BROADWAY THEATER. At the Broadway Theater on Wednesday, Oct. 13.

A Stubborn Cinderella, the most successful of all musical comedies which broke the records in Chicago for consecutive performances, having played 500 times at Chicago's best theater, the Princes, six months at the Broadway theater, New York, and 21 weeks in Boston and Philadelphia, is now making new records on the road with Harry Stone, a Stubborn Cinderella in the feature role as Mac. Mr. Stone has always been a popular favorite since his initiation in musical comedy.

The original production comes here almost direct from its run in the cities. It is one of the biggest successes that we have here this season with its original, massive production, pretty girls and select company. There are 20 catchy song numbers, most of which are hits. The songs: "When You First Kiss the Last Girl You Love," sung by Grace Edmund, the prima donna, is one of the best songs. Joe Howard ever wrote. A Stubborn Cinderella is under the personal direction of Mort H. Singer, the producer of the film "The Place and the Girl," and other big hits in musical comedy. In the cast with Harry Stone and Grace Edmund are Lillian Goldsmith, who plays the girl in "The Time, the Place and the Girl" company; W. H. White, Lester Crawford, Francis Pierlot, Claire Noelke, Charles Taligh and Josephine Baird and a chorus of 50, including the famous pony ballet.

Seats on sale at the box office, Wauregan house, and Bicket, Pletcher & Co.'s on Monday, Oct. 11, at 9 o'clock.

OLYMPIC THEATER. He Tried On Handcuffs, The Fisherman and The Brothers, Three Feature Pictures.

He Tried on Handcuffs—An hour before the ceremony the expectant bridegroom is reminded that he had forgotten the license. He rushes off to the city hall to obtain the important document, and while waiting for the form to be filed, he is curiously examining the pair of handcuffs the sheriff has laid upon the desk. He accidentally snags them upon his wrist, but cannot wait the sheriff's return to obtain his release and starts for the church, being arrested as an escaping prisoner just as he reaches the church door, after a series of exciting experiences. At the police station explanations are made, the sheriff arrives with the key to the cuffs and the ceremony is performed without further delay. A lively and laughable comedy subject and a sure winner.

The Fisherman—A tragic tale rich in tense dramatic situations and presenting a series of exceptionally beautiful marine views. An old fisherman and his son, set out on a fishing trip in spite of an approaching storm. A small upset the tiny craft and the boy was carried away by the waves, disappearing in the thick mist of or the old man clings to the keel of the overturned boat until rescued by his brave wife, who faces the dangers of the sea.

The Brothers is a clever story and intensely interesting. It is photographically perfect, artistically interpreted and will without a doubt prove a sensation.

William T. Delaney will sing two of the latest illustrated songs, Matinee 2.30. Evening continuous from 7.30 to 10.30 p. m.

BREED THEATER. "The Tower of Nesle," Magnificent Film d'Art.

Another superb motion picture has been secured for the delectation of the patrons of the Breed Theater this week, and will be shown under the title of "The Tower of Nesle," being an historical drama adapted from the famous novel of the same name by Alexander Dumas. In this silent drama appear some of the finest actors on the French stage, among them being the Henri Kraus of Sara Bernhardt's theater, and seen here at the Breed in the successfully artistic picture entitled "The Tower of Nesle," which takes the form of the thread of this story takes place during the first part of the reign of Louis X. and are a series of dramatic situations, and the picture has been surrounded by such talent as W. Kraus, and as complete in its scope as any dramatic production.

Another whole reel of comedy, funny as good and in many ways funnier than the success of last week, "M."

Wife's Goes to the Country, is on for the first part of the week, as well as a big sensational robbery picture.

Complying with the public's taste for variety, the Breed has secured something new in the line of a singer, and at today's matinee Frank Rousey takes part in a selected programme of high grade and illustrated songs. He has just completed a long engagement at one of the largest theaters in Boston, his success having been associated with all of the larger theaters of that city, as well as those in other New England cities.

ANOTHER RECORD. It is becoming a regular weekly occurrence for the New Haven road to break records in its freight department at Waterbury, and last week it added a new record to its list of achievements. During the week more cars of freight were despatched from Waterbury than ever before, the total of 1,445 beating the previous record which was made in the week ending Sept. 25, by 133 cars.

The number of cars received there last week was 1,312, making a total of 3,757 cars handled during the week.
