ANNOUNCEMENTS
BROADWAY THEATER.

A thoroughly pleasing vaudeville bill will end the first half of the week at the Broadway this evening. The Chamberlains have added with their novelty act and have proved a very versatile team by adding new and difficult stunts with lessons at each performance. The Broadway theater has a way of extracting laughs from an audience that makes them a solid hit. Woodell and Corbely have a funny skit which gives Miss Corbely a chance to show many character changes. Miss Corbely is a master musician. Miss King is meeting with success with her popular songs. The motion pictures are all new and seem to be of the kind that please.

There is surely a treat in store for the patrons of the Broadway theater Thursday when the new show starts which looks to be the best all round so far this season.

Heading the bill will be Sylvan and O'Neil, a team of pantomimists who save an amusing act entitled "Fun at the Seashore." This act carries their own stage setting and from appearances show the Broadway theater a new style of acting when it comes to singing and dancing. Another big surprise act is promised.

A good Indian motion picture is always pleasing so Thursday will find "Lone the White Squaw," the feature picture, and with this attraction will round out another big show for the remainder of the week.

THE AUDITORIUM.

Some class to the vaudeville at the ever-popular Auditorium the first three days of the week. Although the change of this bill may not be the largest in the country, it is nevertheless as well equipped as any, and with every modern device known to the theatrical world, in the hands of expert workmen, any stage effect can be delicately and effectively presented. Those fashionable musicians, the Imperial Musical Trio, rank head and shoulders above the rest of the troupe. They have never played in the city, and their elaborate scenic and light effects, unbroken by beautiful songs in truly London style. A team of lively colored entertainers are the Burries, who save a style of acting when it comes to singing and dancing. Another big surprise act is promised.

BREED THEATER.

"A Daughter of the Sioux" Thrilling Motion Picture.
A tremendously thrilling motion picture of the plains, entitled "A Daughter of the Sioux," is the feature of the week, and is one of the finest Indian pictures ever produced. It opens with a stupendous fight between the Sioux regulars, and the small but mighty band of Sioux, whom the government is attempting to exterminate. Two little Indian children are left without parents as a result of the battle, and are adopted by a white leader of the United States forces. Later they are shown returning from the Carlisle school and being received into Washington society. Word is received of the opening of hostilities between the Indians and regulars, and the call of the blood is uppermost, and the Indian children, now grown up, leave the white chief, and return to the plains of the regulars, return to the old home and haunts, and take sides against their former protector. This is an intensely thrilling and dramatic picture, the picturesque realism of the old Sioux warriors, the splendid riding, and the scene depicting the deserting of the tepees, being worthy of special mention.

Frank Coulan Dies Suddenly—Five-Mill Tax Recommended—Ministers Meet at M. E. Parsonage.
Tuesday morning Frank Coulan died suddenly at 5 o'clock at his home. Mr. Coulan was a machine printer in the Appleton bleaching and went to work as usual Monday morning. Not feeling well during the forenoon, he went home. He grew rapidly worse, death resulting in less than twenty-four hours. Mr. Coulan was subject to mild attacks of heart trouble and had recently been under treatment for it.

Mr. Coulan came here with his family five years ago and began his duties as a printer for the Appleton Co., where ever since he has steadily professed himself a master of his trade. He was a cheerful, kindly hearted man, whose acquaintances soon became his fast friends and everyone with whom he came in contact felt the effect of his genial nature.

He was born in Louth, England, June 25, 1854, a member of the Congregational Men's club and also of the Printers' association. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Coulan, three brothers, William, Henry and Vincent Coulan, and a sister, Mrs. William Makant of Somerville, Mass., and Mrs. Elliott Adams of Providence.

A funeral service will be held at 10 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Coulan, 32 Providence St., Taftville, on Thursday morning, January 13, at 10 o'clock.

FIVE-MILL TAX

Recommended at Meeting of Warden and Burgesses—Soldiers' List Excerpted.

The monthly meeting of the board of warden and burgesses was held in the town hall Monday evening. A full board was present, Warden I. F. Lewis in the chair. Benjamin R. Garfield and John A. Bourgain were released from their bonds as tax collectors on the respective levies on several taxes were abated, including the soldiers' list, this last item being $29.75. The following bills were voted paid: J. H. Tracy $37.50 and $58.92, People's Coal Co., $170.00 and $49.00, R. Church $29.85, E. Driscoll $33.14, A. A. Young—hose company $178, Jewett City Savings bank $237.32 and $75. The National bank $696, A. C. Burdick $70.08, Jewett City electric light plant $109.56, $5.86 and $5.83.

The following estimates were made for the expense of the borough for 1910: Police $650, fire department $350, electric light for streets $1,500, printing $72, election $40, clerk and treasurer $165, streets $600, miscellaneous $400.

It was recommended that a 5-mill tax be laid on the taxable property of the borough to meet expenses and to reopen White and Bethel District Schools.

A meeting of the school board of the White and Bethel districts was held on Monday afternoon in the town hall. It was voted to re-open the schools in the White and Bethel districts, and to invite Mr. Miller to lecture before the teachers of the town and the school board on a course of instruction in the most terrible disease of its kind that I know of, as it itches all through your body and makes your life a torment. Sleep is out of the question and you feel as if a million mosquitos were attacking you at the same time. I knew a dozen families that were so affected.

"The doctors did their best but their remedies did not do any good. Then the families tried a chemist who was noted far and wide for his remarkable cures, but his medicine made matters still worse. As a last resort they were advised by a friend to use the Cuticura Remedies. I am glad to tell you that after a few days' treatment with Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent the effect was wonderful and the result was a perfect cure in all cases." Thomas Hugh, 1650 W. Huron St., Chicago, Ill., June 28, 1909.

Have that old-fashioned, unsanitary plumbing replaced by new and modern open plumbing. It will repay you in the increase of health and saving of doctor's bills. Overhauling and re-fitting thoroughly done. Let me give you a figure for replacing all the old work with the new. The work will keep you the sewer gas. The work will be first-class and the price reasonable.
