Lodge Notes and Fraternal Interests

Whist Under Pochontas Auspices—Arcanians Had Initiation—State Representatives Visited Heptasophs—Department Officers Coming to G. A. R.—Swedish Lodge Plans Christmas Festival.

DEGREE OF POCHONTAS.
Sebequoash council, No. 11, held its regular meeting Monday evening in Foresters' hall, Agnes Dean, Pochontas, presiding. There was a large number present. The usual business was done and at the next meeting there will be nomination of officers.
After the close of the meeting the Neobus club held a whist in Foresters' hall. Eleven tables were played with these prize winners: First lady's prize, Mrs. S. Carr, silk muffler, 46; second lady's prize, Mrs. Frank Smith, regatta mustard jar, 41; first gentlemen's, John McGibney, necktie, 48; second gentlemen's, Mrs. Freeman, watch fob, 45; consolation, Margaret Beckman and Fred Swain.
They will hold another in Foresters' hall on Dec. 13. Cake and coffee were served by the committee.
The club will hold a home whist on Dec. 3 with Mrs. Margaret Beckman.

PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY.
Norwich grange, No. 173, held its regular meeting Wednesday evening in Pythian hall with worthy master W. O. Rogers presiding. The lecture hour was made of special interest through a talk on the San Jose scale by Amos Wheeler, who spoke from some practical experience with the pest. A spraying apparatus was shown by Allen Latham.
The grange decided upon having a special meeting next Wednesday for working the third and fourth degrees upon a good sized class which is in waiting. Pomona grange of New London county is to hold its regular session here on Dec. 18th, choosing this meeting place because of its central location and it is also to hold its February session in Norwich.

ROYAL ARCANUM.
The members of Norwich council, No. 720, got into the harness for work in initiation at the council meeting at the Buckingham Memorial on Tuesday evening. There was a candidate to be put through, which was done in good shape with Past Regent Alexander Jordan presiding. The regular meeting for the initiatory work. At the next meeting the annual election of officers takes place.
The council, No. 1851, also expected to have work in initiation at its meeting on Wednesday evening in Foresters' hall, but the rain kept the candidate from appearing. The next meeting is the time for the regular annual election of officers.

HIBERNIANS.
There was a well attended meeting of Division No. 2 in Hibernian hall on Tuesday evening, at which the president, James J. Murphy, was in the chair, and the usual business was transacted. It was reported that the degree team has now completed its practice season and has the work down fine so that they are ready to proceed to Taftville at the earliest possible date to work the second, third and fourth degrees upon a class of candidates that is waiting. The Second division is also to have a special meeting in December when the degrees will be conferred upon a class of their own members who have yet to penetrate a little further into the mysteries of Hibernianism.

FORESTERS.
Past Chief Ranger Alexander Thorp of Court Quineburg No. 128, was presented with past chief ranger's jewel on Tuesday evening at the meeting of the court in Foresters' hall. Chief Ranger Edward Pratt made the presentation on behalf of the court, praised P. C. R. Thorp for his many services to the court and Mr. Thorp responded fittingly. Men from Court Sachem and Court City of Norwich were in attendance. Louis Lynch and Michael O'Connor were named as a committee to confer with the other courts upon a matter under consideration by the Foresters.

HEPTASOPHS.
At the last meeting of Norwich conclave, No. 424, held last Monday night, District Deputy Charles Peterson of New Haven was present, accompanied by Mr. Cox of Yale conclave. They came at the invitation of Norwich conclave to talk to the members here of the recent change in the rates of the order and explain to them more fully the options associated with the changes. A large number were present to hear them and were highly pleased at the leniency of the new rates, as no member is obliged to pay a higher rate than at present and none need to drop his insurance.
After the meeting the visitors and members were entertained by a smoker and refreshments and the diatary order was to come more often and make the meetings more attractive and enjoyable to themselves and the regular attendants.

EASTERN STAR.
Wednesday evening Sachem chapter, No. 57, held its regular meeting at the Buckingham Memorial. Worthy Matron Dorothea W. Balcom presiding. Several reports were read. At the next meeting, Dec. 8th, the chapter expects to work the degree of the order on a candidate. The annual election of officers also takes place, so that a full attendance is desired.

ORDER OF VASA.
President Andrew Swanberg was in the chair Friday night at the regular meeting of Lodge Oscar, No. 30, in Foresters' hall, where there was a good attendance. One new member was voted in and two new applications received. The nomination of officers was made for election at the next meeting. As the second meeting in December comes on Christmas eve, it was decided to omit that meeting. A. Swanberg, John Vallin and Gustave Schellin were named as a committee to arrange for a Christmas party on New Year's night, if a suitable hall can be found for that date.

UNITED WORKMEN.
Norwich lodge, No. 12, held its stated meeting Wednesday evening in Germania hall. It was stated that the proofs of death in the claims of E. P. Gardner and John Sherman had now been completed and payment would soon be received. At the next meeting the lodge nominates officers for election at the meeting two weeks later.

GRAND ARMY.
The regular meeting of Sedgewick post, No. 1, at the Buckingham Memorial, on Friday night, was a short one. A report of the very successful campfire last Friday evening was received by the committee in charge and they were given a vote of thanks. The next big time for the post will be the visit of the Grand Army of the Republic which is to take place on the third Friday in December.

ANNUAL INSPECTION OF COLUMBIAN COMMANDERY.
Eminent Grand Inspector Thomas W. Morgan of Hartford praised its work. On Friday evening there was the annual inspection of Columbian commandery, No. 4 K. T., of this city, the inspector being Eminent Grand Inspector Thomas W. Morgan of Hartford, before whom nine candidates were worked. He addressed the commandery and praised the work, referring to that of all the officers under Eminent Commander Charles Billings Chapman. At the close refreshments were served in the banquet hall. There was a good-sized attendance.

OFFERS $100,000.
Yale Alumnus Promises Big Reward To Discoverer of Tuberculosis Cure.
A prize of $100,000 is awaiting the person who discovers a cure for tuberculosis.
Yale university is the custodian of this prize, and the physicians attached to the Yale medical school are to act as trustees. Secretary Stokes of the university refused to give out any information on the matter Tuesday. The trustees have invited many well known physicians to become members of an advisory board whose duty it will be to pass on the merits of cures submitted. One result of the prize will be to encourage research work.

The physicians who have been invited to act on the advisory board are all well known and are the leaders in their profession in the fight against tuberculosis. Among them are Dr. J. L. Trudeau of Saranac Lake, N. Y.; Dr. Simon Flexner of the Rockefeller Institute, Dr. William H. Welch of Johns Hopkins university, Baltimore; Dr. Lawrence P. Flick of Philadelphia, and Dr. Herman Biggs, chief medical officer of the department of health in New Haven.
The donor of the prize wishes to remain unknown. He is an alumnus of Yale and is supposed to be a New York man.
The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway commenced a freight service in connection with the Osaka Shosen Kaisha. It is understood that the steamship line comes within the terms of a subsidy from that government, but the amount is not known. The line is too new to show results as yet.
