The Bulletin. Norwich, Wednesday, Dec. 15, 1909. VARIOUS MATTERS Examinations are in progress in most of the schools.

Express companies are realizing that there are but ten days to Christmas. Bright sunshine and high temperature made Tuesday seem like a day in early spring.

In western Connecticut Monday evening's rain was preceded by an all-day snowfall. Annual communication of Somerset lodge this evening at Masonic temple, adv.

The holiday season always means a busy time for the boxmakers, owing to the demand for gift boxes. Miss Kate Crutenden of Crescent beach has purchased the Mary G. Cross property at the beach.

Call at Grover & Herrick's for your candy and boxes for Sunday school and church entertainments—adv. The Elks Past Exalted Rulers association of Connecticut will hold its winter meeting in Middletown in January.

Jewish visitors who were here for the social gatherings which ended Chanukka, or the Feast of Candles, have left town. The last of the families who have occupied summer homes in this section are returning to the big cities for the holidays.

Milkmen and others who rise early have to depend upon artificial light more and more, as it is not daybreak now until 5.25. The ladies' aid society of the Second Waterford Baptist church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frederik E. Comstock of Quaker Hill.

The decorative side of holiday business is helping dealers in crepe and holly paper, gay cards, fancy tissues, tinsel seals, tags, streamers, bells, festoons, etc. Washington-Sunset route to California—Tourist sleeping car four times weekly without change. Personally conducted. Berth, $8.50. 170-228 Washington street, Boston—adv.

The last foreign mails which will arrive at destination on or before Christmas will close at New York postoffice today (Wednesday) at 6 a. m. and 6.50 a. m., by the White Star and Cunard lines respectively. The postoffice department has decided not to be a patron of its own mails, but to use railroad freights. The department is now shipping a large portion of postoffice supplies by freight. Prior to 1906, all equipment for post-offices was placed in the mails and paid for at the same rate as regular mail matter.

Grover & Herrick are headquarters for special Xmas candy and novelties for schools and private parties—adv. A counterfeit $5 bill is circulating in the city. The following are the business men's associations as follows: United States note, series, 1907; check letter L.B. plate number blurred but looks like 217; W. T. Vernon, register of the treasury; Charles H. Treat, treasurer, portrait of Jackson. This is a poor photomechanical production upon a single piece of paper with no attempt to imitate silk threads.

STORER-SWIFT. Granddaughter of Commodore Ransom to marry New York Man December 18. Miss Madeline Gray Swift, youngest daughter of Rear Admiral William Swift, U. S. N., commandant of the Charleston navy yard, will be married to Harry Duer Storer of New York city at the commandant's house in the navy yard on Saturday evening, December 18, at 7 o'clock. They will live in Atlanta, Ga. Miss Swift's mother was the late Grace Virginia Ransom Swift, daughter of Commodore George Marcellus Ransom, U. S. N., of Norwich, who saw service in the civil war. Mr. Storer is a son of Mrs. David H. Storer, a New York city. His father, who died ten years ago, was a prominent New York lawyer. Miss Virginia Swift, a sister of the bride, will be maid of honor, and David Abel Storer, a brother of the groom, will be best man. The ushers are Justin Swift, Garfield Swift, Rowland Utley and Montague Flagg.

BABSON TAKEN TO JAIL. Uncle Cannot Get Here Until This Morning, Attorney Shields Having Been Informed. On Tuesday afternoon Chief Murphy received word from Attorney Shields that Gerald Babson's uncle, C. N. Burnham, of Middlefield, was unable to get here on Tuesday and would not be able to come until Wednesday morning. Policeman Irish was instructed to take him to jail to await the coming of his uncle to give bonds, the amount being $1,500. He had been waiting in a cell in police station since last week and it was considered best that he should be taken to the jail.

Struck a Team. The West Side electric, due at Backus corner about 5.45, struck a team near the Stanton place at East Great Plain Tuesday afternoon. The driver was close to the track and as the bell on the car was sounded he pulled his horse over upon the track and the car struck the forward wheel, breaking it up, and throwing the driver out. He claimed his back was somewhat hurt and he was taken to his son's nearby. The car was delayed somewhat by the accident.

More Pension Bills. Senator Brandegee has introduced in the senate the following Connecticut bills: In behalf of Maria A. R. Forest of Groton, widow of John E. Forest, Company F, One Hundred and Seventy-sixth New York volunteers, at $25 per month; in behalf of John A. Root of Meriden, Company A, First Connecticut Heavy artillery, at $40 per month.

Civil War Claim. Senator Brandegee has introduced a bill for the relief of Joseph F. Fribble of Mystic. The bill calls for the payment of $325 on account of damages to a schooner belonging to Fribble. This claim grows out of the Civil war.

Paper Machinery. Two cartons of new machinery for the Robertson's paper mill at Quaker Hill, which is to be operated under new management, have arrived and will be taken to Quaker Mill Wednesday.

PERSONAL Norris Elmors, Clark of Plainville was a visitor here Tuesday. Winthrop Abel was a visitor at his home in Lebanon this week. William Gaylord of New York spent Sunday with friends in town.

Miss Marion Hough is in New Haven visiting friends for a while. Dr. J. J. Donohue was a business visitor in New Haven on Tuesday. Jerome Spencer of Mystic was the guest Monday of Norwich friends.

Clarence Waldron of Bristol, R. I., has been the guest of friends in town. Walter H. Wolverson, who has been visiting Groton friends, has returned to Norwich. Clarence Thompson of Franklin street is suffering from blood poisoning in his foot.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank O. Moses, who have been visiting friends in Thames street, Groton, have returned to their home in Norwich. Glenville W. Phillips leaves on January 1 for Bellaria, Fla., to play during the winter in the Plant hotel—New London club.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Rawson have taken apartments in Putnam for the winter. They will make frequent runs to the neighborhood to record any visits in force by grosbeaks, crossbills, smoky owls and goshawks, and they will return to the Quail Trap in time to keep tab on the local bird movements in the spring migration of 1910.

DEUTSCH MARKET SUPPER. Successful Affair Given by Xens at the First Baptist Church. The Deutsch market supper given by the Xens at the First Baptist church Tuesday evening drew a gathering of very satisfactory size and the unique method of obtaining the various tempting articles of food displayed was productive of much merriment and sociability.

At the door an envelope was given to each corner containing tickets and these tickets were exchanged for the articles at the different tables. The first table, at which were displayed all-hot, sauerkraut, Swiss cheese, rye bread, bologna sausage and liverwurst, was in charge of Mrs. W. J. Koon, Mrs. Herbert Willey. At the second cold meats, salads, rolls, pie and cheese were sold by Mrs. William Gilchrist, Miss Kate Willey, Mrs. Amos C. Swan, Mrs. Charles G. Cobb, Miss Elizabeth Park, Mrs. John E. Oat, Mrs. W. S. Allen were at the cake table, where were also doughnuts, who pretzels, Miss Geraldine Oat with her basket sold popcorn and peanuts, and dishes were offered by Mrs. W. J. Koon and Mrs. Charles Perkins. Coffees was prepared by Mrs. George Amburn and Mrs. Phillips. All of the women were charmingly dressed in Dutch costume with caps and kerchiefs. The whole affair was successful in every particular and will not be a handsome sum for the Xens.

OPEN HOUSE ORCHESTRA. Farewell Given Joseph Levens, Who Goes to Bridgeport Today. Tuesday evening the Open House club orchestra held its first rehearsal since its organization a week ago, and many of the club members enjoyed the performance. The orchestra consisted of Fred C. Geer, has been chosen pianist to fill the place left vacant by the departure for New York of Joseph Goodwin, the former pianist Tuesday night at the piano, and one new member, Larus Bilven, cornetist, was added to the orchestra.

Just before the rehearsal closed a farewell selection, How Can I Bear to Leave This? was played for the benefit of Joseph Levens, who was present in the rooms. He leaves this morning to take a position in the repair shop of the Bullard Manufacturing company, makers of lathes, in Bridgeport. He has been one of the popular members of the club, one of its athletic teams and active in committee work and will be greatly missed.

THE GREATEST DISCOVERY. Subject of Rev. J. W. Bixler at Union Evangelistic Meeting at Second Church. The Spooner Choral Union, under direction of George A. Turner, opened the union service Tuesday evening at the Second Congregational church with a spirited song service, in which the large congregation present joined. The opening prayer was offered by the Rev. M. S. Kaufman, D. D., of the Methodist Episcopal church, and after the tenor solo, Jesus Whispers I Am With Thee, impressively sung by the Turner, the Rev. C. H. Ricketts of the Greenview Congregational church, who presided, read for a number of short epistles, and then announced that there would be no union service next week, because of the busy times attending the Christmas season.

The scripture lesson was read by the Rev. J. R. Very of the Third Baptist church, followed by a season of silent prayer. The sermon by the evening was by the Rev. J. W. Bixler of New London, who was heard with close attention in an intellectual way, but that kind of finding is like standing in the vestibule of the temple when we have been invited to step into the temple itself. Every life is a great life that is keyed to the note of the kingdom, and every life may be so tuned. It cannot then be a matter of indifference to us on the greatest thing that has been known since the beginning of time.

Christianity is the greatest find for the present life, and it means so much for the present, what is it for eternity for you and me? Christ needs to be found in our hearts, and the finding of him is no chance matter. It is the wanting to find him that leads to the glorious consummation. The finding of him is the blessedness of finding him in personal experience.

Christ is the short testimony meeting, which was conducted by the Rev. P. C. Wright of the Central Baptist church, concluded the service. The death of Mrs. William Nugent occurred at Lockport, N. Y., December 11. Mrs. Nugent was formerly a resident of this city. She is survived by her husband and a daughter, Gertrude. She also leaves two sisters, Eleanor A. Brennan of New York city and Annie Brennan of Lockport, N. Y. Burial was at Windsor Locks on Tuesday.

WALKED TO NEW LONDON. Three Well Known Norwich Men Were Gone All Day on Trip to the City Opposite Groton. Leaving Norwich at 10.25 o'clock Tuesday morning, Dennis J. Hayes, Daniel Murphy and Patry Penton, three well-known Norwich residents, set out on their trip to New London. Although the road was heavy they were able to make the trip in three hours, but did not get back until about five o'clock, the return trip being made on the cars.

SPHINX TEMPLE BAND. Annual Meeting, With Reports and Election—Concert in February. The annual meeting of Sphinx Temple band, in which several Norwich men are members, was held Monday evening at the ball room on Pearl street, Hartford. There was a large attendance of the active and honorary members. All the old officers were re-elected except William Whitaker, whose resignation as librarian was accepted with regret. He has been librarian of the band for ten years and his services have been of great value. The duties have so greatly increased that he does not find the time to attend to them. Reports were made by the secretary, treasurer and other officers. There have been two deaths during the year: George L. Bladon, an active member, died in February, and Dr. Edward W. Pratt, past potentate of Sphinx temple, an honorary member, died in July of injuries received in a trolley accident. Ward H. Worthington, former member of the band, died in August. The officers elected were: President, Clayton H. Case; vice president, Theodore H. Goodrich; William E. Whittemore; treasurer, Thomas W. Morgan; historian, Burton Hills; librarian, Henry H. Worthington; drum major, Norman L. Hope; conductor, Thomas W. Morgan; auditors, Burton Hills and William W. Frayer.

OPEN HOUSE PINOCCHLE. Mikolasi Breaks into the Lead by Passing Fitzgerald. R. Mikolasi and John E. Fitzgerald held their relative positions as first and second on points after the fourth evening of play by the Open House club on Tuesday evening. On Monday night Louis Carpenter was high on the night's play with a score of 7180. Next to him came Fred Moll and E. Loomis with 6940 and 6940, respectively. The low score was by F. Tretault 6500.

Following are the standings: B. Mikolasi 25,400, J. E. Fitzgerald 26,040, F. Moll 26,990, H. F. Burdick 25,920, Louis Carpenter 25,850, C. Krieger 25,620, E. Loomis 25,600, Tretault 25,310, Dr. N. B. LIEUT.-COLONEL DORSEY VISITS FIFTH COMPANY. Inspects Their Work and Instructs in Guard Duty—Squad Had Rifle Practice. On Tuesday evening at the regular weekly drill of the Fifth company, C. A. C., at the armory, Lieut.-Col. H. S. Dorsey of New London, was in attendance to inspect the work of the company and instruct them in guard duty. The company was in excellent condition. One squad of the men were busy at the rifle range, getting in practice in that branch of the work. The other squads were busy with drill work hard in their line the coming year, intending to retain the shield for the third time, if possible. His soon it can be re-secured, their names will appear twice on the pendant. Upon learning this, one of the captains from the western part of the state promised to see that other companies accomplished such results that it would hang in another part of the state after this year. The Fifth company intends to prevent if possible.

WILL CASE SETTLED. Judge Reed Affirmed the Will and Case of Marion, Adm., vs. Connecticut Company Due Today. In the superior court on Tuesday the Fifth appeal from probate relative to the will of Mrs. H. E. Grumley of Groton was scheduled to be resumed, but the court was informed that there was a possibility of a settlement, and Judge Reed, upon being informed that an agreement had been reached and a check being handed over to the plaintiff, affirmed the will and took the case from the jury. Five of the heirs of Mrs. Grumley, it was reported, will get about $100,000, but the six who did not contest will receive nothing.

Mrs. Grumley left about $11,000 and then for her life she and her husband and then to go to Dr. and Mrs. Sherman, who cared for her and are caring for Mr. Grumley. The inquest matter of the New Haven road against the city of New London, which was assigned for Tuesday, went off the list. It was a court case which has to have been heard in New London. Court was adjourned soon after completion of the afternoon session until this morning when the case of Marion, adm., vs. the Connecticut company will be heard.

CONGRESSMAN HIGGINS MAKES APPOINTMENT. Names New London Boy for West Point and Son of Putnam's Mayor as Alternates. Congressman Higgins on Tuesday made his appointment of a cadet to the military academy at West Point. The lucky man is Frank Y. Tiernan of New London, who is at present a student at Yale. The first alternate is John Macdonald, the son of the newly elected mayor of Putnam. The second alternate is J. S. Coleman, Prince of New London. The vacancy in Mr. Higgins' district is caused by the graduation of Dwight Knowlton Shurtwell of Ashford, who will become a second lieutenant next June.

No Tobacco for Boys. A small tract, No Tobacco for Boys, is to be distributed here by the W. C. T. U., calling attention to the revised statutes of Connecticut, 1902, on the sale and use of tobacco in the case of persons under 16 years of age. The following is the statute quoted on the tract: CHAPTER LXXXIX. An Act Concerning the Sale and Use of Tobacco. Section 1361. Every person who shall sell or deliver to any minor under 16 years of age tobacco in any form shall be fined not more than $50 for each offense. Section 1362. Every person under 16 years of age who shall smoke, or in any way use in any public street, place or resort tobacco in any form whatsoever shall be fined not more than $10 for each offense.

RAIN HELPED FAIRVIEW RESERVOIR. Gain of Six and a Half Inches Shown on Tuesday Afternoon—Rainfall 1.68 Inches. Supt. Burnap of the water department on Tuesday went to Fairview reservoir and found that the rainfall of Monday had raised the pond considerably, and it showed the water to be 193.2 inches below high water mark a gain from 205 inches last week. It is expected that the gain will continue for a day or so, as there is a full pipe of water coming in from Meadow brook. A number of such storms are needed to get the pond up where it belongs and ready for winter.
