

SWELL DRESSED BANK ROBBER

Driven to Bay by Town Marshal Bandit Blew Out His Own Brains

DROVE UP TO BANK IN AUTOMOBILE

His Companion, the Chauffeur, Arrested—Savings Bank at Highland Park, a Suburb of Chicago, the Scene of a Deliberate and Sensational Hold-Up—Cashier, Bookkeeper and Receiving Teller Covered with Revolver

Chicago, Oct. 13.—A fashionably dressed bandit who early this afternoon robbed the savings bank of D. M. Erskine & Co. in Highland Park, Ill., an aristocratic suburb on the Lake committed suicide by shooting himself in the mouth when driven to bay by the Highland Park marshal and a posse of citizens. A companion of the robber who had driven him to the bank in money, was captured immediately after the robbery, forcing the principal perpetrator of the daring daylight crime to flee on foot.

Running Duel with Town Marshal. He was engaged in a running duel with Town Marshal John Sheehan, who was the target for many bullets from the fugitive bandit's revolver, one of which went through the sleeve of his coat. After running several blocks and falling to drive back his pursuers, the robber ran into a shed closely followed by Sheehan. When he saw Sheehan enter the shed with his revolver leveled at his head the fugitive put the muzzle of his own revolver into his mouth and fired a shot which resulted in his death almost immediately.

Neither of the Men Known. Neither he nor his companion is known. The man arrested, who appeared in the guise of a chauffeur, positively refused after his arrest to discuss anything concerning his or his companion's identity.

Bank Employees Forced into Cashier's Cage. The robbery was conducted in a deliberate and sensational manner. The bandit stole about $500 in gold coin and bills after he had forced John C. Duffy, cashier of the bank; Miss Nellie Fitzgerald, bookkeeper; Joseph F. Richards, the receiving teller, into the cashier's cage just after business closed for the day.

Two Victims Escaped to the Bank. In the morning the automobile bearing the robber and his chauffeur drove up to the bank. The man who in his head entered the bank and introduced a Mr. Williams to the cashier, Duffy said he knew of a Mr. Williams at Libertyville, Ill., some miles west of Highland Park. The latter, a blond man, wearing a gray suit, and returned a little after two o'clock in the afternoon. He entered the bank, which his companion remained outside in the automobile. "Did you and Williams?" asked Duffy, when his visitor re-entered.

ONLY ONE WAY TO SETTLE THE POLAR CONTROVERSY
Says Professor Jacoby, Columbia College Professor Astronomy.

New York, Oct. 13.—Only the production of astronomical records can settle the polar controversy and these records are being sought in any way. This, in effect, was the paradoxical statement made today by Prof. Harold Jacoby, Rutherford professor of astronomy at Columbia university, during a public lecture. He said that he believed the North pole had been reached, but that the records of polar discovery have been published, the final verdict would have to rest upon the veracity of the explorer, because of the possibility of fabricating polar records. In saying that the pole had been attained he did not specify whether he accepted the claims of Peary or Cook or the claims of both.

DECLARED PROFESSOR JACOBY. "It is possible to fabricate records without ever visiting the locality at all, and yet only the astronomical records will settle the question. The public exhibition of the instruments used in the observations were made is quite immaterial."

St. Petersburg, Oct. 13.—A bomb exploded in a suburb of the city today, killing one of the two men who had it in their possession and wounding the other. The man arrested was a young man attempted to conceal a second bomb and a revolver. The men were dressed as laborers, but it is believed that they were disguised revolutionists, who were on their way to the scene of an intended crime when one of their instruments of death was accidentally exploded.

BIG LABOR UNION SUIT, $240,000 DAMAGES CLAIMED.
Attorney for the Plaintiffs Outlines His Case to the Jury.

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 13.—Attorney Daniel Davenport, for the plaintiffs in the big labor union suit of D. E. Loewe & Co. against the Hatters' union of Danbury, in which damages of $240,000 are claimed because of an alleged boycott, testified today before the jury in outlining his side of the case to the jury. In the course of his remarks he characterized the American Federation of Labor as a "conspiracy of organized propagandists."

HE TRACED THE EVOLUTION OF THE LABOR UNION FROM SMALL LOCAL TO CENTRAL BODIES, AND INTO THE GREAT CENTRAL ORGANIZATION, THE FEDERATION OF LABOR.

HE EXPLAINED HOW THE UNITED HATTERS' UNION OF DANBURY WAS FILLED WITH THIS BODY. HE EXPLORED THE NATURE OF THE SHERMAN ANTI-TRUST LAW ENACTED IN 1890 AND ITS RELATION TO INTERESTS OF THE HATTERS IN DANBURY, AND A GRANDSON OF THE LATE MARCUS A. HANNA, WERE MARRIED ON JULY 30 AT BRIDGEPORT, CONNECTICUT.

HE SAID THAT THE HATS MADE BY THE LOEWE FIRM WERE LARGELY SOLD IN STATES OUTSIDE OF NEW YORK. HE SAID THAT THE LOSS OF THE FIRM IN PROFITS IN TWO YEARS LAST YEAR, THE ALLEGED ATTACK UPON THEIR BUSINESS BEING $40,000, ATTORNEY DAVENPORT ASSURED THE JURY THAT SUFFICIENT EVIDENCE WOULD BE PRODUCED TO PROVE THAT THE DEFENDANTS INTENTED TO VIOLATE THE CLAIMS OF THE PLAINTIFF AS SET FORTH IN THE COMPLAINT. IN REFERRING TO THE ANSWERS OF THE DEFENDANTS HE SAID THAT HE BELIEVED THAT THEY WERE RESIDENTS OF THE DISTRICT OF CONNECTICUT.

HE SAID THAT HE BELIEVED THAT THE PLAINTIFFS WERE ENTITLED TO A STATUTE OF DAMAGES OF $240,000 IN A LABOR CONVENTION IN 1907, BUT JUDGE PLATT SUGGESTED THAT THIS BE OMITTED UNTIL THE ADMISSIBILITY OF THE EVIDENCE WAS PASSED UPON.

IT IS UNDERSTOOD THAT WHEN THE CASE IS RESUMED TOMORROW D. E. LOEWE WILL BE CALLED AS THE FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PLAINTIFFS.

BODY NOT THAT OF MISS EDWARDS

Tiverton Authorities Believed that They were Near Solution of Mystery.

VAIN EFFORTS TO ESTABLISH IDENTITY
Medical Examiner Stimson Holds Autopsy on the Torso—Cause of Death Either Not Ascertained or Not Made Public—Other Portions of the Body Found Yesterday at Point far Removed from First Findings.

Tiverton, R. I., Oct. 13.—After several hours of apparent confidence that they had identified the body of a young woman found in scattered portions on the outskirts of this town, the authorities tonight again lapsed into a state of extreme doubt. It had been thought that the body was that of a girl who had been thrown from a place of off-Barnstable road nearly a mile west of the point where the rest of the legs were found on Monday. As in the case of all the other parts those discovered today were hidden just off a bypath. This is taken to indicate that a vehicle must have been the disposer of the body, making excursions into the underbrush at various points along the road to rid himself of his ghastly burden.

SENSATIONAL ATTACK UPON NOMINEE GAYNOR

By Assistant District Attorney Elder of Kings County.

New York, Oct. 13.—The principal management today in the political warfare preceding the municipal election was a sensational attack upon William Gaynor, justice of the state supreme court and democratic nominee for mayor, by Robert H. Elder, assistant district attorney of Kings County, who has represented the state in a fight to enforce the anti-betting laws on the race tracks. The attack, in the form of a carefully prepared statement, was designed to support and supplement the charges made on Monday night by William M. Ivins, a republican, but a staunch supporter, that Gaynor, in his capacity as a justice of the supreme court, sought to defeat the purpose of the anti-gambling statute.

THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE, OTTO T. BARNARD, was the only one of the three major party nominees to do any active campaigning today. He spoke to a newly organized republican club at Columbia university, in the afternoon, and at several East Side political gatherings tonight. He confined his speeches to a general denunciation of Tammany.

JUSTICE MAYNARD was busy tonight reading Mr. Elder's statement, but he did not intimate whether he would make a lengthy reply or any reply at all. Mr. Ivins' charges he branded as lies.
