placing a steam heating plant in the Daville school, but this will not be installed this year.

PICTURE THEATERS Must Meet Rigid Requirements Under New Laws. Running a picture show is getting to be an occupation as hedged by legal restrictions as one other business that is less meted out this week and will be otherwise next week.

There are many rules, some old and some new. Hereafter all seats must be fastened to the floor in such a way as to make them immovable; there is to be no standing in the aisles or overcrowding of the house; the exits must be kept clear at all times during a show; the operators must be licensed and when in the operating booths must have reading licenses with them; no smoking is to be allowed in the operating booth and no inflammable materials kept there; the picture machine must not be operated more than twenty minutes at any one time without a rest of at least five minutes, and the booth must be thoroughly fireproof.

Nearly all of the above rules have been in force for a long time in Danielson, but the new rules are a few of the requirements that are new. The one requiring that the seats be fastened is regarded as particularly embarrassing in that it necessitates the use of nails or screws in the floors of the halls. This will not only spoil the floors for dancing, but the local halls being frequently used for that purpose, but will also prevent the rental of seats on the frequent occasions when the halls are used for purposes other than showing motion pictures.

The men in the picture business in Danielson are as conscientious as any of the responsibilities that rest upon them in taking all proper precaution to protect their audiences from injury, but they also feel that there should be a reasonable limit to what they are asked to do. They cite for one thing that they are asked to furnish asbestos lined booths and the question that the booths will be any more fireproof than the stoves now in use. All of the new rules must be complied with within two weeks or the places will be closed.

Waldo Block Modernized. The transformation of the Waldo block recently purchased and to be occupied by J. W. Gallup, progresses with the day and the building has commenced to take on a more modern appearance. The old fashioned veranda has been removed and the flag walk, tread upon for more than half a century, has been torn up and replaced by a smooth walk of cement. This walk is not completed, but will be by the end of this week. The interior is brightened by additional light admitted through plate glass windows which have replaced the little old ones. When all of the inside changes are completed the building will have undergone a big change.

BOARDING HOUSE THIEF Gets Sentence of Three Hundred Days in Jail and Costs of $11.00—Will Appeal. Andre Willenson, arrested at the instance of Chauncey C. Talbot, in Worcester, Wednesday afternoon, was given a sentence of 300 days in jail and charged with costs of $11.39 in the city court Thursday morning.

Willenson, first known here as Charles Wyman, was charged first on two counts with statutory burglary; this was later changed to two charges of larceny, for stealing the clothing and other articles belonging to Emile Benoit and C. C. Talbot, from their boarding house at 137 Elm street. Willenson pleaded guilty to the charge of larceny. Judge Russell gave him 150 days in jail on the first count and 120 days on the second. As seconds do not count as days served in jail sentence the prisoner is due to remain at Brooklyn about a year.

Willenson says he came to the United States from Amsterdam about three months ago. According to his story he worked for a time in a mattress factory in New York, but the confinement and nature of his occupation affected his lungs and he claims that he is a consumptive at the present time and feels sure that being confined in jail will result in his death.

Willenson says he will make an appeal to the New York court of his country and ask to be deported. It was learned Thursday that Willenson pawned the $25 suit he stole from Benoit for $1.30, and an effort was made to recover the suit in Worcester Thursday.

FELL UNDER FREIGHT—HAD LEG CRUSHED. Amputation Necessary—William Geaumont, 12, in Serious Condition at Day-Kimball Hospital.

William Geaumont, aged about 12 years, was seriously injured at North Grovesvendale Thursday afternoon when he fell from a freight train on which he was stealing a ride and had his left leg crushed under the wheels. The boy was brought to Putnam on the passenger train arriving here from Worcester just before 6 o'clock and was transferred in the ambulance, which was in waiting at the station, to the Day-Kimball hospital.

The little fellow was conscious when taken from the train and bore his injuries very bravely. At the hospital the leg was found to be in such condition as to necessitate amputation and the operation was performed during the evening.

Late Thursday night the boy was in very serious condition.

NEW RAILROAD OFFICES. Handsome Quarters of Western Division at Waterbury Will Be Occupied Next Week.

R. N. Squires, foreman of building of the western division of the New Haven road, said yesterday that he will have his work on the offices of the western division completed on Saturday. Although Supt. C. F. Lake has named Nov. 1 as the date on which he will transfer the office equipment here from New Haven, officials at the station believe that the change will be made Sunday.

To reach the offices it is necessary to climb eight flights of stairs. Running the length of the building is a corridor with offices on either side. The rooms are finished in the same manner. The woodwork of English oak and the walls and ceilings are finished in a rich salmon. Each room will be well lighted by numerous incandescent lights and in each there are attractive radiators.

The first room on the left of the corridor will be occupied by the time clerks, of whom G. A. Whitaker is the chief. Four other men will be employed in this department. Superintendent Lake's room comes next and at its side are his private apartments. The train dispatcher's room is a model in every particular. The chief dispatcher is William McLaughlin and he will be assisted by a force of twelve men. At the operating table four men can work and at the switchboard there is room for two more. The large battery box occupies one section of the room. The last room on the left will be devoted to the offices of Trainmasters G. A. Heller and W. H. Chase. In this room is the telephone switchboard which connects all departments. At the end of the corridor is a room where the records will be kept.

Coming up the corridor the first room on the right will be occupied by Magister Mechanic H. C. O'Leary and it is the only office which is furnished at present. Directly at its rear is Mr. O'Leary's private office. Division Engineer W. K. Spencer and his assistants, which comes next, and then follows a three private offices for consultants. —Waterbury Republican.
