

INSURGENTS CAUCUS GROUPS

Debating the Desirability of an Early Move to Form a Battle Front to Meet Emergencies

ALREADY BROAD BREACH WIDENING

Every Indication that Hostile Acts will Continue with Increasing Bitterness—Party Caucus to be Invoked Against "Insurgents" with the Aim of Compelling them to Follow the Programme.

Washington, Jan. 10.—The already broad breach between the "organization" republicans in the house of representatives and the republican "insurgents" was widened perceptibly today.

All day the "insurgents" caucused in little groups of two, three and four on the house floor, in the cloak rooms and the members' lobby, discussing the situation and debating the desirability of an early meeting to form a battle front to meet all emergencies.

Boston Municipal Election Today

EVERYBODY GLAD THAT THE CAMPAIGN IS OVER.

FOUR CANDIDATES FOR MAYOR

First Ballot Under New City Charter—Issues Involved Have Almost Entirely Personal—Libel Suits On.

Boston, Jan. 10.—With a clear understanding of the issues involved, which are almost wholly personal, the voters of Boston will decide tomorrow on the question of placing the administration of the city in the hands of one of four candidates.

The Four Candidates. These four candidates, as they appear on a ballot, are: Nathaniel H. Taylor, an editorial writer; James J. Storrow, a former school commissioner; and George A. Hibbard, the present mayor.

A new city council of nine members will also be elected, a member of the school board, and the finance commission question decided for another year.

Heavy Vote Expected. As good weather is predicted and the 113,000 registered voters have been canvassed, but unvoted and politically unready as never before, it is expected that the vote will be the heaviest on record.

Campaign Dates from 1907. The present campaign dates from the day after the last election in December, 1907, when Mr. Fitzgerald, who had just been defeated, announced that he would again be a candidate, while his successful opponent, Mayor Hibbard, said he would serve but one term.

Since then there has been an investigation into the Fitzgerald administration by the finance commission, which severely criticized many of his acts, which several city officials under him have never forgiven.

Legislature Takes a Hand. Last spring the legislature took a hand in the political game by devising a new city charter which provided for the election of a mayor and a city council to decide between one of the two plans.

Unimpeachable Case. This time the secret service men are confident they have an unimpeachable case against the man who is being sought by the police.

Four of the minor prisoners succeeded tonight in finding $5,000 ball each and were released. The others spent the night in the Tombs.

New York Tax Valuations, Carnegie Does Not Head List, But the Widow of the Late John S. Kennedy Does.

New York, Jan. 10.—Not Mr. Carnegie and his millions left by her husband, but the widow of the late John S. Kennedy, who left a fortune of $2,000,000 to charity when he died recently, and she must pay taxes on personal property assessed at $500,000.

Animosities Bring on Libel Suits. Animosities stirred up during the last days have brought on libel suits against the newspaper proprietors and much acrimonious controversy.

Close of Contest Welcomed. While the campaign has been exciting, it has been somewhat wearisome to all interested parties.

Can Take Roof Off in Summer, New York's New Playhouse. Globe Theater Opened Last Night—It Seats 2,000.

New York, Jan. 10.—New York had a record for the day today, as the ready long list of places of dramatic amusement tonight with the opening of the new playhouse.

Jeweler Helman Claimed He Was Poisoned By His Stepdaughter—Was Found Dying in Hotel.

Terre Haute, Ind., Jan. 10.—Edie Selberry, supposed to be on a train near New Orleans, is wanted by the police as a witness in the mysterious death of W. H. Helman, a jeweler, who was found dead in his room at the hotel today and died soon afterward, evidently of poison.

Helman was sent to the police of Memphis and New Orleans asking them to detain the woman. The coroner did not permit the woman to be taken until a chemical analysis of Helman's stomach is completed.

Helman was found in a room at night in Chicago. At the hotel he sent to the bar for whiskey. A chambermaid found him lying on the floor in his room today. He did not regain consciousness before he died, but the coroner was unable to find any poison.

One was addressed to the chief of police and the other to a friend. In having the stepdaughter in a room at night, Helman was found in a room at night in Chicago. At the hotel he sent to the bar for whiskey.

Panihan's Remarkable Flight

Throws Twenty Thousand Spectators Into a Frenzy of Enthusiasm

ON LOS ANGELES AVIATION FIELD

Daring French Aviator in Sensational Manoeuvres in Farman Biplane—Wild Cheers Followed His Movements—Glenn Curtiss Opened the Meet with Flight in New Monoplane—Aeroplanes and Dirigibles Tried Out.

International meet with a new monoplane, never before used. Leaving the ground front of the grandstand, the craft rose gently, made a short flight over the course, returned and alighted at the starting point. The distance, estimated by the judges at five furlongs, was covered in 28.03 seconds, the greatest height reached being fifty feet. The machine was under entire control, and Curtiss was loudly cheered.

Next Charles F. Willard appeared in his Curtiss aeroplane No. 1. After a short preliminary flight he attempted to circle the official course, which is a little more than a mile and a half in length. Rising to a height of seventy feet, he maintained this altitude until half the distance had been traveled. Then his motor gave out and he descended to the ground.

Shaking Down Machines. The first day of the aviation meet was given over to preliminary trials and shaking down the machines. Curtiss gave an exhibition flight with a new and light machine which Clifford Harmon afterwards made some short flights.
