Murphy's Big Bunch of Prize Money

RIGHTS GET THIS ONE. Trounce the Left-Handed Duckpin Fingers of the Postoffice. The trusty Rights of the postoffice employees had things swinging right at the Rose bowling alleys Saturday night in the duckpin game.

At the Rose bowling alley on Friday evening the prize money was determined by the roll-off of the hand-picked duckpin tournament. The winners were as follows: First, $12, Combes and Murphy; second, $8, Sturtevant and Murphy; third, $6, Lamont and Murphy; fourth, $4, Lamont and McClafferty.

Table with 3 columns: Name, Points, and Prize Money. Includes names like Hazleton, O'Neill, Shea, Kingsley, Hincey, O'Sullivan, Murtha, Case, Brown, and Counihan.

Since a Norwich team of two defeated the New Haven pair recently, the Norwich rollers have been ambitious for other games and this match has been arranged.

Manager Hartley of the Tuxedo alleys in New Haven is arranging a two-man team match for Allie Murphy of this city and West of New Haven to meet a team from New York. The match will be arranged for the end of the month and the match will be rolled in Brooklyn and the finish here.

Bill Collins of Central Village was the winner on New Year's afternoon in his home town in a handicap wrestling bout with Dan Murphy of Norwich, the well known member of the Philadelphia Athletics.

The bout was full of action, for neither man stalled for a moment at the catch as catch can game. Murphy had the weight and also the strength to handle Collins without gentleness, and as the Central Village man was always ready to come back, there were many whirlwind mixups in which the wrestlers changed positions in double-quick time as they rolled from side to side of the mat.

When you want to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

COLLINS POSTS FORFEIT FOR MONTVILLE MATCH

To Meet Young Wilbur in Finish Bout. Bill Collins, the Central Village wrestler, was in Norwich on Sunday and posted with the sporting editor of The Bulletin a sum of $500 as forfeit and alibi for Young Wilbur of Montville to cover for a mat event here on Saturday, January 15.

WEDDING

At 7:30 P. M. on Friday, December 24, at the parsonage on Elm avenue, Miss Jennie Wagner of Norwich Town was united in matrimony to G. H. Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. Keyes will reside on Town street.

At the Sheltering Arms. At the Sheltering Arms the service on Sunday afternoon was in charge of Rev. Jerome Green. He took for his text, when the fulness of time was come, God sent forth His Son. God takes time to work out His purposes. He is bringing things to pass that only a God of wisdom and power could accomplish. He is working in every life. Assisting in the service were part of the chorus choir of the M. E. church, also Charles Frazier, tenor, with Mrs. F. H. Bushnell accompanying. The solo, No Burdens Yonder, was sung by Mrs. Ewing. The reading number was the Glory Song, sung by number.

The choir-boys of Christ church gave Mr. Coxworth, who is shut in by illness, a service of song on Sunday afternoon at his home on Washington street.

General News. Prof. Allen Latham is visiting relatives in Lancaster, Mass. Wilson Miller of West Town street is recovering from an attack of the grip. Miss Daisy Frazier of Hartford is the guest of Miss Marjorie Barber of Plain Hill.

Oliver Neff of Norwich was the guest on Friday of Mrs. and Mr. Frank Ellis of Plain Hill. The Epworth league New Year meeting of the Methodist Episcopal church was led by Charles Frazier.

Miss Laura Peshody of Waterford and Clarence D. Johnson were guests Friday of Mrs. Frank Skinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shaffer of Montville are visiting Mr. Shaffer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Shaffer of Plain Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Yessman were visiting his grandparents on Broadway Saturday.

On account of the bad traveling on the roads and also other entertainments in the nearby towns, the attendance at the dance given by the Social club of Oliver Woodhouse lodge, K. of P. was small. Coats orchestra furnished music and Anselo Coats was prompter.
