CHANGE IN ADDRESS. DR. N. GILBERT GRAY.

WHEN you want to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

The Bulletin should be delivered everywhere in the city before 8 a. m.

THE WEATHER. Forecast For Today.

For New England: Fair Tuesday and Wednesday, except occasional snow in northwest portion.

Observations in Norwich. The following records, reported from Sevin's pharmacy, show the changes in temperature and the barometric changes Monday:

Table with 4 columns: Ther. Bar., 7 a. m., 12 m., 4 p. m., Highest, Lowest.

Comparisons. Predictions for Monday: Fair, moderate west winds.

Sun, Moon and Tides. Table with 4 columns: Day, a. m., p. m., Moon Sets.

GREENVILLE. Village Mention—Funeral of John A. Hurd

Joseph McIsaac has gone to Fitchburg, Mass., to spend Christmas with relatives in that place.

James Coughlin of Greenville, S. C., who was called here by the death of his father, has returned after spending a week in town.

Joseph Paquin of Cobalt, the widely known mining town in Ontario, Canada, is spending a few days in town as the guest of his brother-in-law, Louis Disco.

Patrick Kennedy of Central avenue, who has been second hand in the machine shop of the United States Finishing company, has taken a position in the Shetucket cotton mills' machine shop.

At the Greenville grammar school Thursday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock there will be Christmas exercises and the programme will follow along the usual lines.

The funeral of John Albert Hurd was held at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theron E. Tefft at 182 Central avenue.

Christmas Entertainment at Maennerchor Hall—Other Mention About the Village.

W. E. Baldwin is having an addition built on the lower side of his barn on Norwich avenue.

Christmas masses will be celebrated Saturday at 8 o'clock at the Heart church at 5:30, 8 and 10 o'clock.

There is fine skating at the Ellersville pond this week, the ice being several inches thick, and many are enjoying the sport.

Rev. Arthur O'Keefe was in Colchester Monday attending a dinner given by Rev. M. H. May in observance of his completion of a quarter of a century in the priesthood.

The work of laying has been begun at the new Sacred Heart parochial school. The slate roof is well along and will be soon completed, after which the plastering and other inside work can be done.

At Maennerchor hall Saturday night a pleasing Christmas entertainment was given by the pupils of the Lisbon school under the direction of the teachers, Miss Agnes C. Murphy and Miss Ruth L. Rogers.

The members of the Germania Schuetzen Verein are planning to observe the Christmas holiday in their customary pleasant manner at their hall Saturday, and as in former years a handsomely decorated Christmas tree will be a noticeable feature.

Second Church Preacher. At the midweek prayer meeting Thursday evening and at both services Sunday, Rev. Herbert J. Wyckoff, associate pastor of the United church in New Haven, will preach at the Second Congregational church.

Gone to 'Frisco. Philip Ozulnick, who has held the office of hospitalier in Workingmen's Circle, left here for San Francisco Monday evening.

PARDON GRANTED NORWICH

Jeremiah Tempeste Gets Liberty on Recommendation of Board of Pardons—Character of the Girl Considered by Board—John Warren's Petition Denied.

The adjourned session of the board of pardons was held Monday in the supreme court room, Hartford.

The reputation of the girl who was the complainant in the case, in the Spudensky case, the board seemed to be in doubt as to whether Spudensky ever committed the crime of which he was convicted.

Catherine Nell of Bridgeport, in making her appeal for pardon, claimed that in the place of the Hon. Lewis Sperry, and Dr. George W. Knight, the only cases on the docket to be heard by the board were those from Hartford county.

John Savick of Hartford county, who was under sentence of death for murder committed in Glastonbury, was present at the day session section of the board.

John Warren of Tolland county, who completed fifty years in state's prison last Saturday, for wife murder, has been refused a pardon.

The following pardons were granted: Jeremiah Tempeste, New London county, sentenced September 15, 1904, eight to twelve years, abuse of female child, Catherine Nell, Fairfield county, sentenced May 22, 1907, five to nine years, manslaughter; Thomas McGinley, Fairfield county, sentenced February 19, 1909, two to five years, robbery; William Spudensky, New Haven county, sentenced October 17, 1905, six to ten years, abuse of female under sixteen.

In the case of Tempeste the board, it is understood, took into consideration the fact that he was a young man, and that he had been in the army.

G. S. HANSCOMB WILL HANDLE SHEEDY VAUDEVILLE Will Look After Interests at Broadway Theater—Started His Work Here Monday, Coming from Pali's, Hartford.

George S. Hanscomb arrived here Monday and will look after the Shedy vaudeville troupe which opens at the Broadway theater Christmas day to run daily for the remainder of the theater's season, except that it will give away to a one-night play occasionally, averaging about once a week.

Joseph Paquin of Cobalt, the widely known mining town in Ontario, Canada, is spending a few days in town as the guest of his brother-in-law, Louis Disco.

END OF A RED NOSE

New Flesh-Colored Product That Heals and Hides Skin Imperfections.

A peculiar feature of possum, a new skin discovery, is that it is naturally flesh-colored and contains no grease, so that when used on the face for the complexion, or for pimples, red noses, or any other inflammations, blemishes, or discolorations, its presence cannot be detected.
