

EX-PRESIDENT ZELAYA IN MEXICO

Declares that His Treatment of the Americans, Cannon and Groce, was Right

ZELAYA IS PRACTICALLY A PRISONER

As it is stated that Mexico has formally accepted the responsibility for his person, agreeing to prevent his return to Nicaragua—Rear Admiral Kimball calls on President Madriz at Managua.

Managua, Nicaragua, Dec. 27.—Rear Admiral Wm. Kimball, in command of the American warship at Comayagua, arrived at Managua today on a special train. The admiral was accompanied by George T. Wetzel, secretary of the American legation at Panama, and two naval aides. The American officers were in uniform, and the object of Admiral Kimball's visit was to pay an official call to President Madriz. A great crowd gathered at the station and gave them a cordial greeting, after which they drove to a hotel in the presidential carriage. Several American flags were displayed, and although there was no demonstration, considerable excitement prevailed.

No Significance in the Visit.
It was rumored about the city that the visit might mean the recognition of President Madriz by the United States. Admiral Kimball, however, was emphatic in his assertion that he called on the president only in his private capacity. He refused to permit the government to prevent his return, and President Madriz sent, to ride on the box of the presidential carriage.

Escape of Former Finance Minister.
Ernesto Martinez, the former finance minister, whose arrest was ordered on the charge of embezzling public funds, has made his escape to Granada. Joaquin Passos, Zelaya's son-in-law, is now in the hands of the authorities. He is charged with obtaining $10,000 of public money from Zelaya for the surrender of the hide concession, which was improperly granted to him. The arrested men who have been embraced at the expense of the country is imminent.

Belief is general that there will be a restoration of millions by the large number of persons who have been permitted by the former government to enjoy large gains through the sale of public lands which they had not acquired, and in other ways. This may mean that the imposition of a general tax on all the lands of the country, a condition of the present government is such that it has been unable to obtain credit for the purchase of four to produce the arms.

Status of Zelaya Practically that of a Prisoner.
It is announced on reliable authority that Mexico has formally accepted the responsibility for Zelaya's person, and that he is practically a prisoner in Mexico. The status of the ex-president in Mexico practically is that of a prisoner.

Large Quantity of Worthless Bonds.
The minister general has abrogated the agreement compelling the payment of 8 per cent of the duties by means of government bonds. Hereafter duties will be payable in cash only. This action leaves a quantity of these bonds, which are now worthless, in the hands of Passos and other favored individuals, and the bonds from Zelaya at 45 and sold some of them to the public at 165.

Brokaw Thinks Differently Now

NOT SO EAGER FOR RECONCILIATION AS A FEW DAYS AGO.

New York, Dec. 27.—Four small boys, preferring the story of the matrimonial troubles of the wealthy Brokaw to the thrill of sledging, were the outsiders who braved the snowdrifts on Long Island today to attend the court session at Mineola. Mrs. W. Scott Brokaw, who is suing for separation and $60,000 a year alimony, did not get over to the court until the afternoon, appearing in a white fur coat and white fur hat. She said her father and sister, Miss Elodie Blair, made the trip from Westbury in a bobbed and listened to the examination of her husband, who denied today that the one of his testimonies on Friday meant that he was eager for a reconciliation.

Cross Examination.
"You say you are fond of her—do you love her?" asked the lawyer, counsel for Mrs. Brokaw. "Well, I'm fond of her," he said. "Do you love her?" insisted the lawyer. "Not so much as I did," answered the witness. "How about all these reconciliations?" "I never talked at all to the newspaper men. I haven't said anything about my head-quarters tonight to make any preparations for a strike of their respective orders."

Might Take Case to President.
Mr. Perham said that he would reach Washington on Thursday. He said he might seek to introduce a measure in the Senate to create a interstate commerce commission and he might take the case directly to President Taft.

Ultimatum to Switchmen.
In the conference between the railroads and the labor leaders today the railroad officers refused to take back their switchmen, and the labor leaders refused to accept this offer. The offer was immediately rejected by the labor leaders.

NO DETECTIVE TO SHADOW HIS WIFE.
A witness was asked if he ever employed a detective to shadow Mrs. Brokaw. "I never did. I haven't paid any bills for detective work since before my marriage," he said.

Brokaw's Private Secretary Fond of Mrs. Brokaw.
Counsel for Mrs. Brokaw inquired at length why certain persons were not subpoenaed as witnesses for the defense. "I don't know," he said. "I don't know," he said. "I don't know," he said.

TOLL TAKEN ON SEA BY GREAT STORM

Opening Chapter of Wrecking of Many Vessels Along the Coast of Massachusetts

FIVE-MASTER SINKS OFF BOSTON HARBOR.
Schooner Davis Palmer, with Crew of Twelve Men—Wreckage from the Schooner Floats Into Boston Harbor on Unusually High Tide—The Wreck Itself Not Yet Located—Other Vessels Ashore.

Boston, Dec. 27.—With the news of the probable loss of the big five-master schooner Davis Palmer and her crew of twelve men, off Boston harbor, and the wrecking of nine other vessels along the Massachusetts coast, the opening chapter of the toll taken on the sea by the great storm which swept New England Saturday night and Sunday, was barred to the world's eyes. The schooner, which saved for its northern trip, where there is a wireless station. With the restoration of communication with this storm-swept seaboard, the coast with southeastern Massachusetts, bore the brunt of the blizzard. It is feared that a scene of marine disasters and storm damage unequalled in years will be unveiled.

Mute Witness of the Loss of the Palmer.
Wreckage borne into Boston harbor today on an unusually high tide is believed to be the mute witness of the loss of the Davis Palmer, Newmarket, Mass., which was wrecked near the entrance to the harbor. A signal box among the wreckage contained a burgee which bore the schooner's name. A quarterboard found nearby. The wreck itself, however, has not been located.

Crew of Three-Master Saved by the Breaches Buoy.
The three-masted schooner Nantasket was hurled ashore at Scituate, Nantucket, life savers, using the breaches buoy, rescued her crew of ten men. It is probable that the vessel, which lies on the Sande Hill beach, will be raised. The crew, however, is believed to be safe. With a cargo of lumber she was bound for Boston from North Carolina.

Other Victims of the Storm.
Another victim of the storm was the schooner Belle Halliday, which, after grounding Saturday night on the shore, at Brant point, Nantucket, where she is still exposed to the fury of the waves. The fate of the crew is unknown, but it is believed that they have been rescued. The Belle Halliday was bound for Nantucket from Philadelphia, loaded with railroad iron. The schooner's crew of twelve men were swept by every sea. Both waterlogged. They are the A. E. McLean, a British vessel, bound from Perth Amboy to Halifax, and the Stoughton, Me. schooner, Maude Seward, Port Reading for Provincetown. Both crews were saved.

Conditions in Connecticut.
New Haven, Dec. 27.—Conditions throughout the state, resulting from the storm, were reported Saturday and Sunday as being very serious, rivaling, except for the snow, the blizzard conditions of 1888, began to show improvement. The railroads, however, traffic, as well as telegraph and telephone communication, which had been greatly impeded and in some sections almost completely cut off, were gradually being restored. While through the northwestern and western parts of the state railroad traffic was either blocked or very slow, the eastern part of the state which showed the greater effects of the storm, telegraph and telephone poles being leveled in great numbers. Along the coast line of New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad it was found necessary to resort to the "card system" for sending forward the trains.

Mystery of the Great Rise in Rock Island to Be Probed.
New York, Dec. 27.—The New York stock exchange has an investigation into the hands of the Federal Reserve board, Boston and Philadelphia requesting assurances that Nicholas Tschakovsky and Catherine Broshkowsky, charged with being members of an ostensible organization, be given an open and public trial.

The Storm in Rhode Island.
Great Damage to Wires. Seventy Miles an Hour Gale at Block Island—Cottages Wrecked.
Providence, Dec. 27.—The telephone, telegraph and transportation lines in this city, after more than 24 hours of seemingly hopeless demoralization, were restored today to a fairly workable basis, although it was not less a week before the army of line-men can straighten out the tangle of wires and cables which were completely satisfied. Related reports received here during the late afternoon told of a storm damage unequalled in Rhode Island history. The town of Pawtucket from Norfolk and Baltimore brought a story of a hazardous trip up the coast, during which the steamship was battered by the seas so badly as to cause her cargo to shift to starboard and leveling twelve storm bulkheads. Yesterday a great wave almost overboarded the schooner, flooding the captain and nearly drowning two persons who tried to go from their state rooms to the upper deck.
