Off for his eighth spring training trip with the Philadelphia Athletics, Dan Murphy left his home here on Sunday, taking the trolley to New London, where he expected to take the federal express for Philadelphia. With his usual modesty and dislike of a fuss being made over him, Dan ducked any farewell ceremony that his many friends might have tendered, but he started off with the best wishes of a small army of local fans.
 Monday morning in Philadelphia, Captain Davis gathers a bunch of fifteen of the veterans of the Athletics and leaves with them for Hot Springs, Ark., where they will stay for ten days, for a boiling out of a season being in general good condition. They will then move on to Atlanta to complete their spring training, and return to Philadelphia in time to play the intercity series with the Philadelphia Nationals in April.
 In the squad of veterans will be Pitches Plank, Bender, Coombs, Moran, Krause, Dygert, Catchers Thomas and Livingston, Infielders Collins, Barry and Baker; Outfielders Murphy, Habel, Oldring and Heilmuller.
 Coach Mack with the recruits will do their spring training all in Atlanta. It is reported that there is a pitcher among the new ones whom Connie Mack has picked up for next year, who is going to mix them up with either hand. Here is what they say about him:
 "Charley Friene has come to terms with Connie Mack and mailed back his contract. The Philadelphia club will have in Friene a young pitcher of unusual ability. He is an ambidextrous thrower. There are few pitchers who can shoot the ball over the plate with either hand but Friene has done so. He has pitched part of a game with his right hand and finished up with his left. It is only when he is hitting or has some dangerous southpaw hitter that he smokes them over with his left. John Reilly discovered the youngster, who is a graduate of Santa Clara college, and recommended him to Connie Mack."

 Bulletin Job Room Five Wins—Post-office Selects Team to Roll Westery.
 In the second match between the two teams this season, The Bulletin's job room team turned the tables on the newspaper duckpin five, by defeating them two out of three games Saturday evening at the Rose pitcher. The matches now standing one all, the newspaper team still has a lead, four games to two, as they made a clean sweep of the three games in the last match. The newspaper five challenges the job room for a return match next Saturday, promising the job room five a decisive trimming that will last them a lifetime.
 Harry a recruit borrowed for the evening by the job room in the person of their regular man, Frank, furnished the feature work for the winners, rolling both best and worst single, 109 and 68, at the same time coming across with the high total of 251. Wilson's 94 and Captain Nebert's 96 and Ammery's 91 put them also in the honor class.

SATURDAY MARKETS.
 Prices Took a Downward Turn After an Early Activity.
 New York, Feb. 26.—10.10 a. m.—A fractional decline in Union Pacific was the only exception to the upward tendency of opening prices for stocks. The advances were limited to small fractions, outside a half dozen instances.
 11 a. m.—The early activity in the market subsided and prices took a downward turn, led by Louisville and Nashville and Reading, in which the realizing was on a large scale.
 Noon.—Selling pressure was renewed from time to time.
 1 p. m.—The market retained its heavy undertone, but only a few stocks of importance were pressed for sale, the market in general becoming inactive.
 2 p. m.—The market reversed its course late in the day, resulting in a full recovery in Reading, and a rally of a point in Union Pacific and International Harvester, and pulling United States Steel and the copper stocks to above yesterday's closing. Prices eased off later, when the demand dropped off.

JUDGMENT FOR PLAINTIFF FOR BOTH NOTES.
 R. A. Lowe Wins in Suit Against P. E. Hendrick for $2,650 and Interest.
 On Saturday Judge Gardiner Greene handed down a decision in the case of R. A. Lowe vs. P. E. Hendrick vs. P. E. Hendrick, which was recently heard in this city. In the memorandum of decision he says:
 The substituted complaint contains two counts. The first is on a note for $1,500, dated June 1, 1909, payable two months after the date of issue. The second count is on a note for $1,150, dated June 1, 1909, at the banking house of James Staples & Co., for value received, and assigned by Philip E. Hendrick to the defendant.
 I find that this note was made by and endorsed to the plaintiff's order and defendant by plaintiff and delivered to defendant for defendant's accommodation.
 Defendant discounted it and applied the proceeds to his own use. When the note came due the defendant did not pay it, and the plaintiff with his own money took it up and now holds it. There is due from the defendant to the plaintiff on said note $1,500 and interest at 6 per cent. from August 1, 1909.
 The allegations of the first two paragraphs of the second count of the complaint are admitted by the answer. The defendant's defense is that the plaintiff's benefit, paid $1,150 due from defendant to plaintiff on the contract set up in the second count and set forth in the various items of payment set forth in said amended defense, and whether he fully accounted to the plaintiff for the monies so paid.
 I find that the defendant did not pay any of the said items for plaintiff's benefit and with his knowledge and consent, nor account to the plaintiff therefor, and that there is due from defendant to plaintiff under said second count $1,150 and interest at 6 per cent. from June 1, 1909.
 Judgment is rendered for the plaintiff in the second count and the first count $1,500 with interest at 6 per cent. from August 1, 1909, and on the second count $1,150 with interest at 6 per cent. from June 1, 1909.
