WHAT ARE THE EARLY SIGNS OF RYCH

Set Forth by Rev. Dr. M. S. Kaufman in Sunday Morning Sermon—Big Crowds at Afternoon Meeting for Men—Armory Crowded Sunday Evening to Hear Dr. Stough.

At Trinity Methodist church, Sunday morning, the pastor, Rev. Dr. M. S. Kaufman, spoke on What the Union Revival Ought to Mean in Norwich. He said in part: Ever since coming to this fair city, my deepest desire has been to see here a genuine revival of the genuine religion. Because it is my firm conviction that no other need is so loud and imperative as this. For there is nothing in my judgment quite so powerful in lifting to a better condition every real interest of any community than is a divine quickening of its moral and spiritual life.

While the collection was taken, Coroner Cunningham ordered the solo, "God Will Take Care of You," and was called upon for an encore by insistent applause.

Winds and Whirlwinds.
A few words from Hosea, "They have sown the wind and shall reap the whirlwind," made the text for Dr. Stough's sweeping arraignment of some of the aims designated as prevalent in the spiritual world. Referring to the fact that sowing and reaping are inseparable and that reaping in kind is the perpetual law dependent upon the physical world, he said in part: If this law is true, how much more true are the thousand times over in the spiritual world. There is an escape here and the harvest will be determined in its kind by the sowing. You tell me how a man in business is sowing the seed of dishonesty in the marketplace. How can the solid, substantial business of the world be conducted without the things of the spiritual world, re-creating the God who has poured blessings on them in a thousand ways.

There are men who are sowing an awful crop when they poison the imagination of the boys who hear their talk of street corners from the slums, and are a blight and poison to the community. They are opening the sluiceways of life to the incoming of every other kind of man, and are bringing to the city the name of God, whose name is good and holy. He'll reap it in the devastation of all that is good in his land.

There are men today who are sowing the seeds of dishonesty in the marketplace and in the world of business. How can the solid, substantial business of the world be conducted without the things of the spiritual world, re-creating the God who has poured blessings on them in a thousand ways.

TO TRY JAIL SENTENCES INSTEAD OF FINES.
Residents of No-License Towns Came Here and Got Drunk—Boys Bound Over.

There were nine men presented for intoxication in the court Saturday morning, and seven of them were from out of town. Judge Brown remarked that the number of persons presented for being drunk was constantly increasing, and he noticed that many of them were residents of towns near Norwich which were constantly sending Judge Brown thought it wrong for these men to come to Norwich and conduct themselves in such a way as to be a nuisance to the streets and have to be taken care of by the police, and after this he said he should try giving jail sentences to such persons, to see if it would lessen the evil. Saturday the nine men were fined $2 and costs each.

You Have Heard About the Catarrh Cure The Lee & Osgood Co. Guarantees.

The medical profession knows that eucalyptus is an absolutely certain germ destroyer, and with the active principle of eucalyptus as a base Hyomei is made more efficient, pleasant and quick acting by the addition of Thymol, an antiseptic and disinfectant largely employed in the Hysterian System, Guaiacol and other important medicinal agents are also included in the Hyomei formula, which, without doubt, is the greatest destroyer of catarrh germs the world has ever known.

Hyomei is a powerful, penetrating antiseptic that is pleasant to use. It does not contain a particle of cocaine, opium or any habit-forming or injurious drug. No dosing the stomach when you use Hyomei. Just breathe it in through the small inhaler that comes with each outfit.
