The laying of the cornerstone of a building of national importance erected by the state, under the title of state library and supreme court building.

Justin Holden. Grand Senior Warden. This is an event which needs to be crystallized into history where it will not be lost and when the future generations look back upon the past and then read the story of its erection and fact that their ancestors were engaged in the important work of laying the principal stone which but feelings of pride will be evoked.

Nearly every grand lodge in the world is engaged in collecting Masonic literature, and most of us would be surprised to understand how far-reaching and how extensive that literature is. Our own library was started by special vote of the grand lodge in 1882, at which time there were perhaps 100 volumes, forming the nucleus of what has become, with almost no effort, a library of over 1,100 bound volumes, and perhaps one-third as many more awaiting binding.

A list of the gifts made to the library the past year was enumerated. Among them was included a certificate of diploma or diploma, from Grand Secretary Brownell of Ohio, which was received. The first grand master of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, was the first grand high priest of the grand chapter of Connecticut, being at that time high priest of Washington chapter, R. A. M., to Nathan Sage of Middletown in 1794 and signed by Stephen H. Hilditch, grand master, and also by Joseph Webb, afterwards grand master. Stephen Titus Hosmer was grand master of Masons in Connecticut, which position he held for eighteen consecutive years. He was a chief justice of the supreme court of Connecticut for four years.

A handsome volume of the "History of Freemasonry in Ohio," from Grand Secretary Brownell of Ohio, which was received. The first grand master of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, was the first grand high priest of the grand chapter of Connecticut, being at that time high priest of Washington chapter, R. A. M., to Nathan Sage of Middletown in 1794 and signed by Stephen H. Hilditch, grand master, and also by Joseph Webb, afterwards grand master. Stephen Titus Hosmer was grand master of Masons in Connecticut, which position he held for eighteen consecutive years. He was a chief justice of the supreme court of Connecticut for four years.

The returns of the lodges for the past year were summarized by the grand secretary. The returns from 108 of the 116 lodges show the number initiated was 125, passed 1,108, 1,129, affiliated 86, reinstated 33, demitted 88, died 413. The total membership is 22,152, a gain in membership of 574.

The lodges which have done the largest amount of work during the year are: No. 1, 48; Wooster, No. 79, 42; Hartford, No. 85, 42; Adolph, No. 62, 42; Olive Branch, No. 10, 42; No. 22, 35; St. John's, No. 4, 32; Continental, No. 76, 29; Harmony, No. 20, 28; John's, No. 84, 28; Orient, No. 62, 24; Harmony, No. 42; 25. BALD AT 25

Mr. Armstrong Tells How He Grew Hair in a Short Time

Dear Sirs:—I was told of your great remedy, Parisian Sage, that it would grow hair on bald heads, so I got a bottle and tried it, and in 5 days, I am a young man, and only 25, and was completely bald on the top of my head, and now I have hair one inch long, with the use of only one bottle. I shall certainly keep on using it until I have a good head of hair, which I have no doubt it will bring.—Oscar Armstrong, Esq., 101 West 19th Street, New York City, August 21, 1909.

To the readers of The Bulletin: The Grand M. E. Co. American makers of Parisian Sage, wish to state that they do not guarantee Parisian Sage to grow hair on bald heads, because in most cases the hair root is dead. In the case of Mr. Armstrong the hair root was not dead, and knowing as we do the astonishing hair growing virtue of Parisian Sage, we see no reason why it should not grow hair on the head of Mr. Armstrong.

But we do guarantee Parisian Sage (and so does The Lee & Osgood Co.) to stop falling hair, dandruff, and itching scalp, in two weeks, or money refunded.

Parisian Sage is a daintily perfumed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and used extensively by actors who desire brilliant and luxuriant hair that attracts and fascinates.

Large bottles with comb, at drug stores everywhere, and at The Lee & Osgood Co.

It is a dangerous thing to take a cough medicine containing opiates that merely stifle your cough instead of curing it.
