REASONS FOR APPEAL FROM LAWRENCE WILL

Claimed That Document Was Changed After Executed and Not Properly Completed—Trial Wanted in Another County. Attorneys for an infant child, Edward R. True, Jr., of Washington, D. C., one of the heirs of the late Sebastian Lawrence of New London, who left a fortune of $1,000,000, today filed with the clerk of the superior court their reasons for appealing from the will as approved by the judge of probate in New London.

Error of a Waitress

Three women patrons at a Broadway restaurant this week enjoyed a nice lunch there and departed $2.55 when they went in through the error the waitress made in making change. To pay for their lunch, which came to 45 cents, one of the party tendered a $5 bill. When the waitress made the change she supposed that it had been three ones and four one-dollar bills, but later discovered that it had been three ones and the original five. Several clues were followed up in the hope of locating the three customers, but without success, and so far they do not think they could rectify the mistake. As the waitress has to stand the loss, there will be a slim pay envelope for her at the end of the week.

Mystic.—Nicholas Duer will move his family from Greenmanville avenue to a farm in the Burnetts corners district.

Progress on the Parochial Buildings—Meeting of Young Ladies' Garden. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gaskell Leave for California. The monthly meeting of the Garden Marie Jeanne, the members of which are thirteen young ladies of the parish, was held in Parish hall on this week. There was the customary drill under the direction of the captain, Miss Bernadette Garand, and this was executed with such finish that the members are planned to give a public exhibition some time this month during the parish fair. The resignation of Miss Marianne Marcurelle who was married this week was received with regret. It is expected, however, to increase the membership by a number of additions later on.

PHYSICAL DEPARTMENT

Plans Made for Coming Year and New Equipment Will Be Secured. The physical department committee of the Y. M. C. A. held a special meeting Friday evening at the association building, at which General Secretary Merrill presided in the absence of Chairman H. H. Pettis. Recommendations made by Physical Director Bandlow were considered and approved, among which was the authorization for securing new medicine ball, basketball and indoor baseball bat. It was decided to hold open nights for public gymnasium exhibitions in the first week of each month, beginning in the first week of November. With a view to securing the same uniform by the physical department members it was voted that the gymnasium colors be dark blue and white and that incoming members and those securing new suits be advised to secure blue shirts and white running pants or gray turner pants, the latter being preferred for the older members.

The proposal to try to arrange for some sort of event in which the schools of the city might contest, probably a bare and hounds paper chase, was favorably considered and the matter placed in the hands of a committee with power. Physical Director Bandlow reported that the gymnasium colors be dark blue and white and that incoming members and those securing new suits be advised to secure blue shirts and white running pants or gray turner pants, the latter being preferred for the older members.
