AT BROADWAY THEATER.

The Old Homestead.

The ever pleasing The Old Homestead was at the Broadway theater Friday evening and attracted a large audience, for while the play remains the same there is always a freshness and wholesome atmosphere about it which attracts. It never fails to make good and keep the audience in laughter from start to finish.

It was well given by the company Friday night, Edward L. Snader making a good Joshua Whitcomb, while Frederick Maynard as Cy Prime and Charles H. Clarke as Seth contributed greatly to the character work. Maggie Bryner as Aunt Matilda, James and Fred Clark were all good and contributed to the success of the play, the remainder of the cast also giving good support.

The quartette sang a number of selections which were greatly enjoyed, while the band and orchestra made a hit.

A DIPLOMAT'S THANKSGIVING.

Belgian Minister is Thrown, Loses His Horse, but Gets a Dinner.

Washington, Nov. 26.—Count de Buisseret, the Belgian minister, yesterday enjoyed an unexpected Thanksgiving dinner. He had been out with the Chevy Chase hunt. A fox had been found and the count had been fast. M. de Buisseret lost the rest of the field, and in trying to get over a fence, he also lost his mount. M. de Buisseret found he had no horse broken, but felt lonely. Then he spied a farmhouse in the distance. He wended his way to the house and found the farmer and his family about to sit down to dinner. Nothing would do but that M. de Buisseret should join them. He did, and enjoyed himself. His good content was completed when, on returning to the city, he found his horse in its stall.

MORE EVANGELISTS MEETINGS

Owing to Holiday Season will be Planned Only from Week to Week—Church Members Should Take Others with Them—Short Sermon by Rev. E. S. Worcester in Individual Evangelism.

Broadway church had a large congregation Friday evening for a union service held in continuation of the recent evangelistic campaign.

With the pastor, Rev. E. S. Worcester, the ministers were seated upon the platform: Rev. Dr. S. H. Howe, Rev. P. C. Wright, Rev. Dr. S. H. Kaufman, Rev. Dr. J. R. Vory, A. Small part of the union chorus choir also occupied seats upon the platform, leading a spirited song, conducted by George A. Turner. Frederic W. Lester was organist.

Rev. C. H. Ricketts presented the report of the committee which had under advisement the continuation of the evangelistic meetings. He stated that the majority of meetings and duties coming at this time of the year for the membership of the various churches made it impossible for them to plan for most of the week at a time so that all that had been arranged for was one meeting next week, which will be held on Friday evening at the First Congregational church, Norwich town, at which the speakers would be Rev. Mr. Worcester and Rev. Dr. Kaufman. This concluded his report. At a later point in the meeting Rev. Mr. Worcester stated that he might like to change to speak at this meeting.

In a few words, explaining the purpose of the meeting, Rev. Mr. Worcester said that this one was intended primarily for prayer, and he called upon Rev. Dr. Kaufman to offer prayer. This was followed by the solo, "His Eye Is on the Sparrow," sung with fine expression by George A. Turner.

The sermon for the evening, outlined briefly some practical suggestions how each individual member of a church might be an evangelist. During the next hour he outlined suggestions how each individual member of a church might be an evangelist.

At 12:15 this morning the moon entered the earth's penumbra from the west. For an hour it moved through this shadow until at 1:11 a. m. it was ready to enter the earth's umbra, or total shadow, at which time the eclipse began. At 3:36 the moon began to leave complete darkness and pass out of the penumbra. An hour later it was completely immersed in it; this is the precise moment at which the total eclipse began. At 5:36 a. m. it had passed out of the penumbra, and the eclipse of the moon was over.

At 5:36 a. m. it had passed out of the penumbra, and the eclipse of the moon was over. At 5:36 a. m. it had passed out of the penumbra, and the eclipse of the moon was over.

The next total eclipse of the moon takes place Monday, 11:09 p. m., May 23, 1910.

TOTAL ECLIPSE OF THE MOON.

Began at 2:11 This Morning and Lasted Until 5:38 O'clock.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 27.—A total eclipse of the moon began at 2:11 o'clock this morning, lasting until 5:38 o'clock. The eclipse was visible in all parts of North America, Central America and South America.

Harvard students assembled in large numbers at the students' observatory on Jarvis field and viewed the eclipse through the seven and one-half inch Agassiz telescope. Totality began at 2:14 and ended at 4:46 o'clock. A large number of photographs were taken and later these will be exchanged with observatories in other parts of the continent.

SPEAKER CANNON VEHEMENT IN HIS OBJECTION

To the Attitude of a Kansas City Paper Toward Him.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 26.—At the conclusion of his prepared speech, which was given before the Kansas City club here today, Speaker Cannon engaged in some extemporaneous remarks in which he became vehement in his objection to the attitude of a local paper toward him. He quoted the paper as stating in today's issue that "Speaker Cannon realizes that his popularity is on the wane" and declared in response to that statement that during his long life he had never turned his back on an enemy.

"Will you print that," he yelled towards the press table, and added: "I am sorry the editor of the paper is not here to answer me himself."

Ridiculing the charge that the Payne tariff law was enacted for the benefit of New England interests, the speaker cited statistics to support his declaration that the products of New England manufacturers have shown a decided decrease under republican protection as compared with the increase of manufacturers in other states.

3,000 GIRL STRIKERS WIN.

Return to Work as Shirtwaist Makers, but 300 Others Go Out.

New York, Nov. 26.—Between eight and nine thousand members of the Ladies' Shirtwaist Makers' union returned to work today. The employers had acceded to all the demands of the strikers. From three shops which had not yielded, however, 300 more operators went on strike. They were mostly Italian girls.

"We are as well prepared to stay out and fight as the employers are to fight us," said M. Shindler, secretary and treasurer of the union. "The busy season is about to begin, and it means that those who do not accede to the demands of the employees will lose the trade, which will go to the employers who have granted our demands. These will not in more machines and get the trade."

GAS EXPLOSION IN BED ROOM.

Two Women Killed by Striking of Match to Ignite Leaking Burner.

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 26.—Mrs. Margaret Smith, thirty-five years old, and Mrs. Minnie Wright, fifty years old, were killed by a gas explosion in a boarding house at No. 122 North street this morning. A burner in their room had leaked all night. The landlady detected gas and traced it to the room. She burst in the door just in time to see flames envelop the room. Mrs. Wright, in a dazed condition, through being half awake and half suffocated by the escaping gas, had applied a match to the leaky burner. She was found dead on the floor. The body of Mrs. Smith lay on the bed.
