MIDDLETOWN TEAM Wants to Be Admitted to Proposed Trolley League.

Mayor D. P. Dunn is in receipt of a letter from Charles N. Burdick of Middletown, who is hot for a team in the trolley league. Mr. Burdick favors a league of the proposed trolley league towns, together with Middletown, Bristol, South Manchester and Rockville. He wants a place for the "bug" town, anyway, and desires representation at the meeting in Norwich today at the Del-Hoff. Mr. Burdick takes unto himself the credit of having started the talk that resulted in some action being taken toward forming the league. As the representative of The Sporting News, he claims that it was his story that started the ball a-rolling which resulted in the present talk of a league.

OBITUARY. Hugh M. Scott. Hugh M. Scott, age 85, died at his home on Walnut street, South Hadley, Mass., Tuesday afternoon, following a long illness. He was born in Hampton and went to the Falls 42 years ago. He had held town office and for a long period had been affiliated with the South Hadley Congregational church. There survive a daughter, Mrs. Loren S. McCray of South Hadley, and five sons, Charles D. and Roy of the Falls, Earl M. of South Wilbraham, Frank of Mittenague and Arthur L. Scott of Woronoco. Mr. Scott was a cousin of Mrs. Angelina Avery, who resides in Lebanon, near this city. He lived for many years in Mansfield and afterwards in Coventry. He was a tanner in Mansfield. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock and the body will be brought to this city this morning, and taken to the chapel of Elmore & Shepard on North street. Burial will be in the cemetery at Windham Center.

Mrs. Gurley J. Jacobs. Mrs. Gurley J. Jacobs, aged 48, died Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at her home in Mansfield, following a long illness with diabetes. Previous to her marriage with Mr. Jacobs about a score of years ago she was Mrs. Mary Jane Chappell. There survive besides her husband two sons, Raymond and David, and her aged father, Wilson Johnson of Canada, three sisters, Mrs. Charles Smith, Miss Belle Johnson of this city and Mrs. John Shearer of Canada, and four brothers, John Johnson of this city, Thomas, James and Andrew Johnson of Canada.

Visited Capitol. City Engineer R. E. Mitchell was in Hartford Wednesday on business at the office of the state highway commissioner.

Dr. Robert R. Agnew Wins Ivoryton Bride--Death of Miss Lora Noyes--Art Class Meets.

Dr. Robert Robertson Agnew of this place and Miss Essie Griswold, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Griswold, of Ivoryton, were married at the home of the bride's parents at 11:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Only near relatives were present. The rooms were handsomely decorated with mountain laurel, ferns and house plants. Rev. E. W. Burt, pastor of the Congregational church, of which the bride is a member, performed the ceremony. The wedding music from Lohengrin was played on the piano by Miss Edith Agnew. The bride and groom were unattended. The bride's gown was of white net over white silk, trimmed with white satin ribbon. Following the ceremony there was a luncheon, after which Dr. and Mrs. Agnew left for New York, Yonkers and other points of interest.

The bride's traveling suit was a dark blue diagonal serge. The hat, of dark blue, matched the suit. Several out of town guests were present, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. William B. Agnew, parents of the groom, Miss Edith Agnew, and George Agnew, a sister and brother-in-law of the groom, Alfred Sanford of East Haven and Mr. and Mrs. William Boyce and Mrs. John Boyce of New Haven and Mrs. E. H. Burt of Ivoryton.

The bride received many handsome gifts, consisting of gold, silver, cut glass, china and linen. Her gift from the groom was a pearl brooch. After a brief trip Dr. and Mrs. Agnew will reside in Jewett City.

Mrs. Fred S. Brown was notified on Wednesday of the death of Miss Lora Noyes in Boston. Miss Noyes has been in ill health for several years and for many years spent the greater part of her time at Mrs. Brown's home, having many friends here.

The Art class met at Mrs. G. H. Jenning's Tuesday afternoon, her paper being a sketch of the artist Donatello. The Young Ladies' sodality conducted a whist and social in Finn's opera on Tuesday evening, a large number attending.

Rev. E. W. Potter and Mrs. Potter attended the Baptist ministers' conference in Norwich on Tuesday. Rev. Charles Maynard has returned from Lowell and reports his brother George to be better and that there is hope of his recovery.

CONNECTICUT LANDMARKS. Paper by Miss Brown Before D. A. R. Meeting. The Anne Brewster Fanning chapter, D. A. R., held its regular meeting with their first meeting on Wednesday afternoon with eleven members and three visitors present. The paper of the afternoon was written by Miss Alice A. Brown and the subject was Connecticut Landmarks of Connecticut.

The nation's first war, she said, was fought on Connecticut ground, mentioning Mason's monument at the old battle ground in Norwich, and stating that President Jackson in 1833 laid the cornerstone of the monument to Ucas. The spot where Miantonomo fell and Indian trap are familiar to all, and Sachem's Head also. The grave of Weranung in Litchfield county, near the Great Falls of the Housatonic river, was mentioned, where the bluff at the falls is known as Lovers' Leap. Indian history would not be complete without mentioning the Indian school at Norwich, where the frame of the ancient school is still preserved in the present schoolhouse. Rev. Gleazer Wheelock taught the Indians here and at Dartmouth college in Hanover, N. H. Other historic places are the oldest house in the United States north of Florida, which is in the house in Guilford, of Connecticut.

Delay in Adjusting Insurance--St. Edward's Parishioners Unite in Generous Offering.

The insurance on the stock of goods in the store owned by John Anthony, and which were damaged by fire about four weeks ago, has not been adjusted. Mr. Anthony estimates his loss at $1,700, but the insurance company puts it at a much lower figure. Appraisers are to be appointed, one each by the company and the insured, to estimate the damage. The board of relief was in session again Wednesday in the town hall in Stafford Hollow.
