Sebequonah council members, with a good attendance considering the stormy night. The evening was one of delightful sociability for the nine tables playing. The attractive prizes were awarded as follows: First, Mrs. S. C. Culver, 46; a salad dish; Clarence Smith, 45, a necktie; second, Mrs. Stella Champlin, 35, china hair receiver; E. A. Kinn, 37, pair of suspenders; consolation, Mrs. Annie Edmond and George H. Stanton. Coffee and cake were served and notice given that the next whist would be in two weeks and also that on Oct. 7th Mrs. Jane Holms would entertain the club at her home at No. 164 Boswell avenue.

FORESTERS.

Court Quinebaug, No. 128, closed the present quarter with its regular meeting Tuesday evening in Foresters' hall. There was a good attendance, but not much except routine business to take up the time. At the next meeting the quarterly reports will be received. It is expected that these will show very satisfactory progress during the last three months.

The regular meeting of Court City of Norwich, No. 82, held in Foresters' hall, Friday evening, was largely attended, many of the older members being present to hear some of the members debate on a certain question of Forestry, which was very interesting and instructive to all present. A circular was read from our newly elected supreme chief ranger, John F. Cosgrove of Hartford, which was very encouraging to the Foresters of Connecticut.

ORDER OF PROTECTION.

Five members representing Norwich lodge, No. 248, made Deputy W. J. Walden a farewell call Sunday afternoon and evening at his home in New London, spending several hours with him in a delightful social way. Deputy Walden is to go to Sag Harbor, where he is to be manager of a grain business, which will keep him there all the week and hardly give him time to visit Norwich lodge at almost every meeting, as has been his custom, while he was its deputy. The members will miss his friendly and inspiring calls and they made up their minds to give him some noticeable indication of the esteem in which they held him by this call at his home. He was very glad to see them and entertained them in fine style while they were there. Mr. Walden does not expect to remove his family from New London, but will return there to visit his wife and son as often as his work in Sag Harbor will allow. Norwich lodge held its usual meeting Monday evening at the Buckingham Memorial, Warden E. Percy Armstrong presiding. Routine business was all that was on hand to engage the attention of the members.

JUNIOR AMERICAN MECHANICS.

The 100 cent tax was increased from sixty to eighty cents at the state convention in Danbury on Tuesday, and an appropriation for $200 made to be used in organization work in the hopes of doubling the membership the coming year. Retiring State Councilor W. O. Dauchy was presented a gold watch and chain in honor. The next session will be held in Bridgeport. The following officers were elected and installed by National Councilor P. H. Mason of Newbury, Mass.: Councilor, J. W. Wellington, New Haven; vice-councilor, C. Clapp, Danbury; treasurer, E. L. Golden, Waterbury; conductor, W. Holmes, Waterbury; warden, J. A. Dolan, New Britain; inside sentinel, Paul Clarkson, Bridgeport; outside sentinel, A. Baker, Danbury; chaplain, D. E. Alling, New Haven.

ODD FELLOWS.

Uncas lodge, No. 11, had a meeting Monday evening in Odd Fellows' hall with an average attendance. Routine business was the order of the evening, but next week the meeting will be an important one as the revised by-laws are to be presented and adopted. It is ten years since a general revision of the by-laws of the lodge has been made, but as they had to be amended in some points now to conform to the new constitution issued by the grand lodge, it was thought a good plan to revise them throughout and a committee has been hard at work on this for some time. They will present this report for acceptance Monday night. One candidate had the third degree conferred upon him Tuesday evening at the regular meeting of Shetucket lodge, No. 27.

CATHOLIC WOMEN'S BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION.

St. Rose branch held its regular meeting Friday evening in Hibernian hall, the president, Mrs. Teresa Shanahan, conducting the meeting. Six new names were proposed to be acted upon at the next meeting, giving promise that the local society is on the road to increased growth and a large membership.

The matter of social features for the season was talked over and it was voted to begin a series of whistles, holding two each month, at intervals of two weeks. The first will be next Friday night. The plan for these was adopted of having each member fill at least one table and two if possible. Dancing will follow the whist. It was also decided to hold some kind of entertainment about Christmas time.

HIBERNIANS.

The regular meeting of Division No. 11, held Sunday afternoon in Hibernian hall, President Michael J. Donohue presiding, was a short session. Arrangements were made for holding the regular weekly meetings again at the summer term. This plan will begin in October. Division No. 11 held its regular meeting Tuesday evening in Hibernian hall. A report was received that the degree train was making good progress in preparing for the class in the degree, and another afternoon of practice would be held Sunday.

100 Per Cent. Satisfaction

Some clothing is perfectly satisfactory in regard to style, but falls short when it comes to quality, construction and price, it is only twenty-five per cent. satisfactory. Other clothing is right in style and quality, but falls short in construction and price, it is only fifty per cent. satisfactory. And so on. Only a small percentage of clothing made is one hundred per cent. satisfactory.

The kind you'll find here is absolutely correct in style, no better quality fabrics and findings can be put into clothes than the kind employed in the making of ours; the construction and workmanship is flawless, our prices are lower, everything considered than those you'll pay elsewhere — it is one hundred per cent. satisfactory.

Besides, our stock is unusually large and our variety of models, fabrics weaves and patterns is very broad. No matter what may be your individual taste or what price you are prepared to pay, we have the garments that will please you most.
